sustainable development through local history Understanding the links between history and everyday life Planning and assessing history Based on the latest research and practice in the field Bringing History Alive through Local People and Places offers an exciting template of creative ideas and activities to show teachers how they can make history relevant to all children Reflections on the Universal Declaration of Human Rights Barend van der Heijden, Bahia

Daniel K. Gardner, 2020-03-17 In 1190 Chu Hsi published an edition of the Four Books which he regarded as the basic curriculum for Confucian education Of the four he recommended that the Ta hsueh be read first calling it the outline for learning This is a study of the Ta hsueh text its history prior to the Sung dynasty its new prominence in the Sung and the reasons why Chu Hsi found the text so intellectually and philosophically compelling Includes an original annotated translation of the text Spiritual Reflections Henry G. Covert, 2008-07-30 What is forgiveness How can we be truly grateful for our lives What does spiritual healing really mean How can we attain inner peace joy and contentment So many spiritual questions confront us on a daily basis it is hard to know how to answer each and yet still experience spirituality in a meaningful way Here Covert offers a devotional and educational source that provides practical insights for the reader into how to lead each day more spiritually Broken into thematic sections each brief chapter examines a passage of scripture in its biblical context with an emphasis upon how the text speaks to us today The topics which provide scripture from both the Hebrew Bible and New Testament speak to every aspect of life offering guidance strength and hope The lessons and themes which provide inner strength and renewal speak to one's deepest needs Scriptures are presented in their simplest form and Covert makes
