Redwall The Wall:

Redwall Brian Jacques, 2002-09-30 Soon to be a Netflix original movie One of TIME Magazine's 100 Best Fantasy Books of All Time The book that inspired a legend the first novel in the beloved bestselling Redwall saga Welcome to Mossflower Wood where the gentle mice have gathered to celebrate a year of peace and abundance All is well until a sinister shadow falls across the ancient stone abbey of Redwall It is rumored that Cluny is coming Cluny the terrible one eyed rat and his savage horde Cluny who has vowed to conquer Redwall Abbey The only hope for the besieged mice lies in the lost sword of the legendary Martin the Warrior And so begins the epic quest of a bumbling young apprentice a courageous mouse who would rise up fight back and become a legend himself Perfect for fans of T A Barron's Merlin saga John Flanagan's Ranger's Apprentice series and J R R Tolkien's Lord of the Rings series The medieval world of Redwall Abbey where gallant mouse warriors triumph over evil invaders has truly become the stuff of legend Seattle Post Intelligencer Redwall Brian

Jacques, 1997-05-01 Is jam packed with the things we long for in a great adventure danger laughter hairbreadth escapes tragedy mystery a touch of wonder a truly despicable villain a hero Mathias a young mouse who must rise above his fears failures to save his friends at Redwall Abbey The Red Wall Jane Hall, 2007 Since 1977 people have asked Jane Hall over and over what it was like to have been among the first few female members in the RCMP and like so many of her peers she has avoided answering the question How could one sentence do the question justice Finally after years of thoughtful contemplation she has borrowed a phrase from the father of one of the original members of the North West Mounted Police Sub Inspector Francis Dickens It was the best of times it was the worst of times But the reason for avoiding the answer like the question itself was a little more complex than simply not having the correct words To truly tell the complete story some of the bad as well as the good must be told and that was why senior female members like Ms Hall had chosen to remain silent fearing that any abbreviated response could be misinterpreted or subverted to unfairly attack the RCMP After all it was the RCMP who broke new social and professional ground when it decided In the absence of any empirical evidence to the contrary the assumption had to be that females would be capable of performing all the diversified duties in the Force equal to the males The RCMP the embodiment of the Canadian national identity levelled the professional playing field for women and by doing so in this unprecedented leadership role the RCMP catapulted the women's movement forward impacting the lives of women throughout North America and quite possibly the world Says Jane Hall It is time to break the silence time to acknowledge our successes and our failures Time to move forward The Red Wall Frank Mackenzie Savile, 1914 and against different closure and transmission principles The contributors address issues such as whether knowledge and justification are closed under deductive entailment whether scepticism can be properly contained by restricting closure principles whether justification for a set of premises can fail to transmit across inference to a conclusion Moore's Paradox and which theories of knowledge contextualism contrastivism or relevant alternatives epistemology emerge from denying closure New Perspectives on Epistemic Closure will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in epistemology
