A Luminous Trail Through the Wilderness Pat Vivian, 2000-11-01 Descriptive copy pending receipt of title at Poets House
In the Lurch Sahil, 2014-02-14 Tom was raised with a strong moral foundation set in place by his parents He is like any other pious God fearing son But as his world crashes around him he chooses to veer from the way he was raised and let his instincts take control He lets power go to his head and feeling invincible he acts out in hatred and revenge trying to prove something to himself Feeling deeply insecure and hurt he feels he has no choice but to hurt back In the Lurch tells how Tom's life changes as he matures After losing himself he finds his way back through all the chaos The burdens on his shoulder make him learn about sacrifice and the purpose of living But is he a god or a devil in the making This incisive novel shows the ripple effects of decisions and their consequences The author advises not to think of it as a story where you are being preached to rather think of the protagonist and his wrong decisions in life as a means to learn from his mistakes so that you don't make your own And always know that you can learn from others mistakes Sahil is a professional writer in India He has travelled a great deal throughout his country and has observed how God and the devil are interpreted in different religions He was inspired to write this book by the wars the rapes molestation death and insecurity around the world How fragile we humans are and how careless we are about our own fragile nature Calyx, 2003 The Four-Dimensional Human: Ways of Being in the Digital World Laurence Scott, 2016-08-09 You are a four dimensional human Each of us exists in three dimensional physical space But as a constellation of everyday digital phenomena rewires our lives we are increasingly coaxed from the containment of our predigital selves into a wonderful and eerie fourth dimension a world of ceaseless communication instant information and global connection Our portals to this new world have been wedged open and the silhouette of a figure is slowly taking shape But what does it feel like to be four dimensional How do digital technologies influence the rhythms of our thoughts the style and tilt of our consciousness What new sensitivities and sensibilities are emerging with our exposure to the delights sorrows and anxieties of a networked world And how do we live in public with these recoded private lives Laurence Scott hailed as a New Generation Thinker by the Arts and Humanities Research Council and the BBC shows how this four dimensional life is dramatically changing us by redefining our social lives and extending the limits of our presence in the world Blending tech philosophy with insights on everything from Seinfeld to the fall of Gaddafi Scott stands with a rising generation of social critics hoping to understand our new reality His virtuosic debut is a revelatory and original exploration of life in the digital age Outers' Book-recreation, 1919 The Western Odd Fellows' Magazine, 1853 Olde Pemaquid Herbert Milton Sylvester, 1909 To Walk in Wilderness T. A. Barron, 1993 With three llamas and a sherpa renowned nature photographer Fielder and writer environmentalist Tom Barron spent a month hiking the Maroon Bells Snowmass Wilderness near Aspen Colorado traversing more than 200 miles through the spiritual heart of the Rockies 132 color photographs Maine Pioneer Settlements ... Mountains of Home John Elder, 1998 Small farms once occupied the heights that John Elder calls home but now only a few cellar holes and tumbled stone walls remain among the dense stands of maple beech and hemlocks on these Vermont hills Reading the Mountains of Home is a journey into these verdant reaches where in the last century humans tried their hand and where bear and moose now find shelter As John Elder is our guide so Robert Frost is Elder's companion his great poem Directive seeing us through a landscape in which nature and literature loss and recovery are inextricably joined Over the course of a year Elder takes us on his hikes through the forested uplands between South Mountain and North Mountain reflecting on the forces of nature from the descent of the glaciers to the rush of the New Haven River that shaped a plateau for his village of Bristol and on the human will that denuded and farmed and abandoned the mountains so many years ago His forays wind through the flinty relics of nineteenth century homesteads and Abenaki settlements leading to meditations on both human failure and the possibility for deeper communion with the land and others An exploration of the body and soul of a place an interpretive map of its natural and literary life Reading the Mountains of Home strikes a moving balance between the pressures of civilization and the attraction of wilderness It is a beautiful work of nature writing in which human nature finds its place where the reader is invited to follow the last line of Frost's Directive to Drink and be whole again beyond confusion
