Reforming The Muslim World:

Reforming The Muslim World Masudul Alam Choudhury, 2012-11-12 A comprehensive introduction to an Islamic epistemology for the natural and social sciences Choudhury builds a philosophy of knowledge from essential sources in the Qur'anic worldview the Tawhidi creative order Ghazzali's epistemology and other examples of Islamic thought to which he compares the foundations of Western epistemology

Conflict, Identity, and Reform in the Muslim World Daniel Brumberg, Dina Shehata, 2009 Conflict Identity and Reform in the Muslim World highlights the challenges that escalating identity conflicts within Muslim majority states pose for both the Muslim world and for the West an issue that has received scant attention in policy and academic circles

Reformation of Islamic Thought Naṣr Ḥāmid Abū Zayd, 2006 After September 11 Islam became nearly synonymous with fundamentalism in the eyes of Western media and literature However widely held this view may be it is at odds with Islam's rich political history Renowned Egyptian scholar Nasr Ab Zayd here considers the full breadth of contemporary Muslim writings to examine the diverse political religious and cultural views that inform discourse in the Islamic world Reformation of Islamic Thought explores the writings of intellectuals from Egypt to Iran to Indonesia probing their efforts to expand Islam beyond traditional and legalistic interpretations Zayd reveals that many Muslim thinkers advocate culturally enlightened Islam with an emphasis on individual faith He then investigates the extent of these Muslim reformers success in generating an authentic renewal of Islamic ideology asking if such thinkers have escaped the traditionalist trap of presenting a negative image to the West A fascinating and highly relevant study for our times

Reformation of Islamic Thought is an essential analysis of Islam's present and future

Toward an Islamic Reformation Abdullahi Ahmed An Na'im, 2019-01-31 Toward an Islamic Reformation is an ambitious attempt to modernize Islamic law calling for reform of the historical formulations of Islamic law commonly known as Shari'a that is perceived by many Muslims to be part of the Islamic faith As a Muslim Abdullahi Ahmed An Na'im is sensitive to and appreciative of the delicate relationship between Islam as a religion and Islamic law Nevertheless he considers that the questions raised here must be resolved if the public law of Islam is to be implemented today An Na'im draws upon the teachings and writings of Sudanese reformer Mahmoud Mohamed Taha to provide what some have called the intellectual foundations for a total reinterpretation of the nature and meaning of Islamic public law

An Islamic Reformation? Michaelle Browers, Charles Kurzman, 2004-01-01 This book brings together scholars with expertise in modern Islamic thought and practice to evaluate the claim that we are witnessing something tantamount to an Islamic Reformation by assessing the character and impact of various reformist trends in the Middle East and North Africa Each chapter also addresses the question of the appropriateness and usefulness of comparisons between Christian and Islamic or Western and Eastern reformations

Reforms in Islamic Education Charlene Tan, 2014-04-24 In recent times there has been intense global interest on and scrutiny of Islamic education In reforming Islamic schools what are the key actions initiated and are they contested or negotiated by and among

Muslims This edited collection brings together leading scholars to explore current reforms in Islamic schools Drawing together international case studies Reforms in Islamic Education critically discusses the reforms considering the motivations for them nature of them and perceptions and experiences of people affected by them The contributors also explore the tensions resistance contestations and negotiations between Muslims and non Muslims and among Muslims in relation to the reforms Highlighting the need to understand and critique reforms in Islamic schools within broad historical political and socio cultural contexts this book is a valuable resource for academics policymakers and educators American Foreign Policy and Islamic Renewal Abdeslam Maghraoui,2006 Reformation of Islamic Thought Nasr Abu Zayd,2025-10-01 Ever since the dramatic events of September 11 2001 the fundamentalist and exclusivist trend prevails in most presentations of Islamic thinking Indeed these events have given extremists and fundamentalists a much more prominent position than they might ever have dreamt of In Reformation of Islamic Thought the prominent Egyptian scholar Nasr Ab Zayd examines the positive liberal and inclusive reaction embedded in the writings of Muslim thinkers He takes the reader on a critical journey across the Muslim World where Muslim thinkers from Egypt and Iran to Indonesia seek to divest Islam of traditionalistic and legalistic interpretation Instead these thinkers stress the value of a cultural enlightened Islam and an individualistic faith For many the dogmatic Islam established by the conservatives and supported by totalitarian political regimes is outdated they want it replaced by a spiritual and ethical Islam To what extent are these reformist thinkers engaged in a genuine renewal of Islamic thought Do they succeed in escaping the traditionalist trap of presenting a purely negative image of the West

