Social Theory and Education Raymond Allen Morrow, Carlos Alberto Torres, 1995-03-09. This book summarizes and critiques theories of social and cultural reproduction as they relate to sociology of education.

Bibliografía de la economía de la educación, 1988. Bibliografía de todos los aspectos económicos que influyen sobre la educación o que son influidos por ella.

Education in England and Wales Franklin Parker, Betty June Parker, 2018-02-06. Originally published in 1991, this title was begun just before passage of the Education Reform Act of 1988 (ERA 88) which was implemented in the 1990s. This major act along with still in force provisions of the 1944 Education Act with its 17 amendments comprises the statutes governing education in England and Wales. The study reflects both the criticism and the praise showered on that important legislation particularly in the Brief History and School Structure sections and in Chapter 1 with its longer than usual annotations on ERA 88.

Mothers and Education: Inside Out? Rosalind Edwards, Mary Hughes, Jane Ribbens, Miriam E. David, 1993-11-12. Examines the various aspects of the relationships between mothers and education at different levels in the education system. In particular, mothers of young children in relation to various educational policies are looked at in interaction with their children's schools and teachers.

Government Restructuring of Vocational Education and Training, 1981-1987 Charlie Mason, 1988. Comments on the relationship between the policy and action of the Department of Education and Science, the Manpower Services Commission and Local Education Authorities giving particular emphasis to the period since the announcement of the New Training Initiative in 1981.

The Year Book of Social Policy in Britain, 1977.

Public administration, 1978.

Leaders in Gender and Education Marcus B. Weaver-Hightower, Christine Skelton, 2013-09-04. Gender studies are a key lens through which education has been examined in the past forty years, having become an accepted and popular subfield in educational foundations studies. Moreover, scholars in gender and education have made tremendous contributions well beyond education, influencing humanities and social sciences scholars across the academy. Hearing the stories of these scholars, their development, education, important works, and thoughts on the future offers unique insights into the genesis and growth of the field and gives new scholars an overview of advances made. Leaders in Gender and Education: Intellectual Self-Portraits does just that, showing the history of gender and education through the eyes of 16 of its leaders. By recounting their experiences and scholarly work, they trace the development of feminist and profeminist research on girls, on boys, and on the issues shaping both gender and education issues like race, sexuality, neoliberalism, globalization, and more. Importantly, the volume has a global focus, including scholars from the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, and Australia. This diversity gives readers a broad sense of the progress of gender scholarship in education around the world. Each essay provides students and researchers alike with not only background on the 16 scholars included but also the lists of major works chosen by contributors themselves direct readers to some of the most important scholarship on gender and education Taken together further the contributors thoughts on the future of the field provide glimpses of productive directions for studies of gender and education     Responses to Local Fiscal Stress Keith Hoggart,1987     Teachers, Gender, and Careers Sandra Acker,1989 Teachers experiences are seen to be influenced by cultures within educational institutions labour market conditions and social divisions This book attempts to move gender from the margins to the centre of debate about their lives and careers
