Women Made Visible Gabriela Aceves Sepúlveda, 2019-04-01 2020 Canadian Association for Latin American and Caribbean Studies CALACS Book Prize In post 1968 Mexico a group of artists and feminist activists began to question how feminine bodies were visually constructed and politicized across media Participation of women was increasing in the public sphere and the exclusive emphasis on written culture was giving way to audio visual communications Motivated by a desire for self representation both visually and in politics female artists and activists transformed existing regimes of media and visibility Women Made Visible by Gabriela Aceves Sepúlveda uses a transnational and interdisciplinary lens to analyze the fundamental and overlooked role played by artists and feminist activists in changing the ways female bodies were viewed and appropriated Through their concern for self representation both visually and in formal politics these women played a crucial role in transforming existing regimes of media and visibility increasingly important intellectual spheres of action Foregrounding the work of female artists and their performative and visual rather than written interventions in urban space in Mexico City Aceves Sepúlveda demonstrates that these women feminized Mexico's mediascapes and shaped the debates over the female body gender difference and sexual violence during the last decades of the twentieth century Weaving together the practices of activists filmmakers visual artists videographers and photographers Women Made Visible questions the disciplinary boundaries that have historically undermined the practices of female artists and activists and locates the development of Mexican second wave feminism as a meaningful actor in the contested political spaces of the era both in Mexico City and internationally Metanarrativas hispánicas Marta Álvarez, Antonio Jesús Gil González, Marco Kunz, 2012 Doom Patterns Maia Gil'Adí, 2024-11-01 In Doom Patterns Maia Gil Ad takes up speculative fiction as a site for theorizing Latinx identity across national and ethnic borders and shows the vital role of historical trauma in its formation Her analysis moves beyond reparative modes of reading to consider how literary representations of violence destruction and pain also elicit pleasurable affective and aesthetic experiences Gil Ad theorizes the paradox of pleasurable violence through the notion of doom patterns narrative devices that include thematic repetition nonlinear narration character fragmentation and unresolved plots Doom patterns return the reader to instances of historical violence and destruction revealing them as excessive and otherworldly processes that require the tropes of speculative fiction Examining novels by established Latinx authors such as Junot Díaz and Cristina García as well as multiethnic writers such as Colson Whitehead and Sesshu Foster Gil Ad challenges definitions of what constitutes Latinx literature and notions of the speculative by dismantling generic boundaries and entrenched definitions of race ethnicity and nationhood In so doing she allows for a more capacious consideration of the speculative realism history and the role of violence in literature El optimismo de la voluntad Jorge Herralde, 2009-01-01 Durante cuarenta años nos dice Juan Villoro en el prólogo Herralde ha dirigido su editorial Anagrama con el intrépido placer de quien organiza una fiesta en una pa's con toque de queda y sobre los preparativos y los invitados de este convite nos habla su organizador en el optimismo de la voluntad un collage de homenajes a autores y editores Sergio Pitol Carlos Monsivís Ricardo Piglia Roberto Bolaño Mario Muchnik Arnaldo Orfila entre otros además de notas sobre la experiencia de editar en el contexto latinoamericano Como recuento histórico la obra es imprescindible y como lectura es uno de los libros más memorables que se hayan escrito sobre el tema At the Edge of History José De Piérola, 2007 Narrativas y poéticas del yo.