Unveiling Modernity in Twentieth-Century West African Islamic Reforms Ousman Kobo,2012-08-27 In this book Ousman Kobo analyzes the origins of Wahhabi inclined reform movements in two West African countries Commonly associated with recent Middle Eastern influences reform movements in Ghana and Burkina Faso actually began during the twilight of European colonial rule in the 1950s and developed from local doctrinal contests over Islamic orthodoxy These early movements in turn gradually evolved in ways sympathetic to Wahhabi ideas Kobo also illustrates the modernism of this style of Islamic reform The decisive factor for most of the movements was the alliance of secularly educated Muslim elites with Islamic scholars to promote a self consciously modern religiosity rooted in the Prophet Muhammad s traditions This book therefore provides a fresh understanding of the indigenous origins of Wahhabism Shaping the Current Islamic Reformation B.A. Roberson,2004-08-02 The essays that comprise this study eschew stereotypical representations of a politicized Islam in the Mediterranean Region The contributors consider the reality that lies behind current issues in the area and the role that an embedded Islam has played or may play in the region Reformation and Development in the Muslim World Hossein Askari,Hossein Mohammadkhan,Liza Mydin,2017-07-06 This book explores how the recent development of Muslim countries as a group has fallen far short of non Muslim countries which some have concluded may be a result of Islamic teachings The authors examine Muslim countries over time viewing their progression on the Islamicity scale They assess why some countries have done better than others and to derive useful policy recommendations to improve political social human governance and economic performance Legal and Political Reforms in Saudi Arabia Joseph A. Kechichian,2013 The fractious relationship between the United States and Saudi Arabia has long been a central concern in Washington In the aftermath of 9 11 and amongst ongoing wars the United States confronts an acute dilemma how to cooperate with Riyadh against terrorism whilst confronting acute anti Americanism Using information gathered from extensive interviews with a plethora of officials this book aims to analyze Saudi domestic reforms It addresses the significant deficiency of information on such diverse matters as the judiciary and ongoing national dialogues but also provides an alternative understanding of what motivates Saudi policy makers How these reforms may impact on future Saudi decision making will surely generate a slew of policy concerns for the United States and this study offers a few clarifications and solutions This book will be of interest to anyone seeking a new perspective on the motivation behind legal and political reforms in Saudi Arabia and the effects of these reforms beyond the Middle East The Challenge of Modernizing Islam Christine Douglass-Williams,2019-01-15 The entire foreign policy and much of the domestic policy of the United States and other Western governments is based on the proposition that the vast majority of Muslims are moderate and peaceful including those who are emigrating in large numbers to Europe and North America But as Islamist groups and many mosques radicalize peaceful Muslims and appeal to the teachings of the Koran Hadith and Sunnah it is imperative for moderates and reformists to articulate a vision of Islam and an exegesis of Islamic texts that can withstand the challenge of Islamists and the ulema who have declared the sanctity and immutability of the text Instead they must reestablish a firm foundation of Islam that is modernized genuinely peaceful tolerant pluralistic and compatible with secular governance the freedom of speech human rights and equality The Challenge of Modernizing Islam is the first major effort to provide that foundation Veteran journalist Christine Douglass Williams interviews foremost moderate and reformist Muslims in the Western world She asks them tough questions about how they deal with problematic Koran passages how they intend to get their message across to the Muslim world and more Their answers are revelatory even in the ways in which they disagree with one another Douglass Williams has captured the Islamic Reformist movement in its full intellectual ferment laying bare the tensions and triumphs of the Reformers In the book s second half she adds a crucial series of searingly honest and illuminating reflections on the challenges the reformers face the chances they have of succeeding and the implications of their struggle for the future of the Western world and of all free people Illuminating engaging and thought provoking The Challenge of Modernizing Islam is an essential text for understanding the future of the United States and the West and the implications of Muslim moderates struggle for the free world Improving the Pedagogy of Islamic Religious Education in Secondary Schools Ayse Demirel Ucan,2019-09-04 This timely book focusses on the central issues and questions which emerge in relation to the teaching and learning of Islam in confessional and constructivist religious education Considering the consequences of a lack of diversity in the Islamic Religious Education curriculum the text also explores the challenges faced by Muslim pupils in connection with secularism and radical Islam Through rich analysis of research carried out across Muslim and public secondary schools in the UK this book develops a meaningful pedagogy of Islamic Religious Education In particular the volume investigates the benefits of Critical Religious Education and Variation Theory frameworks on student learning in Religious Education classrooms and illustrates how these didactic frameworks can help to ameliorate distinct problems seen across Islamic Religious Education Chapters identify discrete pedagogical issues that arise in the confessional and constructivist approaches to Islamic Education such as students difficulties in relating to concept of Islam and progressive approaches taken in public schools In addressing these the text proposes a new theoretical and pedagogical approach to the teaching of Islam which draws on the philosophy of Critical Realism the theories of Critical Religious Education and Variation Theory This book will be of great interest to postgraduate students researcher scholars and academics in the fields of religion and education and Islamic studies In addition it will be of interest to social equity professionals and public policy decision makers

