government of the Republic of Kenya It contains notices of new legislation notices required to be published by law or policy as well as other announcements that are published for general public information It is published every week usually on Friday with occasional releases of special or supplementary editions within the week Statutory Instruments Great Britain,2005 Archbold ,1991 Access to Justice in Magistrates' Courts Lucy Welsh,2022-01-27 This book examines access to justice in summary criminal proceedings by considering the ability of defendants to play an active and effective role in the process Access to justice refers not just to the availability of legally aided representation but also to the ability of defendants to understand and effectively participate in summary criminal proceedings more generally It remains a vital principle of justice that justice should not only be done but should also be seen to be done by all participants in the process The book is based on socio legal research The study is ethnographic based on observation conducted in four magistrates courts in South East England and interviews with both defence lawyers and Crown prosecutors Setting out an argument that defendants have always been marginalised through particular features of magistrates court proceedings such as courtroom layout and patterns of behaviour among the professional workgroups in court the political climate in relation to defendants and access to justice that has persisted since 2010 has further undermined the ability of defendants to play an active role in the process Ultimately this book argues that recent governments have demanded ever more efficiency and cost saving in criminal justice In that context principles that contribute to access to justice for defendants have been seriously undermined
