 the rural South This collection of essays includes some of the past twenty five years best writing on the subject as well as ten this early humor in particular selected poems of William Henry Timrod and Washington Irving s The Legend of Sleepy Hollow

 1958 a group of scholars undertook to make a new survey of the Southern Appalachian Region Aided by grants from the Ford

Foundation ultimately amounting to 250 000 they set out to analyze the direction and extent of the changes which had taken place since the last survey in 1935 to define the problem in terms of the present situation and if possible to arrive at recommendations for action which might enable the leaders of the Region and the nation to attack the problem with practical measures In this volume are presented their comprehensive reports on the Region's population its economy its institutions and its culture The problems defined by this survey are a challenge to the whole nation for the consequences of success or failure in solving them will not be limited to the Southern Appalachian Region Affection and Estrangement: a