Beyond Regionalism? Matteo Legrenzi, 2016-04-15 Regional cooperation regionalism and regionalization in the Middle East are usually considered to be weak and rather ceremonial However since September 11 2001 a new regional order is emerging and the impact of geostrategic changes in the international environment has yet to be satisfactorily studied With older regional organizations suffering from weaknesses new forms appear to be developing and flourishing due either to European support or growing sub regional identities This volume offers refined theoretical models and approaches which are attuned to the new dynamics and contradictions of a wide range of regionalist projects in the contemporary Middle East Case studies of the most important regional organizations in different policy fields offer comprehensive overviews of the main actors institutions historical development and current issues

Islam in Liberalism Joseph A. Massad, 2015-01-06 Demonstrates that Western liberal democracy portrayed as foreign to Islam necessarily serves an imperial project timely and controversial Politics Religion Ideology Islam is often associated with words like oppression totalitarianism intolerance cruelty misogyny and homophobia while its presumed antonyms are Christianity the West liberalism individualism freedom citizenship and democracy In the most alarmist views the West s most cherished values freedom equality and tolerance are said to be endangered by Islam worldwide Joseph Massad s Islam in Liberalism explores what Islam has become in today s world He seeks to understand how anxieties about tyranny intolerance misogyny and homophobia seen in the politics of the Middle East are projected onto Islam itself Massad shows that through this projection Europe emerges as democratic and tolerant feminist and pro LGBT rights or in short Islam free Massad documents the Christian and liberal idea that we should missionize democracy women s rights sexual rights tolerance equality and even therapies to cure Muslims of their un European un Christian and illiberal ways Along the way he sheds light on a variety of controversial topics including the meanings of democracy and the ideological assumption that Islam is not compatible with it while Christianity is Islam in Liberalism is an unflinching critique of Western assumptions and of the liberalism that Europe and America present as salvation to Islam Essential reading for all scholars of Islam and Middle East politics Cambridge Review of International Affairs Reminds us that in order to move beyond scholarship revolving around a simplistic binarism between West and non West we must never forget how this opposition has shaped and continues to actively influence scholarship today Los Angeles Review of Books

Intimate Relations Krupa Shandilya,2017-01-15 Intimate Relations remaps the discussion on gender and the nation in South Asia through a close study of the domestic novel as a literary genre and a tool for social reform As a product of the intersection of literary and social reform movements in the late nineteenth century the domestic novel became a site for literary innovation and also for rethinking women's roles in society and politics Krupa Shandilya focuses primarily on social reform movements that negotiated the intimate relations between men and women in Hindu and Muslim society namely the widow remarriage act in Bengal 1856 and the education of women promoted by the Aligarh movement 1858 1900 Both movements were invested in recovering woman as a respectable subject for the Hindu and Muslim nation where respectability connoted asexual spirituality While most South Asian literary scholarship has focused on a normative Hindu woman Intimate Relations couples discussion of the representation of the widow in bhadralok upper caste middle class society with that of the courtesan of sharif upper class Muslim feudal society in Bengali and Urdu novels from the 1880s to the 1920s By drawing together their disparate histories in the context of contemporaneous social reform movements Shandilya reflects on the similarities of Hindu and Islamic constructions of the gendered nation

Politically Incorrect Guide to Jihad William Kilpatrick,2016-09-26 A book to challenge the status quo spark a debate and get people talking about the issues and questions we face as a country

The Muslim Brotherhood in Kuwait Ali A. Alkandari,2023-08-30 The Muslim Brotherhood MB is the most influential organized social and political movement in Kuwait With the succession in Kuwait the role of the organisation become more interesting for people interested in Kuwait and Gulf domestic politics as well as those interested in the MB and Political Islam This book traces the emergence and development of MB while considering the political and social development of Kuwait that led to its appeal It explains the evolution of MB's organisational structure and how it adapted itself during different periods in Kuwait's history through the Social Movement Theory It describes MB policies and strategies during challenging times It traces the circumstances surrounding the emergence of the MB and focuses on its development and its mobilisation strategy It is certainly one of the first focused studies on MB from its conception in 1941 up to 1991
