Red Yesterdays:

Yesterday's Monsters Hadar Aviram, 2020-02-18 In 1969 the world was shocked by a series of murders committed by Charles Manson and his family of followers. Although the defendants were sentenced to death in 1971, their sentences were commuted to life with parole in 1972. Since 1978 they have been regularly attending parole hearings. Today all of the living defendants remain behind bars, relying on nearly fifty years of parole hearing transcripts as well as interviews and archival materials. Hadar Aviram invites readers into the opaque world of the California parole process, a realm of almost unfettered administrative discretion, prison programming inadequacies, high pitched emotions, and political pressures. Yesterday's Monsters offers a fresh longitudinal perspective on extreme punishment. The Past Is Red Catherynne M. Valente, 2021-07-20 The Candide of our % age Ken Liu award winning author Catherynne M. Valente, the bestselling and award winning creator of Space Opera and The Girl Who Circumnavigated Fairyland returns with The Past Is Red, the enchanting dark funny angry story of a girl who made two terrible mistakes: she told the truth and she dared to love the world. A Hugo Award finalist, An inaugural Ursula K. Le Guin Prize for Fiction finalist, A Locus Award finalist, The future is blue. Endless blue, except for a few small places that float across the hot, drowned world left behind by long gone fossil fuel guzzlers. One of those patches is a magical place called Garbagetown. Tetley Abednego is the most beloved girl in Garbagetown, but she's the only one who knows it. She's the only one who knows a lot of things that Garbagetown is the most wonderful place in the world that it's full of hope that you can love someone and 66% hate them all at the same time. But Earth is a terrible mess, hope is a fragile thing, and a lot of people are very angry with her. Then Tetley discovers a new friend, a terrible secret, and more to her world than she ever expected. Today's Sounds for Yesterday's Films K.J. Donnelly,Ann-Kristin Wallengren,2016-04-08 In recent years there has been something of an explosion in the performance of live music to silent films There is a wide range of films with live and new scores that run from the historically accurate orchestral scores to contemporary sounds by groups such as Pet Shop Boys or by experimental composers and gothic heavy metal bands It is no exaggeration to claim that music constitutes a bridge between the old silent film and the modern audience music is also a channel for non scholarly audiences to gain an appreciation of silent films Music has become a means both for musicians and audiences to understand this bygone film art anew This book is the first of its kind in that it aims to bring together writings and interviews to delineate the culture of providing music for silent films It not only has the character of a scholarly work but is also something of a manual in that it discusses how to make music for silent films On
