Magic and the Western Mind Gareth Knight, 1991 By Names and Images Peregin Wildoak, 2012 The Golden Dawn GD system of magic is the main source of the esoteric and magical wisdom and techniques practiced in the West today While the rituals and bare teachings of the tradition have been published for sixty years the inner workings and esoteric keys that empower those rituals have largely remained unpublished or unexplored in contemporary works By Names and Images remedies this lack by providing detailed and clear instructions for the visualisations spiritual connections and energetic practices required for every major GD practice and ritual as well as several unpublished techniques Focusing on the meanings and use of sacred names and practical techniques of visualisation the book thoroughly explores meditation and divination purification ritual invocation and evocation grades of initiation and direct experience of the inner realms Also covered is an explanation of the Qabalah and its use as a magical framework While the book is sufficiently practical and clearly explained to be of huge benefit to a newcomer to magic its primary aim is to allow people already practicing the Golden Dawn system to do so more effectively and to be touched by the amazing spiritual blessings the rituals offer

Co-habiting with Ghosts Caron Lipman, 2016-05-23 How does it feel to live in a haunted home How do people negotiate their everyday lives with the experience of uncanny anomalous or strange events within the domestic interior What do such experiences reveal of the intersection between the material immaterial and temporal within the home How do people interpret share and narrate experiences which are uncertain and unpredictable What does this reveal about contested beliefs and different forms of knowledge And about how people co habit with ghosts a distinctive self other relationship within such close quarters This book sets out to explore these questions It applies a non reductive middle ground approach which steers beyond an uncritical exploration of supernatural experiences without explaining them away by recourse only to wider social and cultural contexts The book attends to the ways in which households in England and Wales understand their experience of haunting in relation to ideas of subjectivity gender materiality memory knowledge and belief It explores home as a place both dynamic and differentiated illuminating the complexity of everyday experience the familiarity of the strange as well as the strangeness of the familiar and the ways in which home continues to be configured as a distinctive space Consulting

Lindholm, 1993 Here is a fresh unprejudiced and exceptionally readable examination of the evolution of magical

Hanegraaff,2025-05-29 This accessible introduction by the world s leading expert explains why the study of esotericism is not a marginal pursuit but belongs at the center of modern research in the humanities Reflecting updates in the field since the foundational publication Western Esotericism A Guide for the Perplexed 2013 Wouter J Hanegraaff demonstrates that the exclusion of rejected knowledge from normative accounts of Western civilization is the reflection of a narrow Eurocentric ideology that became the template for discrediting and ultimately destroying so called primitive cultures associated with superstition and pagan idolatry during the global colonial age Rejecting this rejection of rejected knowledge means restoring the suppressed to its legitimate place in history and cultural analysis Through this approach Wouter J Hanegraaff depicts a radically inclusive vision of the Greater West and its forgotten histories from pagan antiquity through Jewish Christian and Islamic cultures up to secular modernity and beyond
