Muslims Through Discourse Religion Ritual In Gayo Society:

Muslims through Discourse John R. Bowen, 2020-11-10 In this rich account of a Muslim society in highland Sumatra Indonesia John Bowen describes how men and women debate among themselves ideas of what Islam is and should be as it pertains to all areas of their lives from work to worship Whereas many previous anthropological studies have concentrated on the purely local aspects of culture this book captures and analyzes the tension between the local and universal in everyday life Current religious differences among the Gayo stem from debates between traditionalist and modernist scholars that began in the 1930s and reveal themselves in the ways Gayo discuss and perform worship sacrifice healing and rites of birth and death all within an Islamic framework Bowen considers the power these debates accord to language especially in arguments over spells rites of farming hunting and healing Moreover he traces in these debates a general conception of transacting with spirits that has shaped Gayo practices of sacrifice worship and aiding the dead Bowen concludes by examining the development of competing religious ideas in the highlands the alternative ritual forms and ideas they have promulgated and the implications of this phenomenon for the emergence of an Islamic public sphere Alternative Islamic Discourses and Religious Authority Susanne Olsson, Carool Kersten, 2016-03-23 Like anywhere else the present day Islamic world too is grappling with modernity and postmodernity secularisation and globalisation Muslims are raising questions about religious representations and authority This has given rise to the emergence of alternative Islamic discourses which challenge binary oppositions and dichotomies of orthodoxy and heterodoxy continuity and change state and civil society It also leads to a dispersal of authority a collapse of existing hierarchical structures and gender roles This book further argues that the centre of gravity of many of these alternative Islamic discourses is shifting from the Arabic speaking heartland towards the geographical peripheries of the Muslim world and expatriate Muslims in North America and Europe At the same time in view of recent seismic shifts in the political constellation of the Middle East the trends discussed in this book hold important clues for the possible direction of future developments in that volatile part of the Muslim world Indonesia

Beyond Suharto Donald K. Emmerson, 2015-05-20 This text presents an accessible introduction to the most significant problems facing Indonesia and raises issues for further investigations It addresses such questions as how has Indonesia managed to remain one country and is there a truly national Indonesian culture Muslim Identities Aaron Hughes, 2013-04-23 This well rounded introduction takes an expansive view of Islamic ideology culture and tradition sourcing a range of historical sociological and literary perspectives Islam, Politics, Anthropology Filippo Osella, Benjamin Soares, 2010-03-19 Part of The Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute Special Issue Book Series Islam Politics Anthropology offers critical reflections on past and current studies of Islam and politics in anthropology and charts new analytical approaches to examining Islam in the post 9 11 world Challenges current and past approaches to the study of Islam and Muslim politics in anthropology Offers a critical comprehensive review of past and current literature on the subject

Presents innovative ethnographic description and analysis of everyday Muslim politics in Asia Africa the Middle East and North America Proposes new analytical approaches to the study of Islam and Muslim politics Indonesia, Law and Society Timothy Lindsey, 2008 Since the first edition Indonesia has undergone massive political and legal change as part of its post Soeharto reform process and its dramatic transition to democracy This work contains 25 new chapters and the 4 surviving chapters have all been revised where necessary Indonesia Law and Society now covers a broad range of legal fields and includes both historical and very up to date analyses and views on Indonesian legal issues It includes work by leading scholars from a wide range of countries There is still no comparable English language text in existence El sufismo y las normas del Islam Alfonso Carmona González, 2006 Schooling Islam Robert W. Hefner, Muhammad Qasim Zaman, 2010-12-16 Since the Taliban seized Kabul in 1996 the public has grappled with the relationship between Islamic education and radical Islam Media reports tend to paint madrasas religious schools dedicated to Islamic learning as medieval institutions opposed to all that is Western and as breeding grounds for terrorists Others have claimed that without reforms Islam and the West are doomed to a clash of civilizations Robert Hefner and Muhammad Qasim Zaman bring together eleven internationally renowned scholars to examine the varieties of modern Muslim education and their implications for national and global politics The contributors provide new insights into Muslim culture and politics in countries as different as Morocco Egypt Pakistan India Indonesia Iran and Saudi Arabia They demonstrate that Islamic education is neither timelessly traditional nor medieval but rather complex evolving and diverse in its institutions and practices They reveal that a struggle for hearts and minds in Muslim lands started long before the Western media discovered madrasas and that Islamic schools remain on its front line Schooling Islam is the most comprehensive work available in any language on madrasas and Islamic education Routledge Handbook of Islam in the West Roberto Tottoli, 2022-02-21 With new topics and contributions this updated second edition discusses the history and contemporary presence of Islam in Europe and America The book debates the relevance and multi faceted participation of Muslims in the dynamics of Western societies challenging the changing perception on both sides Collating over 30 chapters written by experts from around the world the volume presents a wide range of perspectives Case studies from the Muslim presence in the Iberian Peninsula between the Middle Ages and the modern age set off the Handbook along with an outline of Muslims in America up to the twentieth century The second part covers concepts around new conditions in terms of consolidating identities the emergence of new Muslim actors the appearance of institutions and institutional attitudes the effects of Islamic presence on the arts and landscapes of the West and the relational dynamics like ethics and gender Exploring the influence of Islam particularly its impact on society culture and politics this interdisciplinary volume is a key resource for policymakers academics and students interested in the history of Islam religion and the contemporary relationship between Islam and the West Muslim Cosmopolitanism Khairudin Aljunied, 2016-12-05 Cosmopolitan ideals and pluralist tendencies have been employed creatively and adapted carefully by

