Body Dialectics in the Age of Goethe Marianne Henn, Holger Pausch, 2003 In opposition to an essentialist conceptualization the social construct of the human body in literature can be analyzed and described by means of effective methodologies that are based on Discourse Theory Theory of Cultural Transmission and Ecology System Theory and Media Theory In this perspective the body is perceived as a complex arrangement of substantiation substitution and omission depending on demands expectations and prohibitions of the dominant discourse network The term Body Dialectics stands for the attempt to decipher and for a moment freeze the web of such discursive arrangements that constitute the fictitious notion of the body in the framework of a specific historic environment here in the Age of Goethe

The Routledge Companion to Anglophone Caribbean Literature Michael A. Bucknor, Alison Donnell, 2011-06-14 This Companion is divided into six sections that provide an introduction to and critical history of the field discussions of key texts and a critical debate on major topics such as the nation race gender and migration In the final section contributors examine the material dissemination of Caribbean literature and point towards the new directions that Caribbean literature and criticism are taking

Transgressive Transcripts Bennett Yu-Hsiang Fu, 2012 Transgressive Transcripts examines the construction of women's subjectivity and the textual production of Canadian female voices orchestrated in history culture ethnicity and sexuality The book stressing the dissemination and re inscription of femaleness and femininity in Chinese Canadian history employs critical models that defy the sexual textual imaginary of the Canadian literary scene Four fields of study are conjoined feminist theories of the body gender and sexuality studies women's writing and Asian North American studies Analysing four writers SKY Lee Larissa Lai Lydia Kwa and Evelyn Lau the book anchors its thematic and theoretical concern with female sexuality in the context of Chinese Canadian writing Feminist narratives and gender politics in contemporary Asian North American literature are highlighted via the trope of transgression

Queer Aging in North American Fiction Linda M. Hess, 2019-01-24 Exploring representations of queer aging in North American fiction this book illuminates a rich yet previously unheeded intersection within American culture At a time when older LGBTQ persons gradually gain visibility in gerontological studies and in the media this work provides a critical perspective concerned with the ways in which the narratives and images we have at our disposal shape our realities Each chapter shines a spotlight on a significant work of queer fiction beginning with post WWII novels and ending with filmic representations of the 2010s exploring narratives as both reflections and agents of broader cultural negotiations concerning queer sexuality and aging As a result the book not only redresses queer aging's history of invisibility but also reveals narratives of queer aging to be particularly apt in casting new light on the ways in which growing older is perceived and conceptualized in North American culture

Fractured Biographies Ian Wallace, 2003 A physical chemist Fritz Haber a photographer Josef Breitenbach a cabaret artist Georg Kreisler two writers Otto Alscher and Albin Stuebs a pioneering scholar in Irish German studies John Hennig and a Celtic philologist Julius Pokorny are the focus of this volume What they have in common is a biography fractured by the Nazis rise to power in 1933 Six were forced into exile the life of the seventh the Romanian German writer Otto Alscher shows that even the biography of a Nazi sympathiser could be dislocated by the years of dictatorship As the previously unpublished letters which are reproduced here show Fritz Haber a Nobel prize winner spent his last lonely months seeking a dignified way to leave the country to which he had once felt the deepest attachment Although a prominent member of Germany's academic elite Julius Pokorny had to retire because of his Jewish ancestry in December 1935 and yet was allowed to continue publishing on ethnic themes until his exile in 1943 Albin Stuebs was forced to seek refuge in Prague and later England when his left wing political convictions made him a certain target for the Nazis Because of his marriage into a liberal Jewish family John Hennig had to renounce all hope of an academic career in Nazi Germany and after his exile to Ireland struggled in straitened circumstances to support his family while at the same time developing into an unusually prolific scholar Proof that exile may stimulate creative energy is provided by Josef Breitenbach whose remarkable biography appears to show that loss and uprootedness may release otherwise undeveloped creative potential Similarly the flight of Georg Kreisler from Vienna in 1938 was the start of a remarkable voyage of discovery which saw him grow into a major if consistently undervalued figure in the world of post war German cabaret

Reconfiguring Citizenship and National Identity in the North American Literary Imagination Kathy-Ann Tan, 2015-12-07 Explores how traditional notions of citizenship are contested and altered through literature Literature has always played a central role in creating and disseminating culturally specific notions of citizenship nationhood and belonging In Reconfiguring Citizenship and National Identity in the North American Literary Imagination author Kathy Ann Tan investigates metaphors configurations parameters and articulations of U S and Canadian citizenship that are enacted renegotiated and revised in modern literary texts particularly during periods of emergence and crisis Tan brings together for the first time a selection of canonical and lesser known U S and Canadian writings for critical consideration She begins by exploring literary depiction of willful or wayward citizens and those with precarious bodies that are viewed as threatening undesirable unacceptable including refugees and asylum seekers undocumented migrants deportees and stateless people She also considers the rights to citizenship and political membership claimed by queer bodies and an examination of new and alternative forms of citizenship such as denizenship urban citizenship diasporic citizenship and Indigenous citizenship With case studies based on works by a diverse collection of authors including Nathaniel Hawthorne Djuna Barnes Etel Adnan Sarah Schulman Walt Whitman Gail Scott and Philip Roth Tan uncovers alternative forms of collectivity community and nation across a broad range of perspectives In line with recent cross disciplinary explorations in the field Reconfiguring Citizenship and National Identity in the North American Literary Imagination shows citizenship as less of a fixed or static legal entity and more as a set of symbolic and cultural practices Scholars of literary studies cultural studies and citizenship studies will be grateful for Tan's illuminating study

Ambiguous Subjects Jennifer Wawrzinek, 2008 In the history of ideas the aesthetic categories of the sublime and the grotesque have exerted a powerful force over the cultural imagination Ambiguous Subjects is one of the first studies to examine the relationship between these concepts Tracing the history of the sublime from the eighteenth century through Burke and Kant Wawrzinek illustrates the ways in which the sublime has traditionally been privileged as an inherently masculine and imperialist mode of experience that polices and abjects the grotesque to the margins of acceptable discourse and the way in which twentieth century reconfigurations of the sublime increasingly enable the productive situating of these concepts within a dialogic relation as a means of instating an ethical relation to others This book examines the articulations of both the sublime and the grotesque in three postmodern texts Looking at novels by Nicole Brossard and Morgan Yasbincek and the performance work of The Women s Circus Wawrzinek illuminates the ways in which these writers and performers restructure the spatial and temporal parameters of the sublime in order to allow various forms of highly contingent transcendence that always necessarily remain in relation to the grotesque body Ambiguous Subjects illustrates how the sublime and the grotesque can co exist in a manner where each depends on and is inflected through the other thus enabling a notion of individuality and of community as contingent but nevertheless very real moments in time Ambiguous Subjects is essential reading for anyone interested in aesthetics continental philosophy gender studies literary theory sociology and politics

Crosstalk Diana Brydon, Marta Dvořák, 2012-07-24 What are the fictions that shape Canadian engagements with the global What frictions emerge from these encounters In negotiating aesthetic and political approaches to Canadian cultural production within contexts of global circulation this collection argues for the value of attending to narratorial lyric and theatrical conventions in dialogue with questions of epistemological and social justice Using the twinned framing devices of crosstalk and cross sighting the contributing authors attend to how the interplay of the verbal and the visual maps public spheres of creative engagement today Individual chapters present a range of methodological approaches to understanding national culture and creative labour in global contexts Through their collective enactment of methodological crosstalk they demonstrate the productivity of scholarly debate across differences of outlook culture and
