Sentry Peak:

Sentry Peak Harry Turtledove, 2000-09-01 THE STRANGEST CIVIL WAR NOVEL YOU EVER READ When Avram became King of Detina he declared he intended to liberate the blond serfs from their ties to the land The northern provinces where most of the serfs lived would not accept his lordship The hot north was a land of broad estates whose noble overlords took the serfs labor and gave back next to nothing Those provinces left Detina choosing Avram s cousin Grand Duke Geoffrey as their king in his place Avram said he had inherited all of the kingdom not just a part He refused to let Geoffrey rule the north without a challenge And the southron provinces full of merchants and smallholders stood solidly behind him So he sent armies clad in gray against the north Geoffrey raised his own army and arrayed his men in blue made from the indigo much raised on northern estates to distinguish them from the southrons Avram held the larger part of the kingdom and the wealthier part too But Geoffrey s men were bolder soldiers And the north taken all in all had better wizards than the southrons did The war raged for almost three years until Avram s General named Guildenstern and his great lieutenant Doubting George moved against the northern army under Count Thraxton the Braggart and his commander of unicorn riders Ned of the Forest which held the town of Rising Rock close by Sentry Peak At the publisher s request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights Management

Memoir, 1914 Don Forest Katherine M. Calvert, Kathy Calvert, 2003 Annotation Don Forest Quest for the Summits tells the story of one of the most colorful perhaps eccentric people of the Canadian West who is also an award winning mountaineer Yet Don Forest didn t take up the sport until he was in his mid 40s At a time when most men are thinking of retiring from strenuous activities Don was busy setting records He was the first person to climb all 27 of the 11 000 foot peaks in the Canadian Rockies and Columbia Mountains in one year and in 1991 at age 71 he was the oldest person to climb Mount Logan Canada s highest mountain In 1992 he celebrated his 72nd birthday with friends cake and champagne on the summit of Holy Cross Mountain a 9000 foot high mountain in southwest Alberta Kathy Calvert s biography of Don Forest runs the gamut of emotion Her narrative swings from the humor in Don s eccentricities and the pathos of Don s dealing with close friends lost in the mountains to the pride and satisfaction felt when Don s climbing career was recognized by his peers across Canada

Sherman's March in Myth and Memory Edward Caudill, Paul Ashdown, 2009-09-16 General William Tecumseh Sherman's devastating March to the Sea in 1864 burned a swath through the cities and countryside of Georgia and into the history of the American Civil War As they moved from Atlanta to Savannah destroying homes buildings and crops killing livestock and consuming supplies Sherman and the Union army ignited not only southern property but also imaginations in both the North and the South By the time of the general s death in 1891 when one said The March no explanation was required That remains true today Legends and myths about Sherman began forming during the March itself and took more definitive shape in the industrial age in the late nineteenth century Sherman s March in Myth and Memory examines the emergence of various myths surrounding one of the most enduring campaigns in the annals of military history Edward Caudill and Paul Ashdown provide a brief overview of Sherman s life and his March but their focus is on how these myths came about such as one description of a 60 mile wide path of destruction and how legends about Sherman and his campaign have served a variety of interests Caudill and Ashdown argue that these myths have been employed by groups as disparate as those endorsing the Old South aristocracy and its Lost Cause and by others who saw the March as evidence of the superiority of industrialism in modern America over a retreating agrarianism Sherman s March in Myth and Memory looks at the general s treatment in the press among historians on stage and screen and in literature from the time of the March to the present day The authors show us the many ways in which Sherman has been portrayed in the media and popular culture and how his devastating March has been stamped into our collective memory Chronicles of Tao Ming-Dao Deng,1993-10-08 This extraordinary spiritual odyssey transcends the tangible and points to the mysteries of all we can imagine and all we cannot Los Angeles Times Part adventure part parable this true story of the making of a Taoist master leads readers through a labyrinth of Taoist practice martial arts discipline and international intrigue Line drawings
