Maisons De Plantation Tours In Historic Louisiana:

Plantations by the River Marcel Boyer, Jay Edwards, 2002-03-01 French priest Joseph M Paret 1807 1872 served in the missions of Louisiana from 1847 to 1869 as pastor of the Little Red Church located upstream from New Orleans on the east bank of the Mississippi River During his somewhat lonely tenure Paret sketched landscapes architecture and interiors capturing everyday life in prosperous St Charles Parish In 1987 fifty three watercolors were discovered still bound in their original sketchbook among his personal effects Plantations by the River contains twenty eight of these paintings created in or about the year 1859 Paret s insightful artwork provides a visual social history of the antebellum creole culture of south Louisiana and documents properties in addition to structures and furnishings of the period The book features full size reproductions of Paret s paintings which have been restored to their original vibrancy The value of Paret s detailed folk art lies in the accuracy of his depiction of the region he lived in He faithfully renders parishioners attending church men pulling driftwood from the Mississippi River and the edifices and flora gracing local plantations Ormond and Good Hope among many others The text is presented in both English and French and as a supplement to the art an appendix of excerpts from Mon Journal d Amerique a collection of correspondence between Paret and his family is included The beautiful brightly colored paintings of Plantations by the River are a rare discovery and provide a unique view of rural Louisiana life before the onset of the Civil War

Weekend Getaways in Louisiana Fonseca, Mary, 1996 Desire and Disaster in New Orleans Lynnell L. Thomas, 2014-08-25 Most of the narratives packaged for New Orleans s many tourists cultivate a desire for black culture jazz cuisine dance while simultaneously targeting black people and their communities as sources and sites of political social and natural disaster In this timely book the Americanist and New Orleans native Lynnell L Thomas delves into the relationship between tourism cultural production and racial politics She carefully interprets the racial narratives embedded in tourism websites travel guides business periodicals and newspapers the thoughts of tour guides and owners and the stories told on bus and walking tours as they were conducted both before and after Katrina She describes how with varying degrees of success African American tour guides tour owners and tourism industry officials have used their own black heritage tours and tourism focused businesses to challenge exclusionary tourist representations Taking readers from the Lower Ninth Ward to the White House Thomas highlights the ways that popular culture and public policy converge to create a mythology of racial harmony that masks a long history of racial inequality and structural inequity

In the Shadows of the Big House Stephen Small, 2023-06-23 In the midst of calls for the removal of Confederate monuments across the South tens of thousands of museums buildings and other historical sites currently comprise a tourist infrastructure of the southern heritage industry Louisiana one of the most prominent and frequently visited states that benefit from this tourism has more than sixty heritage sites housed in former slave plantations These sites contain the remains restorations reconstructions and replicas of antebellum slave cabins and slave quarters In the Shadows of the Big

House Twenty First Century Antebellum Slave Cabins and Heritage Tourism in Louisiana is the first book to tackle the role treatment and representation of slave cabins at plantation museum sites in contemporary heritage tourism In this volume author Stephen Small describes and analyzes sixteen twenty first century antebellum slave cabins currently located on three plantation museum sites in Natchitoches Louisiana Oakland Plantation Magnolia Plantation Complex and Melrose Plantation Small traces the historical trajectory of plantations and slave cabins since the Civil War and explores what representations of slavery and slave cabins in these sites convey about the reconfiguration of the past and the rearticulation of history in the present Considering such themes as the role of white ethnic identity in representations of elite whites and the extent and significance of Black voices and Black visions of representations of these plantations Small asks what these sites reveal about social forgetting and social remembering throughout Louisiana and the South He further explores the ways that gender structures the social organization of current sites and the role and influence of the state in the social organization and representations that prevail today
