California there are only two seasons spring and summer The spring begins with the first rainstorm which usually falls in November In a few months the wonderful flowery vegetation is in full bloom and by the end of May it is dead and dry and crisp as if every plant had been roasted in an oven Then the lolling panting flocks and herds are driven to the high cool green pastures of the Sierra I was longing for the mountains about this time but money was scarce and I couldn't see how a bread supply was to be kept up While I was anxiously brooding on the bread problem so troublesome to wanderers and trying to believe that I might learn to live like the wild animals gleaning nourishment here and there from seeds berries etc sauntering and climbing in joyful independence of money or baggage Mr Delaney a sheep owner for whom I had worked a few weeks called on me and offered to engage me to go with his shepherd and flock to the headwaters of the Merced and Tuolumne rivers the very region I had most in mind I was in the mood to accept work of any kind that would take me into the mountains whose treasures I had tasted last summer in the Yosemite region Taken from My First Summer In The Sierra written by John Muir
