Not even the cards could predict. Following the harrowing victory against Queen Roma, Mira returns to Lander with a new perspective. She's determined to take down the real enemy, though this one is a lot closer to home. The Lander King has other plans for Mira. He strips her of her title for standing up for her people and banishes her from the realm. With nowhere else to go, she joins Bael as he returns to Brevalin to investigate his father's mysterious illness. Together they discover the truth behind the King of Brevalin's illness: a curse. In a race against the clock, Mira must prove it's the mortal king's betrayals that caused it. With tension between the fae realms at an all time
