Maintaining Excellence In Schools:

Resources in Education ,1998 An Unbroken Educational Apartheid Legacy David E. Morgan Ph.D.,2015-03-17

This is a thought provoking book on the black white academic achievement gap in Chicago s predominantly black communities of color and what highly effective school boards can do to change it In this book the reader will be powerfully enlightened by a civil and human rights debate that calls for effective leadership in our schools beginning with effective school boards The primary agenda of effective school boards is raising student achievement performance levels and engaging the school district community to attain that goal These instructive analyses of effective school board leadership builds on the research and wisdom of great leaders Simultaneously it develops a breath of fresh air for school reformers who seek to implement a new model and escape the insanity and pathology inherent in school board dysfunctions and violations of our civil and human rights which prevents progress in Chicago s south suburban communities of color In both highs and lows of awesome moments as educational reform leaders and school board members we are in a strategic leadership position to help school boards carry out their essential responsibilities for creating equity and excellence in public education In doing so highly effective school leaders can team with our school board leaders to lead our school district communities in preparing all students to succeed in a rapidly changing global society School board members doing the same things over and over again and then expecting different results in academic outcomes is the definition for insanity Education is freedom In an era of mass educational apartheid with its consequent mass incarceration of blacks that has surpassed the enforced chattel bondage of slavery s peak numbers in 1860 this book addresses a subject that is critically essential timely and in need of immediate attention for the security success and ultimate survival of black America As the problems of the academic under achievement gap is addressed in this book it is also essential that school boards educators and community and national leaders accept reality to view the problem in its true perspective to contemplate it as it is in providing essential solutions toward removing limiting and limited school boards dysfunctions obstructions and other barriers to academic achievement in effective school board leadership Supporting educational excellence will thereby produce more African American scholars in mathematics science and in many other disciplines This book will provide information and focus on some key action areas that successful school boards in America and around the world have focused their attention on Vision Standards Assessment Resource Alignment Climate Collaboration and Continuous Academic Improvement Managing Finance and Resources in Education Marianne Coleman,Lesley Anderson,2000-04-14 The book provides an excellent wide and stimulating set of readings and would be useful to anyone taking forward Unit 3 or the Accelerated Route of SQH SQH Newsletter This is a useful addition to the literature on finance and resource management in education Those whose work involves managing resources and finance in schools and colleges will find this a useful or even indispensable addition to their bookshelves whether they are heads principals or middle managers Mentoring and Tutoring This book will provide readers with knowledge and understanding of the theory and practice of managing finance resources and stakeholders in schools and colleges Written specifically for those studying for an academic qualification at Masters level in educational management it provides self study material and links to other key texts in the field The authors deal with the links between finance resources and stakeholders in the context of school and college self management Examples are drawn from international settings as well as from the United Kingdom Building on an examination of theoretical perspectives practical considerations and applications are examined in a format which encourages the reader to explore the context of their own educational institution This book is a core text for the University of Leicester MBA in Educational Management Cutting Costs and Generating Revenues in Education Tim L. Adsit, George R. Murdock, 2011 At no time in the history of public education has there been such a dramatic discrepancy between accelerated standards and expectations and adequate funding for our schools Much has been written about how to achieve new expectations in the realm of student achievement Much has also been written about the need for accountability and the restructuring of how education dollars are spent Unfortunately most of the input regarding the need for belt tightening is unaccompanied by any tangible solutions or suggestions and results only in hollow rhetoric or convenient political sound bytes Tim Adsit and George Murdock s journey into meaningful avenues for cost savings in public education is clearly an exception In this book readers will find many practical ideas for saving money which can be readily implemented Data-Driven Decision-Making in Schools: Lessons from Trinidad J. Yamin-Ali, 2014-01-24 Yamin Ali shows how schools can undertake responsible decision making through gathering and evaluating data using as examples six fully developed case studies that shed light on common questions of school culture and student life including student stress subject selection and the role of single sex classes American Education , 1984 Global Perspectives on Quality Management and Accreditation in Higher Education Naim, Arshi, Saklani, Alok, Khan, Shad Ahmad, Malik, Praveen Kumar, 2025-02-18 As globalization and international collaboration increase the need for consistent quality assurance practices has become critical Accreditation systems vary across regions but share common goals of enhancing academic standards fostering transparency and promoting accountability Global perspectives highlight how different countries and organizations address challenges in quality management such as evolving educational demands technological advancements and the need for greater access and inclusivity Understanding these varied approaches may foster global partnerships improve educational outcomes and ensure the relevance and integrity of higher education Global Perspectives on Quality Management and Accreditation in Higher Education explores the frameworks and criteria essential for achieving and maintaining accreditation with a strong emphasis on practical implementation It combines theoretical insights with actionable strategies offering readers detailed guidance on how to navigate the complex landscape of accreditation This book covers topics such as policymaking quality management and medical education and is a useful resource for educators academicians healthcare professionals scientists and researchers The Public Papers of Governor Martha Layne Collins,

