Reeducating Myself:

Reeducating the Educator Helen Christiansen, S. Ramadevi, 2012-02-01 Reeducating the Educator focuses on community building within teacher education programs in Canada Israel Australia and the United States Maintaining that communities have to be built and sustained the contributors discuss possible theoretical frameworks underlying community building and change and suggest that there is a need for teacher educators to go beyond localized experiences and reach out to one another in a global discussion Because of the impact of local cultures and histories key questions and issues vary from one country to another and even from one faculty to another but the resulting global conversation provides a greater understanding of the professional development of teachers and teacher educators The Mastery of Nervousness Based Upon Self Reeducation Robert Sproul Carroll, 1917 Fate of the Wild Bonnie B. Burgess, 2003-02-01 Given widespread concern over the worldwide loss of biodiversity and popular crusades to save endangered species and habitats why has the Endangered Species Act remained unauthorized since October 1992 In Fate of the Wild Bonnie B Burgess offers an illuminating assembly of facts about biodiversity and straightforward analysis of the legislative stalemate surrounding the Endangered Species Act Fate of the Wild surveys the history of and analyzes the conflict over the legislation itself the heated issues regarding its enforcement and the land use and habitat battles waged between conservationists environmental activists and private property proponents Burgess s meticulous and exhaustive research makes Fate of the Wild a valuable resource for professionals in conservation biology public policy environmental law and environmental organizations while the narrative clarity of the book will appeal to anyone interested in the fate of nonhuman species Burgess explains how wilderness has been consumed by concrete and asphalt the effects of toxins on plants and animals strip mine tailings oil slicks and smog She exposes as well the invisible damage that manifests itself in the subtle degradation of natural systems and in the increased incidence and number of diseases the rise in human infertility and the drastic alteration of weather patterns and landscapes Fate of the Wild presents a factual and balanced discussion of the various sides of the contemporary debate over the Endangered Species Act alongside the author s clearly stated position We are overpopulating polluting and overdeveloping our environment and as a species we have embarked on a crash course toward a sixth great extinction event on this Earth These 4 Walls K. Plea Bargaining Milton Heumann, 2020-05-30 That relatively few criminal cases in this country are resolved by full Perry Mason style trials is fairly common knowledge Most cases are settled by a guilty plea after some form of negotiation over the charge or sentence But why The standard explanation is case pressure the enormous volume of criminal cases to be processed with limited staff time and resources But a large body of new empirical research now demands that we re examine plea negotiation Milton Heumann s book Plea Bargaining strongly and explicitly attacks the case pressure argument and suggests an alternative explanation for plea bargaining based on the adaptation of attorneys and judges to the local criminal court The book is a significant and welcome addition to the literature Heumann s investigation of case pressure and plea negotiation demonstrates solid research and careful analysis Michigan Law Review

How I Survived a Chinese "Reeducation" Camp Gulbahar Haitiwaji, Rozenn Morgat, 2022-02-22 The first memoir about the reeducation camps by a Uyghur woman I have written what I lived The atrocious reality Gulbahar Haitiwaji to Paris Match Since 2017 more than one million Uyghurs have been deported from their homes in the Xinjiang region of China to reeducation camps The brutal repression of the Uyghurs a Turkish speaking Muslim ethnic group has been denounced as genocide and reported widely in media around the world The Xinjiang Papers revealed by the New York Times in 2019 expose the brutal repression of the Uyghur ethnicity by means of forced mass detention the biggest since the time of Mao Her name is Gulbahar Haitiwaji and she is the first Uyghur woman to write a memoir about the reeducation camps For three years Haitiwaji endured hundreds of hours of interrogations torture hunger police violence brainwashing forced sterilization freezing cold and nights under blinding neon light in her prison cell These camps are to China what the Gulags were to the USSR The Chinese government denies that they are concentration camps seeking to legitimize their existence in the name of the total fight against Islamic terrorism infiltration and separatism and calls them schools But none of this is true Gulbahar only escaped thanks to the relentless efforts of her daughter Her courageous memoir is a terrifying portrait of the atrocities she endured in the Chinese gulag and how the treatment of the Uyghurs at the hands of the Chinese government is just the latest example of their oppression of independent minorities within Chinese borders The Xinjiang region where the Uyghurs live is where the Chinese government wishes there to be a new silk route connecting Asia to Europe considered to be the most important political project of president Xi Jinping

