Bernard uncovers the history of this hybrid form invented in the 1950s by teenage Cajuns and black Creoles They put aside the fiddle and accordion of their parents' traditional French music to learn the electric guitar and bass saxophone upright piano and modern drumming trap sets of big city rhythm and blues Their new sound interwove country and western and rhythm and blues with the exciting elements of their rural Cajun and Creole heritage In the 1950s and 1960s American juke boxes and music charts were studded with swamp pop favorites
