Virgins? What Virgins? Ibn Warraq, 2010-04-27 In this wide ranging collection of insightful controversial and often witty essays the renowned author of Why I Am Not a Muslim has created a representative selection of his best work on the Koran and various problems posed by the interaction of Islam with the West The title of the collection comes from an article that originally appeared in the London Guardian on recent textual studies of the Koran This research suggests that contrary to a longstanding Muslim belief about the afterlife a harem of beautiful virgins may not be waiting for the faithful male departed in heaven For the many readers of his books who have wondered about his background the author begins with a charming personal sketch about his upbringing in England and his unabashed Anglophilia A section on Koranic criticism includes excerpts from two of his books What the Koran Really Says and Which Koran No stranger to controversy and polemics the author devotes two sections to articles that consider the totalitarian nature of contemporary political Islam and explore the potential for an Islamic Reformation comparable to the Protestant Reformation in the West The concluding section is composed of Ibn Warraq s journalism including a critique of reputed Muslim reformer Tariq Ramadan a defense of Western culture Why the West Is Best an article about the Danish cartoons that provoked widespread Muslim outrage and even a commentary on heavy metal music in a Muslim setting This thoughtful engaging collection on diverse topics will interest both longtime readers of Ibn Warraq and those new to his work

Keshavjee,2013-06-30 The meanings and contexts of Shari a are the subject of both curiosity and misunderstanding by non Muslims Shari a is sometimes crudely characterised by outsiders as a punitive legal system operating broadly outside and separate from national laws and customs This groundbreaking book shows that Shari a and its fiqh laws set forward by various Islamic legal schools comprise a far more nuanced matrix of interpretations than is often assumed to be the case Far from being monolithic or impervious to change from without Muslim legal tradition has since its beginnings in the early Islamic period placed an emphasis on equity and non adversarial conflict resolution Mohamed Keshavjee examines both Sunni and Shi a applications of Islamic law demonstrating how political cultural and other factors have influenced the practice of fiqh and Shari a in the West Exploring in particular the modern development of Alternative Dispute Resolution ADR the author shows that this process can revitalise some of the essential principles that underlie Muslim teachings and jurisprudence delivering not only formal remedies but also perceived justice even to non Muslims

The Qur'an and its Interpretative Tradition Andrew Rippin, 2022-04-19 The position of the Qur'an as the central symbol and reference point of Islam cannot be disputed Despite this significance the academic study of the Qur'an has lagged far behind that of the Bible In these studies Andrew Rippin reflects upon both the principles and the problems of studying the Qur'an within the discipline of religious studies He also pursues detailed investigations of the meaning of variants to the text and the history of Muslim interpretation of the text in its diversity A newly written introduction lays out some of the general implications of these studies while extensive indexes of Qur'anic verses books authors and topics make this research more readily accessible