1983-1987 Martha Layne Collins, 2014-10-17 This volume presents the important speeches and correspondence of Governor Martha Layne Collins the only woman to be elected governor of Kentucky Papers from state archives chronicle the agenda and rhetoric that Collins a former schoolteacher used to accomplish her intertwined goals of education reform and economic development Also included are Collins s letters to automobile makers urging them to consider Kentucky as a manufacturing site and her triumphant announcement that Toyota had selected Georgetown Kentucky for its North American plant An introductory essay by Elizabeth Duffy Fraas s summarizes Collins s life and career and assesses the impact of her administration on the state The editor s notes provide context and background for each of the 199 speeches or documents included The volume contains Collins s pivotal speeches during her rise to leadership in the Democratic Party which chose her to chair its 1984 National Convention and presents her vision to position Kentucky in the global marketplace Other sections deal with related issues of labor and management energy and environment and health and welfare For those interested in learning more about the challenges facing women with careers in politics Fraas has assembled a section including Collins s statements on gender issues motherhood and the role of women in the political sphere Common Sense

Education Ernest J. Zarra III, 2016-08-16 The 2015 passage of the Every Student Succeeds Act ESSA has again changed education for public schools and communities Common Core is now optional and the role of Secretary of Education has been limited by no longer incentivizing states as done under Common Core This book analyzes the new direction today s schools must pursue for student learning and their success beyond high school States and local educational agencies are once again empowered and will have more authority over curriculum and assessment Common Sense Education includes samples from these states ideas from several universities which are retooling their teacher education programs and focusing on teacher excellence as well as schools recalibrating their programs for student learning This book advocates for common sense education uses a national survey to provide parent and teacher perspectives and suggests a new paradigm for exciting twenty first century high schools The Stewardship of Higher Education David M. Callejo Perez, Joshua

Ode, 2013-10-30 Understanding the entrepreneurial nature of universities in particular the relationship between education and health in relation to development and wellness of communities this volume provides a description narration of the efforts in how universities can address their shifting contexts while engaging their communities in social change In the development of this book we have explored how reforms in American higher education are impacting the role of universities and their faculty Contributors were asked to imagine possibilities for research and outreach by providing salient examples of how higher education can lead and change how we view the role of health and education within institutions and society Each author writes across common themes that address the problems and possibilities of higher education curriculum and projects aligned with the mission of stewardship The authors highlight interdisciplinary approaches and projects for faculty work modification of the Teaching Research Service expectations and community initiatives that can emerge from real life problems to impact wellbeing and create rich and deep research possibilities for practitioners to impact both higher education and society The process and research approaches used by the authors include imagining the community as part of a process of the change and part of what changes exploring how community change can build on the strengths of local people and why community organization and advocacy should revolve around social learning and community capacity theories Given the diversity of topics and approaches as editors we have tried to honour both the authors words and style in expressing their opinions to provide a forum for the readers to envision stewardship
