Reflections In The Minds Eye Reference And Its Problematization In 20th Century French Fiction:

Reflections in the Mind's Eye Brian T. Fitch, 1991 Subtitled Reference and its problematization in twentieth century French fiction A study of two types or levels of referentiality the world of the book and the world of the reader in the French novel between roughly 1930 and 1967 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Reflections in the Mind's Eye Brian T. Fitch, 1991 Subtitled Reference and its problematization in twentieth century French fiction A study of two types or levels of referentiality the world of the book and the world of the reader in the French novel between roughly 1930 and 1967 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Cambridge History of French Literature William Burgwinkle, Nicholas Hammond, Emma Wilson, 2011-02-24 The most comprehensive history of literature written in French ever produced in English Foregrounded Description in Prose Fiction José M. Lopes, 1995-12-15 In this wide ranging study Jos Manuel Lopes proposes a theoretical framework for analysing the role of description in prose fiction He offers readings of texts drawn from four national literatures French Spanish Portuguese and Brazilian testing his model across a cultural and temporal spectrum This critical breadth also illustrates the significance of description in disparate contexts the postmodern novel which implicitly challenges conventional notions of foreground and background as well as the naturalist and realist fiction of the nineteenth century Lopes applies his model to detailed readings of Emile Zola's Une Page d'amour Claude Simon's Histoire Benito Pérez Galdós's La de Bringas Cornelia Penna's A Menina Morta and Carlos de Oliveira's Finisterra In addition to exploring the interplay of description and narration these readings pay particular attention to spatial descriptions and analyse the diverse roles of description in different contexts After subjecting each fictional text to a detailed analysis which seeks to bring out the crucial aspects that contribute towards the foregrounding of descriptive passages e.g. mise en abyme parody modes of representation and which establishes on occasion certain relations that literary description may entertain with the other arts he attempts to isolate the primary functions of foregrounding descriptions What he seeks to demonstrate is that description constitutes a major textual component necessary for the analysis and understanding of both nineteenth and twentieth century fictional texts Critique of Beckett Criticism Peter John Murphy, 1994 A survey of Beckett criticism in English French and German Samuel Beckett 1906-1989 is an important figure in 20th century literary history his plays such as Waiting for Godot and Endgame have acquired a world wide reputation and his novels have proved important touchstones for the critical debates in contemporary literary theory Born in Dublin Beckett spent most of his writing life in France and wrote equally well in French and English his German was also fluent allowing him to direct his own plays in German theatres Any attempt to deal with Beckett must therefore consider the critical response his works have provoked in all three languages A Critique of Beckett Criticism is the first attempt in book form to give a comprehensive survey of the history and scope of Beckett criticism in French English and German Three parallel chapters examine the three major strands of Beckett criticism retracing its development using a historical perspective and pointing out different trends

The Cambridge Companion to Beckett John Pilling, 1994-03-17 The world fame of Samuel Beckett is due to a combination of high academic esteem and immense popularity An innovator in prose fiction to rival Joyce his plays have been the most influential in modern theatre history As an author in both English and French and a writer for the page and the stage Beckett has been the focus for specialist treatment in each of his many guises but there have been few attempts to provide a conspectus view This book first published in 1994 provides thirteen introductory essays on every aspect of Beckett s work some paying particular attention to his most famous plays e g Waiting for Godot and Endgame and his prose fictions e g the trilogy and Murphy Other essays tackle his radio and television drama his theatre directing and his poetry followed by more general issues such as Beckett s bilingualism and his relationship to the philosophers Reference material is provided at the front and back of the book

Claude Simon Jean H. Duffy, Alastair B. Duncan, Formerly Reader in History and Philosophy of Science and Technology Alistair Duncan, 2002-01-01 This collection of essays celebrates the work of the French Nobel prize winning novelist Claude Simon Scholars reconsider the fifty years of Simon s fiction in the light of his large scale autobiographical novel Le Jardin des Plantes 1997 From a variety of perspectives postmodernist psychoanalytic aesthetic chapters reflect on the central paradox of Simon s work his writing and rewriting of an experience of war so disruptive and traumatic that words can never be adequate to communicate it

Storytelling and the Sciences of Mind David Herman, 2017-02-24 An transdisciplinary exploration of narrative not just as a target for interpretation but also as a means for making sense of experience itself With Storytelling and the Sciences of Mind David Herman proposes a cross fertilization between the study of narrative and research on intelligent behavior This cross fertilization goes beyond the simple importing of ideas from the sciences of mind into scholarship on narrative and instead aims for convergence between work in narrative studies and research in the cognitive sciences The book as a whole centers on two questions How do people make sense of stories And How do people use stories to make sense of the world Examining narratives from different periods and across multiple media and genres Herman shows how traditions of narrative research can help shape ways of formulating and addressing questions about intelligent activity and vice versa Using case studies that range from Robert Louis Stevenson s Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde to sequences from The Incredible Hulk comics to narratives told in everyday interaction Herman considers storytelling both as a target for interpretation and as a resource for making sense of experience itself In doing so he puts ideas from narrative scholarship into dialogue with such fields as psycholinguistics philosophy of mind and cognitive social and ecological psychology After exploring ways in which interpreters of stories can use textual cues to build narrative worlds or storyworlds Herman investigates how this process of narrative worldmaking in turn supports efforts to understand and engage with the conduct of persons among other aspects of lived experience

Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory Irene Rima Makaryk,1993-01-01 The last half of the twentieth century has seen the emergence of literary theory as a new discipline As with any body of scholarship various schools of thought exist and sometimes conflict within it I R Makaryk has compiled a welcome guide to the field Accessible and jargon free the Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory provides lucid concise explanations of myriad approaches to literature that have arisen over the past forty years Some 170 scholars from around the world have contributed their expertise to this volume Their work is organized into three parts In Part I forty evaluative essays examine the historical and cultural context out of which new schools of and approaches to literature arose The essays also discuss the uses and limitations of the various schools and the key issues they address Part II focuses on individual theorists It provides a more detailed picture of the network of scholars not always easily pigeonholed into the categories of Part I This second section analyses the individual achievements as well as the influence of specific scholars and places them in a larger critical context Part III deals with the vocabulary of literary theory It identifies significant complex terms places them in context and explains their origins and use Accessibility is a key feature of the work By avoiding jargon providing mini bibliographies and cross referencing throughout Makaryk has provided an indispensable tool for literary theorists and historians and for all scholars and students of contemporary criticism and culture
