Magyar Blade Marvin Ziporyn, 2005-05 Tales in Verse John Arthur Goodchild, 1893 Jews in the Gym Leonard Jay Greenspoon, 2012 For some the connection between Jews and athletics might seem far fetched But in fact as is highlighted by the fourteen chapters in this collection Jews have been participating in and thinking about sports for more than two thousand years The articles in this volume cover a wide chronological range from the Hellenistic period first century BCE to the most recent basketball season The range of athletes covered is equally broad The authors of these essays raise a number of intriguing questions such as What differing attitudes toward sports have Jews exhibited across periods and cultures In what sports have Jews excelled and why How have Jews overcome prejudices on the part of the general populace against a Jewish presence on the field or in the ring This volume features a number of illustrations many of them quite rare It is accessible to the general reader and contains much information of interest to the scholar in Jewish studies American studies and sports history Diamond's Compass P. H. Liotta, 1993 Sometime in the future in the skies over the Middle East a pilot will watch the oil fires blaze on the desert miles below Another war Like the recent Desert Storm conflict this war will pit the technological magic of the West against the primitive spell of this brutal spiritual place the cradle of civilization Above isolated amid the dials and readouts of his black silent super high tech reconnaissance jet that pilot Dante Diamond will look down from the edge of space and see an ancient land a place that for a few weeks one summer years before he briefly called home Diamond's Compass is that pilot's story In it he recalls how as a troubled cadet on summer vacation from the U S Air Force Academy in 1978 he traveled to Iran during the last days of the Shah and found himself drawn into the great adventure of his life It starts as a visit to the home of his parents his mother a military wife trying to cling to her own identity amid a wholly foreign culture and his war hero father a remote forbidding Air Force general assigned as a liaison to the Shah of Iran's staff But soon they are all caught up in the intrigue and paranoia of a collapsing dictatorship For Diamond it is the beginning of an intense journey of self discovery that leads him into the ferment of Tehran on the eve of revolution into the hidden complexities of Persian culture and mythology and finally on a perilous climb to the icy summit of the mountain that dominates Iranian lore Mt Damavand He does not know that his guide on the climb may be an agent of the secret police sent to leave him for dead in the ice and snow Years later drawn back to the Middle East by a war where instant death is just over the horizon he will find himself embarking upon that journey again and again in his recollections and imagination In Diamond's Compass P H Liotta's first novel a prizewinning writer and poet takes us on a breathtaking exploration of war and identity of culture and myth and the power of memory BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Armies of the Steppe Nomads, 376-1227 Gabriele Esposito, 2024-12-30 Gabriele Esposito presents an overview of the history organization and equipment of the military forces deployed by the nomadic peoples of the Eurasian steppes during the period from the appearance of the Huns in Eastern Europe to the death of Genghis Khan Each chapter is devoted to a different group that played a prominent military role during Antiquity and the Middle Ages Starting with the Huns of Attila whose migration was one of the key factors behind the fall of the Roman Empire he moves on to the Avars who established a large state in Eastern Europe that contested with Charlemagne's Frankish Empire Chapter three covers the Magyars who terrorized most of Europe during the tenth century before creating the Kingdom of Hungary Next are the Bulgars who became the worst enemies of the Byzantine Empire in the Balkans but also created a flourishing state in the Volga region of Russia The Khazars and the Alans share a chapter as do the Pechenegs and Cumans Kipchaks while the Turks merit a dedicated chapter Last but not least are the Mongols who are traced from the unification of their tribes to the death of the great Genghis Khan By describing the military organization weapons and tactics of these nomadic peoples the author shows how they dominated the battlefields of the world for almost 1 000 years thanks to their superior capabilities He also discusses how they interacted with other civilizations and how the latter learned a lot from them especially militarily Without the existence of the warlike nomadic peoples of the Eurasian steppes the history of the world would have been very different