Muslim individuals societies and institutions in modern Southeast Asia to produce the necessary contexts for mutual tolerance and shared respect between and within different groups in society Organised around six key themes that interweave the connected histories of three countries in Southeast Asia Singapore Malaysia and Indonesia this book shows the ways in which historical actors have promoted better understanding between Muslims and non Muslims in the region Case studies from across these countries of the Malay world take in the rise of the network society in the region in the 1970s up until the early 21st century providing a panoramic view of Muslim cosmopolitan practices outlook and visions in the region

Pathways to Contemporary Islam Mohamed Nawab Mohamed Osman, 2025-10-01 Pathways to Contemporary Islam New Trends in Critical Engagement highlights that the current tensions in Islam and the Muslim world are the result of historical dynamics as opposed to an alleged incompatibility between religious tradition and modernity The emphasis on pathways indicates that critical engagement and contestation have always been intrinsic to the history of Islam The aim of the book is to elaborate the contemporary pathways and analyse the trends that contest the Islamic intellectual tradition the relationship between religion and politics and the individual and collective practice of religion The collection of essays analyses the current efforts of critical re engagement with the Islamic intellectual tradition and underlines the historical diversity of Islamic orthodoxies that led to the establishment of various pathways in the practice and role of religion in Muslim societies

The Ulama in Contemporary Islam Muhammad Qasim Zaman, 2010-12-16 From the cleric led Iranian revolution to the rise of the Taliban in Afghanistan many people have been surprised by what they see as the modern reemergence of an antimodern phenomenon This book helps account for the increasingly visible public role of traditionally educated Muslim religious scholars the ulama across contemporary Muslim societies Muhammad Qasim Zaman describes the transformations the centuries old culture and tradition of the ulama have undergone in the modern era transformations that underlie the new religious and political activism of these scholars In doing so it provides a new foundation for the comparative study of Islam politics and religious change in the contemporary world While focusing primarily on Pakistan Zaman takes a broad approach that considers the Taliban and the ulama of Iran Egypt Saudi Arabia India and the southern Philippines He shows how their religious and political discourses have evolved in often unexpected but mutually reinforcing ways to redefine and enlarge the roles the ulama play in society Their discourses are informed by a longstanding religious tradition of which they see themselves as the custodians But these discourses are equally shaped by and contribute in significant ways to contemporary debates in the Muslim public sphere This book offers the first sustained comparative perspective on the ulama and their increasingly crucial religious and political activism It shows how issues of religious authority are debated in contemporary Islam how Islamic law and tradition are continuously negotiated in a rapidly changing world and how the ulama both react to and shape larger Islamic social trends Introducing previously unexamined facets of religious and political thought in modern Islam it clarifies the complex processes of religious change unfolding in the contemporary Muslim world and goes a long way toward explaining their vast social and political ramifications The Central Asian World Jeanne Féaux de la Croix, Madeleine Reeves, 2023-10-25 This landmark book provides a comprehensive anthropological introduction to contemporary Central Asia Established and emerging scholars of the region critically interrogate the idea of a Central Asian World at the intersection of post Soviet Persianate East and South Asian worlds Encompassing chapters on life between Afghanistan and Kazakhstan Turkmenistan and Xinjiang this volume situates the social political economic ecological and ritual diversity of Central Asia in historical context The book ethnographically explores key areas such as the growth of Islamic finance the remaking of urban and sacred spaces as well as decolonising and queering approaches to Central Asia The volume s discussion of More than Human Worlds Everyday Economies Material Culture Migration and Statehood engages core analytical concerns such as globalisation inequality and postcolonialism Far more than a survey of a world region the volume illuminates how people in Central Asia make a life at the intersection of diverse cross cutting currents and flows of knowledge In so doing it stakes out the contribution of an anthropology of and from Central Asia to broader debates within contemporary anthropology