Grand Central Winter Lee Stringer, 2011-01-04 A New York Times Notable Book Whether Lee Stringer is describing God's corner as he calls 42nd Street or his friend Suzy a hooker and past due tourist whose infant child he sometimes babysits whether he is recounting his experiences at Street News where he began hawking the newspaper for a living wage then wrote articles and served for a time as muckraking senior editor whether it is his adventures in New York's infamous Tombs jail or performing community service or sleeping in the tunnels below Grand Central Station by night and collecting cans by day this is a book rich with small acts of kindness humor and even heroism alongside the expected violence and desperation of life on the street There is always room Stringer writes amid the costume jewel glitter for one more diamond in the rough Two events rise over Grand Central Winter like sentinels Stringer's discovery of crack cocaine and his catching the writing bug Between these two very different yet oddly similar activities Lee's life unwound itself during the 1980s and took the shape of an odyssey an epic struggle to find meaning and happiness in arid times He eventually beat the first addiction with help from a treatment program The second addiction writing has hold of him still Among the many accomplishments of this book is that Stringer is able to convey something of the vitality and complexity of a down and out life The reader walks away from it humming its melody one that is more wise than despairing less about the shame we feel when confronted with a picture of those less fortunate and more about the joy we feel when we experience our shared humanity

My Documents Alejandro Zambra, 2024-02-27 The landmark first story collection from internationally acclaimed author Alejandro Zambra now featuring five additional stories and an introduction by his longtime collaborator Megan McDowell An early desktop computer becomes the third partner in a doomed relationship an older brother figure whose father lives in exile imparts hilarious life lessons to his young protégé A man attempts to quit smoking despite the fact that he's very good at it another masquerades as the family man he'll never be Throughout Pinochet's dictatorship casts a long shadow and men in relationships exhibit their profound capacity for both love and harm In these unforgettable stories which span religion romance technology soccer solitude and more Alejandro Zambra unfolds a radical literary reflection on life relationships and the tender and brutal dimensions of masculinity in Chile from the 1980s to the present Intimate and playful provocative and profound and brilliantly rendered by National Book Award winning translator Megan McDowell My Documents a testament to the necessity of literature even and especially in times of political and personal crisis

Birds Aren't Real Peter

McIndoe, Connor Gaydos, 2024-06-04 The true story of the greatest conspiracy in US history and how to fight back Have you ever seen a baby pigeon You haven't have you No one has not in many many years They used to be everywhere You couldn't walk out of your front door in New York City in the 1930s without seeing dozens of those little guys scurrying around Today there are millions of grown up pigeons in New York but not a baby pigeon to be seen That's because they come out of the factory as adults This is one of the many smoking guns of the bird drone surveillance crisis Since 1959 the Deep State has mercilessly slaughtered over 12 billion birds and replaced them with identical drones that are designed to spy on private citizens and report their every action directly to the government From pet canaries to Sesame Street the shadowy figures that pull the strings have infiltrated every aspect of our society making a mockery of civil liberties while the American people live in blissful ignorance Until now In Birds Aren't Real whistleblowers Peter McIndoe and Connor Gaydos trace the roots of a political conspiracy so vast and well hidden that it almost seems like an elaborate hoax These hero Bird Truthers have risked life and limb to compile and disseminate a treasure trove of information about the origins of the surveillance crisis its spread and the patriots who are on the front lines today raising awareness and working to reclaim America as the land of the free This urgent manifesto features a host of useful illustrations activities and leaked classified documents that will convince even the most outspoken skeptic that birds aren't real The truth is out there will you stand and fight before it's too late

Exploring the Human Spirit Richard Dance, 2024-01-23 Exploring the Human Spirit is a collection of essays Richard Dance wrote for a study group that grew out of an East West philosophy course he taught at several colleges in Arizona His philosophy students asked him to start a study group to explore more deeply the ideas presented in the class He obliged by writing essays on various topics that he thought would benefit others and everyone met at his home monthly for a presentation on each essay These Mindful Medicine Salons unfolded spontaneously over two years with several hundred participants in attendance creating a wonderful sense of community in the pursuit of self knowledge Great thanks go to all the students without whom this book would have never existed
