Australian difference and how Australia's economic and social policy has diverged from the approach of other countries. Australia seems to be following a special path of its own that it laid down more than a century ago. Australia's distinctive bent is manifested in a tightly regulated labour market, a heavy reliance on means testing and income taxation, a geographical centralization of political power combined with its dispersal amongst autonomous authorities and electoral singularities such as compulsory and preferential voting. In seeking to explain this Australian Exceptionalism, the book covers a diverse range of issues: the strength and weakness of religion, democratic and undemocratic tendencies, the poverty of public debate, the role of elites, the exploitation of Australian sports stars, the politics of railways, the backwardness of agriculture, deviation from the Westminster system, the original encounter between European and Aboriginal cultures, and the heavy taxation of tobacco. Bringing together contributions from economists, economic historians, and political scientists, the volume seeks to understand why Australia is different. It offers a range of explanations from the historical legacy to material factors, historical chance, and personalities.

Death and Funeral Practices in Aotearoa New Zealand Ruth McManus, Denise Blake, Jessica Thompson, 2025-04-03. This book provides a shortform definitive reference text on the landscape and features of Aotearoa New Zealand that underpin its familiar though country specific ways of caring for the dead. It provides an account of diverse funerary practices that have taken shape through the various cultures that have settled here. In the backdrop of the colonising history of Aotearoa New Zealand, the book examines the complex legislative framework that separates Māori and non-Māori funerary legislation and practices. Examining the mixed model of provision spanning municipal, commercial, and private organisations, the book outlines various aspects of funerals such as the care of the body, funeral arrangements, costs, and what state support is available. It also delves into the two legal ways to manage the dead: burial or cremation, with cremation now the majority option. The book explores the numbers, ownership, and locations of crematoria and cemeteries, before identifying the new trends influencing death care, including sustainability. It then looks at how death is memorialised in Aotearoa New Zealand, including in cemeteries for war memorialisation and other public commemoration and memorialisation. This book will be of interest to the growing body of local authority planners, researchers, and funeral professionals who must be responsive to and provide their services in complex multi-cultural contexts. As the scope of the book is historical and contemporary death practices, it will also appeal to social historians.

The Penguin History of New Zealand Michael King, 2023-10-10. This bestselling book by the late Michael King is the unchallenged contemporary reference on the history of New Zealand. First published in 2003 and hailed as a triumph of careful research, wide reading, and judicious assessment, it has been continuously in print for 20 years and has sold over 300,000 copies. It remains the definitive yet highly readable starting point for anybody wanting to understand this country. New Zealand was the last country in the world to be discovered and settled by humankind. It was also the first to introduce full democracy. Between those events and in the century that followed, the movements and conflicts of human history have been played out more intensively and more rapidly.

