The Francophone African Text Kwaku Addae Gyasi, 2006 Focusing on the African writer and the language of the former colonial power The Francophone African Text Translation and the Postcolonial Experience highlights the writer's reappropriation of the foreign language in the creative writing process It calls attention to the African writer's use of French a process of creative translation in which the writer's words form a hybrid code that compels the original French to refer to the indigenous African language for meaning Examining a group of works under the theme of translation this book reveals that a consideration of both ideological and linguistic elements enhances understanding of the subject from the broader perspective of postcolonial discourse Teaching Culture in Introductory Foreign Language Textbooks Carol A. Chapelle, 2016-07-30 This book demonstrates how foreign language textbook analysis can inform future materials development to improve foreign language teaching Through chronological analysis of French textbooks in the United States this book explores the representations of Canada and Quebec in French beginner textbooks produced from 1960 to 2010 Chapelle couples a large collection of 65 textbooks with a social semiotic qualitative analysis of the genres language and images that communicate Quebec's cultural narrative to learners Findings about the amount and type of content are presented by decade to track the trends in foreign language teaching and changes in Quebec's representation Particular attention is given to how language politics is presented to students through text and images This book will be of interest to scholars of Canadian Studies Quebec Studies and Second Language Acquisition as well as foreign language materials developers Present Past Dervila Cooke, 2005-01-01 This is the first in depth study of the twelve Modiano texts specifically concerned with life writing in autobiographical and biographical cum historiographical projects The texts covered range from La Place de l'toile 1968 through to La Petite Bijou 2001 Close textual analysis is combined with a theoretical approach based on current thinking in autobiography biography and reader response Modiano's use of autofiction and biofiction is analysed in the light of his continuing obsession with both personal trauma and History as well as his problematic relationship with his paternally inherited Jewish links His view of identity of self and other is thus discussed in relation to a particular literary and socio historical context French postmodern post World War II and post Holocaust The Beginning Translator's Workbook Michele H. Jones, 2014-03-18 This workbook combines methodology and practice for beginning translators with a solid proficiency in French It assumes a linguistic approach to the problems of translation and addresses common pitfalls including the delineation of translation units word polysemy false cognates and structural and cultural obstacles to literal translation The first part of the book focuses on specific strategies used by professionals to counter these problems including transposition modulation equivalence and adaptation The second part of the book provides a global application of the techniques taught in the opening sections guiding the student through step by step translations of literary and non literary excerpts The revised edition clarifies some of the finer points of the translation techniques introduced in the first edition
