Rethinking Reference for Academic Libraries

Carrie Forbes, Jennifer Bowers, 2014-12-05 The rapid development of the Web and Web based technologies has led to an ongoing redefinition of reference services in academic libraries A growing diversity of users and the need and possibility for collaboration in delivering reference services bring additional pressures for change At the same time there are growing demands for libraries to show accountability and service value All of these trends have impacted the field and will continue to shape reference and research services And they have led to a need for increasingly specialized professional competencies and a literature to support them In order to reimagine reference service for twenty first century learning environments practitioners will need to understand several focal areas of emerging reference In particular collaboration with campus partners diverse student populations technological innovations the need for assessment and new professional competencies present new challenges and opportunities for creating a twenty first century learning environment Librarians must not only understand but also embrace these emerging reference practices This edited volume containing five sections and fourteen chapters reviews the current state of reference services in academic libraries with an emphasis on innovative developments and future trends The main theme that runs through the book is the urgent need for inventive imaginative and responsive reference and research services Through literature reviews and case studies this book provides professionals with a convenient compilation of timely issues and models at comparable institutions As academic libraries shift from functioning primarily as collections repositories to serving as key players in discovery and knowledge creation value added services such as reference are even more central to libraries and universities changing missions

Digital reference services in academic libraries

Wan Ab Kadir Wan Dollah, 2012 Digital Reference Services in Academic Libraries presents the background of DRS evolution of DRS the concept of DRS emerging models of DRS benefits and limitation of DRS personalized services trends and challenges technological developments evaluation and guidelines effectiveness and DRS in academic libraries The case study examined the existing status of digital reference services DRS in four selected public academic libraries in Malaysia Focused is given on the awareness usage users perception users satisfaction library s performance and looked at the perceived needs issues and problems faced by librarians and students The study is important to determine how academic librarians are exploiting the latest information and communication technologies to improve reference service operations Recommendations are made on the need for the implementation of synchronous DRS enhancing the role of DRS marketing and promotion staff training user education programmes and cooperation The main contribution of this book is the assessment of effectiveness of DRS in academic libraries in Malaysia the identification of perceived needs issues and problems and suggestions on the areas of improvement in the use of DRS In the process a conceptual model for the effectiveness of the implementation of DRS in academic libraries in Malaysia is presented The author also proposes directions for future research in the area of DRS Library Reference Services and Information Literacy: Models for Academic Institutions Cordell, Rosanne M.,2013-06-30 As classrooms and universities strive to adapt their instructional methods to an ever progressing technological age it is imperative that academic libraries also revisit the ways in which reference and instruction services are organized and implemented Library Reference Services and Information Literacy Models for Academic Institutions not only advocates for a more intentional integration of reference and instructional services but it also provides organizational background staff objectives and various successes and challenges that have already been experienced by real institutions This publication is an important reference source for librarians practitioners and university leaders who wish to maximize the current utilization of their resources