in New Zealand than anywhere else on Earth The Penguin History of New Zealand tells that story in all its colour and drama The narrative that emerges is an inclusive one about men and women M ori and P keh It shows that British motives in colonising New Zealand were essentially humane and that M ori far from being passive victims of a fatal impact coped heroically with colonisation and survived by selectively accepting and adapting what Western technology and culture had to offer Now more relevant than ever this edition includes a Foreword by Sir Tipene O Regan and a biographical essay on the author by Jock Phillips PLATINUM PREMIER NEW ZEALAND BESTSELLER READERS CHOICE AWARD 2004 MONTANA NEW ZEALAND BOOK AWARDS NIELSEN BOOKDATA NEW ZEALAND BOOKSELLERS CHOICE AWARD BEST OF THE BEST 2011 Historical Ecology Guillaume Decocq,2022-10-11 This book addresses present day landscapes ecosystem functioning and biodiversity as legacies of the past It implements an interdisciplinary approach to understand how natural or human impacted ecological systems have changed over time Historical Ecology combines theory methods regional case studies and syntheses to provide a complete up to date overview of historical ecology Beginning with the crucial role of time and inference from observed patterns the book critically reviews the main methodological approaches including monitoring of permanent plots analysis of old maps repeat photography remote sensing soil analysis charcoal analysis botanical indicators and combinations of these methods applied to forest ecosystems A series of case studies from various biomes shows how historical ecology can help in understanding today s socio ecosystems such as mainland and island forests orchards tundra and coastal dunes The book concludes by showing how historical ecology can answer timely fundamental research questions and provide science based evidence for landscape and ecosystem management Making Music at the Bottom of the World in Southland, Aotearoa/New Zealand Sally Bodkin-Allen,2020-01-21 This volume brings together a number of perspectives on the musical landscape of Invercargill a city at the bottom of Aotearoa New Zealand Invercargill is in many ways unique it is relatively isolated its access to liquor is controlled by a licensing trust and it is home to the longest serving mayor in Aotearoa The musicking that occurs within Invercargill is surprisingly diverse and wide ranging This book acknowledges and explores many of the South s musical communities and in doing so illustrates the importance of music in local communities It highlights the ways in which social connectedness local identity and individual lives are enriched through musical activities being interwoven through communities Contested Worlds Martin Phillips,2017-09-29 Contested Worlds provides an introduction both to a multitude of geographical worlds which are currently being actively constructed and contested and to a range of different perspectives on these worlds being adopted and contested by geographers It is unique in its focus on the role of contestation in both the construction of geographical studies and in the geographies these studies seek to address These issues are explored through a combination of general theoretical discussion and detailed international case studies The areas discussed range in scale from the global through the regional and national to the local worlds of the inner city the neighbourhood and the village with connections drawn between these scales The book concludes that geography is being made in quite different ways It asserts that geography is intrinsically a contested enterprise and that this should be embraced as part of geographers becoming more critically involved in the making and studying of new contemporary human geographies Reparative Aesthetics Susan Best,2016-10-20 By offering a new way of thinking about the role of politically engaged art Susan Best opens up a new aesthetic field reparative aesthetics The book identifies an innovative aesthetic on the part of women photographers from the southern hemisphere who against the dominant modes of criticality in political art look at how cultural production can be reparative The winner of the Art Association of Australia and New Zealand best book award in 2017 Reparative Aesthetics contributes an entirely new theory to the interdisciplinary fields of aesthetics affect studies feminist theory politics and photography Conceptually innovative and fiercely original this book will move us beyond old political and cultural stalemates and into new terrain for analysis and reflection Sports around the World John Nauright,2012-04-06 This multivolume set is much more than a collection of essays on sports and sporting cultures from around the world it also details how and why sports are played wherever they exist and examines key charismatic athletes from around the world who have transcended their sports Sports Around the World History Culture and Practice provides a unique global overview of sports and sports cultures Unlike most works of this type this book provides both essays that examine general topics such as globalization and sport international relations and sport and tourism and sport as well as essays on sports history culture and practice in world regions for example Latin America and the Caribbean the Middle East and North Africa Europe and Oceania in order to provide a more global perspective These essays are followed by entries on specific sports world athletes stadiums and arenas famous games and matches and major controversies Spanning topics as varied as modern professional cycling to the fictional movie Rocky to the deadly ball game of the ancient Mayans the first three volumes contain overview essays and entries for specific sports that have been and are currently practiced around the world The fourth volume provides a compendium of information on the winners of major sporting competitions from around the world Readers will gain invaluable insights into how sports have been enjoyed throughout all of human culture and more fully comprehend their cultural contexts The entries provide suggestions for further reading on each topic helpful to general readers students with school projects university students and academics alike Additionally the four volume Sports Around the World spotlights key charismatic athletes who have changed a sport or become more than just an outstanding player New Zealand And The World: Past, Present And Future

Robert G Patman,Iati Iati,Balazs Kiglics,2017-12-28 The aim of this book is to provide the reader with an overview of New Zealand s international relations It is a country that has often shown an international presence that is out of proportion to the modest spectrum of national economic military and diplomatic capabilities at its disposal In this volume the editors have called upon a range of specialists representing a range of views drawn from the worlds of academia policy making and civil society It is an attempt to present a rounded picture of New Zealand s place in the world one that does not rely exclusively on any particular perspective The book does not claim to be exhaustive But it does seek to present a more wide ranging treatment of New Zealand s foreign relations than has generally been the case in the past Five broad themes help shape and organize the contributions to the text

Race, Empire and First World War Writing Santanu Das, 2011-04-28 This volume brings together an international cast of scholars from a variety of fields to examine the racial and colonial aspects of the First World War and show how issues of race and empire shaped its literature and culture The global nature of the First World War is fast becoming the focus of intense enquiry This book analyses European discourses about colonial participation and recovers the war experience of different racial ethnic and national groups including the Chinese Vietnamese Indians Maori West Africans and Jamaicans It also investigates testimonial and literary writings from war diaries and nursing memoirs to Irish New Zealand and African American literature and analyses processes of memory and commemoration in the former colonies and dominions Drawing upon archival literary and visual material the book provides a compelling account of the conflict s reverberations in Europe and its empires and reclaims the multiracial dimensions of war memory
