The Global Revolution Silvio Pons,2014-08-28 The Global Revolution A History of International Communism 1917 1991 establishes a relationship between the history of communism and the main processes of globalization in the past century Drawing on a wealth of archival sources Silvio Pons analyses the multifaceted and contradictory relationship between the Soviet Union and the international communist movement to show how communism played a major part in the formation of our modern world The volume presents the argument that during the age of wars from 1914 to 1945 the establishment of the Soviet state in Russia and the birth of the communist movement had an enormous impact because of their promise of world revolution and international civil war Such perspective appeared even more plausible in the aftermath of the Second World War and of revolution in China which paved the way for the expansion of communism in the post colonial world Communism challenged the West in the Cold War by means of anti capitalist modernization and anti imperialist mobilization showing itself to be a powerful factor in the politicization of global trends However the international legitimacy of communism declined rapidly in the post war era Soviet power exposed its inability to exercise hegemony as distinct from domination The consequences of Sovietization in Europe and the break between the Soviet Union and China were the primary reasons for the decline of communist influence and appeal Since communism lost its political credibility and cultural cohesion its global project had failed The ground was prepared for the devastating impact of Western globalization on communist regimes in Europe and the Soviet Union

Toward a Concrete Philosophy Mikko Immanen,2020-11-15 Toward a Concrete Philosophy explores the reactions of Theodor Adorno Max Horkheimer and Herbert Marcuse to Martin Heidegger prior to their dismissal of him once he turned to the Nazi party in 1933 Mikko Immanen provides a fascinating glimpse of the three future giants of twentieth century social criticism when they were still looking for their philosophical voices By reconstructing their overlooked debates with Heidegger and Heideggerians Immanen argues that Adorno Horkheimer and Marcuse saw Heidegger s 1927 magnum opus Being and Time as a serious effort to make philosophy relevant for life again and as the most provocative challenge to their nascent materialist diagnoses of the discontents of European modernity Our knowledge of Adorno s Frankfurt discussion with Frankfurt Heideggerians remains anecdotal even though it led to a proto version of Dialectic of Enlightenment s idea of the entwining of myth and reason Similarly Horkheimer s enthusiasm over Heidegger s legendary post World War I lectures and criticism of Being and Time have escaped attention almost entirely And Marcuse s intriguing debate with Heidegger over Hegel and the origin of the problematic of being and time has remained uncharted until now Reading these debates as fruitful intellectual encounters rather than hostile confrontations Toward a Concrete Philosophy offers scholars of critical theory a new thought provoking perspective on the emergence of the Frankfurt School as a rejoinder to Heidegger s philosophical revolution
