Maison D'Artiste:

Cretomania Alexandre Farnoux, 2017-07-05 Since its rediscovery in the early 20th century through spectacular finds such as those by Sir Arthur Evans at Knossos Minoan Crete has captured the imagination not only of archaeologists but also of a wider public This is shown among other things by its appearance and uses in a variety of modern cultural practices from the innovative dances of Sergei Diaghilev and Ted Shawn to public and vernacular architecture psychoanalysis literature sculpture fashion designs and even neo pagan movements to mention a few examples Cretomania is the first volume entirely devoted to such modern responses to and uses of the Minoan past Although not an exhaustive and systematic study of the reception of Minoan Crete it offers a wide range of intriguing examples and represents an original contribution to a thus far underexplored aspect of Minoan studies the remarkable effects of Minoan Crete beyond the narrow boundaries of recondite archaeological research The volume is organised in three main sections the first deals with the conscious unconscious and coincidental allusions to Minoan Crete in modern architecture and also discusses archaeological reconstructions the second presents examples from the visual and performing arts as well as other cultural practices illustrating how Minoan Crete has been enlisted to explore and challenge questions of Orientalism religion sexuality and gender relations the third focuses on literature and shows how the distant Minoan past has been used to interrogate critically more recent Greek history

Maison D'Artiste: An Unfinished Icon by de Stijl Dolf Broekhuizen, 2016 Though it was never built the design for the legendary artist's house Maison d'Artiste is one of the key works of the Dutch avant garde movement De Stijl Created in 1923 by painter Theo van Doesburg and architect Cornelis van Eesteren for De Stijl's first group exhibition the Maison d'Artiste was intended to encapsulate what De Stijl aspired to a new everyday environment achieved through the harmonious fusion of painting and architecture The scale model presented De Stijl's ideal space for life and work with a gym a music room and a studio as well as living spaces like guest rooms and bathrooms Maison d'Artiste An Unfinished Icon by De Stijl explores the revolutionary cultural importance of the design its significance for the history of De Stijl and its place in a history of the unbuilt architecture of the 20th century

Exceptional Spaces Della Pollock, 2018-06-15 Taking interdisciplinary and diverse approaches these thirteen essays explore the multifaceted relationship between performance and history By considering performance as both a useful frame for understanding historical practices and a mode of historical production itself performance in history and performance as history the contributors chart new directions in such fields as cultural studies contemporary historiography museum studies and life narrative research Geographically and chronologically the collection's sweep is broad ranging from the nineteenth century to the present from Victorian theater to commissions of inquiry in Kenya from dissent in post Soviet Lithuania to plantation tours in the American South Together the essays make up a work that is truly interdisciplinary in breadth and focus By combining the methodologies of history and performance studies the contributors illuminate the structure and function of cultural production in all its forms The contributors are
