Revue belge d'archéologie et d'histoire de l'art , 1989 Includes section Bibliographie Dictionnaire de l'art contemporain Raymond Charmet, 1965-01-01 T00:00:00+01:00 Cet ouvrage est une r dition num rique d un livre paru au XXe si cle d sormais indisponible dans son format d origine Le portrait Pierre Arnaud, 1999 Marginal to Mainstream Toby Norris, 2023-10-30 Marginal to Mainstream French Modernism Between the Wars traces the near miraculous progress of modern art in France in the first half of the twentieth century Before World War I it was a marginal phenomenon largely absent from the museums and bought and sold by a handful of second string dealers by the early 1950s it had been canonized as the representative form of the epoch The triumph of modernism and the simultaneous establishment of Paris as the crucible of modern art were not the products of a coherent policy but of a stumbling and spasmodic process France was the leading democratic nation in Europe and it wanted its art to reinforce its prestige on the international stage but no one could agree how best to achieve this Toby Norris shows how amidst the policy squabbles and in fighting of representative government France fumbled its way toward an art of democracy and in the process helped install modern art as the house style of democratic capitalism Magritte René Magritte, 1977 Paris 1937 James D. Herbert, 2018-10-18 This elegant and theoretically informed book illustrated with forty five photographs explores the cultural significance of six exhibitions or new museum installations all opening in Paris between mid 1937 and early 1938 the commercially oriented world s fair titled L Exposition Internationale des Art et Techniques the historical Mus e des Monuments Fran ais the ethnographic Mus e de l Homme two massive art retrospectives one sponsored by the state of France and the other by the municipality of Paris and L Exposition Internationale du Surr alisme James D Herbert capitalizes on the proximity of these disparate exhibits to show how they competed with and yet also complemented one another in visually rendering the full scope of human accomplishment through time and across the globe In this task Herbert argues they both succeeded and failed in interesting and productive ways He asserts that the exhibitions projected and in a sense created created precisely through the act of projection the real world that they ostensibly only represented In fact Herbert argues the exhibitions developed a particular sense of French national identity one that in managing to be at the same moment both inwardly focused and beneficently expansive would present a vivid contrast to the growing German nationalism of the Third Reich His epilogue takes a final look at these issues from the perspective of Jean Cocteau s 1950 film Orphée A ground breaking work in cultural history Paris 1937 with its insightful examination of objects from a variety of fields is a pioneering text in the field of visual studies La Belgique en cent coups d'oeil Pierre Stéphany,2006 Subject Catalog Library of Congress, Dalhousie French Studies,2005 Art of the Defeat Laurence Bertrand Dorléac,2008 Art of the Defeat offers an unflinching look at the pivotal role art played in France during the German occupation It begins with Adolf Hitler s staging of the armistice at Rethondes and moves across the dark years analyzing the official junket by French artists to Germany the exhibition of Arno Breker s colossi in Paris the looting of the state museums and Jewish collections the glorification of Philippe Pétain and a pure national identity the demonization of modernists and foreigners and the range of responses by artists and artisans The sum is a pioneering expos of the deployment of art and ideology to hold the heart of darkness at bay Page 4 of cover L'Art moderne en Belgique, 1900-1945 Robert Hoozee,1992 Monographic Series Library of Congress,1979 Les Livres disponibles,2000 La liste exhaustive des ouvrages disponibles publiés en langue française dans le monde La liste des auteurs et la liste des collections de langue française Magritte Gimferrer, Pere,1986 The Howard L. and Muriel Weingrow Collection of Avant-Garde Art and Literature at Hofstra University,1985-11-14 The Howard L and Muriel Weingrow Collection consists of approximately 4 000 items including original illustrated books periodicals exhibition catalogues pamphlets posters manuscripts letters and original prints representing most of the major avant garde movements of the twentieth century It provides important information on primary and secondary works of related movements as well as themes of interest and concern to modern artists and writers This catalogue is divided into two sections Part One deals with all material excluding periodicals which are covered in Part Two Authors and or artists are listed alphabetically Each item is identified in terms of its movement A description of its size and contents information on special features of the publication such as paper binding and edition and other pertinent data concerning materials inherent in the book periodical catalogue or object are provided The reproductions included are representative of original materials found in the various publications included in this collection Marcel Broodthaers Deborah Schultz,2007 The poet and artist Marcel Broodthaers 1924-76 is widely recognized as a key figure in 20th century art who questioned the nature of art the role of the artist the functioning of the museum and of the art market This book sets out Broodthaers s strategy for artistic success and examines the dialogue into which he entered with his contemporaries and predecessors in 19th century French poetry Pop and Conceptual Art including Stéphane Mallarmé Charles Baudelaire Marcel Duchamp and René Magritte It provides a broad overview of his objects paintings films slides books and installations and his focus upon relationships also central to Post Structuralist and postmodern theories The visual qualities of his works combining the material with the poetic his wit and irony are examined in relation to his subtle method of questioning and contradicting defying conventional systems and definitions The author explores the wider framing contexts in which things are presented and the geographical context via maps notions of the voyage and a sense of place Institutional critique the artist's political position and moral responsibilities in society are discussed by analyzing the responses of Broodthaers Daniel Buren Joseph Beuys and Hans Haacke to a series of museum events in the early 1970s

Foreign

Modernism Ihor Junyk, 2013-01-01 At the beginning of the twentieth century Paris was the cosmopolitan hub of Europe and home to a vast number of foreigners including the writers painters sculptors and musicians who were creating works now synonymous with modernism itself such as Les Femmes d'Alger The Rite of Spring and Ulysses The situation at the end of the period however could not have been more different even before the violence of the Second World War the cosmopolitan avant-garde had largely abandoned Paris driven out by nationalism xenophobia and intolerance Foreign Modernism investigates this tense and transitional moment for both modernism and European multiculturalism by looking at the role of foreigners in Paris's artistic scene Examining works of literature sculpture ballet and performing arts music and architecture Ihor Junyk combines cultural history with contemporary work in transnationalism and diaspora studies Junyk emphasizes how migr artists used radical new forms of art to resist the culture of virulent nationalism taking root in France and to articulate new forms of cosmopolitan identity