This is an essential reference for anthropologists as well as for scholars from other disciplines with a focus on Central Asia Muslim Preaching in the Middle East and Beyond Stjernholm Simon Stjernholm, 2020-06-18 Preaching has been central to Muslim communities throughout the centuries The liturgical Friday sermon is a prime example although other genres that are less commonly known also serve important functions This book addresses the ways in which Muslims relate various forms of religious oratory to authoritative tradition in 21st century Islamic practice while striving to adapt to local contexts and the changing circumstances of politics media and society This is the first book of its kind to look at homiletics beyond a specific country focus Taking into consideration the historical developments of Muslim preaching it offers a collection of thoroughly contextualised case studies of oratory in Turkey Egypt Saudi Arabia Bosnia Sweden and the USA The analyses presented here show shared emphasis on struggles for legitimacy efforts to speak authoritatively as well as discursive opportunities and constraints Lived Islam A. Kevin Reinhart, 2020-06-11 This book is designed to serve as a text for courses on modern Islam It challenges misleading questions which foster assumptions of Islam as a monolithic essence to instead argue that Islam like all religions is complex and thus best understood through analogy with language Muslims and New Media in West Africa Dorothea E. Schulz, 2011-12-08 Although Islam is not new to West Africa new patterns of domestic economies the promise of political liberalization and the proliferation of new media have led to increased scrutiny of Islam in the public sphere Dorothea E Schulz shows how new media have created religious communities that are far more publicly engaged than they were in the past Muslims and New Media in West Africa expands ideas about religious life in West Africa women s roles in religion religion and popular culture the meaning of religious experience in a charged environment and how those who consume both religion and new media view their public and private selves Beyond Hindu and Muslim Peter Gottschalk, 2005-10-27 Questioning the conventional depiction of India as a nation divided between religious communities Gottschalk shows that individuals living in India have multiple identities some of which cut across religious boundaries The stories narrated by villagers living in the northern state of Bihar depict everyday social interactions that transcend the simple divide of Hindu and Muslim

Transformation of Muslim Mystical Thought in the Ottoman Empire John J Curry, 2010-10-19 Based on careful study of the substantial and largely unpublished manuscript legacy left by the Halveti mystical order one of the most influential Sufi orders in the Ottoman Empire this is a history of the rise and spread of its Sa baniyye branch between

The Oxford Handbook of Ritual and Worship in the Hebrew Bible Samuel E. Balentine, 2020-09-16 Ritual has a primal connection to the idea that a transcendent order numinous and mysterious supranatural and elusive divine and wholly other gives meaning and purpose to life The construction of rites and rituals enables humans to conceive and apprehend this transcendent order to symbolize it and interact with it to postulate its truths in the face of contradicting realities and to repair them when they have been breached or diminished This Handbook provides a compendium of the information essential for constructing a comprehensive and integrated account of ritual and worship in the ancient world Its focus on ritual and worship from the perspective of biblical studies as opposed to religious studies highlights that the world of ritual and worship was a topic of central concern for the people of the Ancient Near East including the world of the Bible Given the scarcity of the material in the Bible itself the authors in this collection use materials from the ancient Near East to provide a larger context for the practices of the biblical world giving due attention to historical anthropological and social scientific methods that inform the context of biblical worship The specifics of ritual and worship life the sacred spaces times and actors in worship are examined in detail with essays covering both the divine and human aspects of the sacred dimension The Oxford Handbook of Ritual and Worship in the Hebrew Bible considers several underlying concepts of ritual practice and closes with a theological outlook on worship and ritual from a variety of perspectives demonstrating a fruitful exchange between biblical studies ritual theory and social science research

Islam and the Limits of the State R. Michael Feener, David Kloos, Annemarie Samuels, 2015-10-27 This book examines the complex relationships between the state state implementation of Shari'a and diverse lived realities of everyday Islam in contemporary Aceh Indonesia
