No Bells On Sunday The Journals Of Rachel Roberts:

No Bells on Sunday Rachel Roberts, 1984 No Bells on Sunday Rachel Roberts, Alexander Walker, 1984 No Bells on Sunday Rachel Roberts, 1984 , The Richard Burton Diaries Richard Burton, 2012-10-15 The irresistible candid diaries of Richard Burton published in their entirety Just great fun and written out of an engaging often comical bewilderment How did a poor Welshman become not only a star but a player on the world stage that was Elizabeth Taylor's fame Hilton Als New Yorker com Of real interest is that Burton was almost as good a writer as an actor read as many as three books a day haunted bookstores in every city he set foot in bought countless books on every conceivable subject and evaluated them rather shrewdly Apt writing abounds John Simon New York Times Book Review Irresistibly magnetic on stage mesmerizing in movies seven times an Academy Award nominee Richard Burton rose from humble beginnings in Wales to become Hollywood's most highly paid actor and one of England's most admired Shakespearean performers His epic romance with Elizabeth Taylor his legendary drinking and story telling his dazzling purchases enormous diamonds a jet homes on several continents and his enormous talent kept him constantly in the public eye Yet the man behind the celebrity facade carried a surprising burden of insecurity and struggled with the peculiar challenges of a life lived largely in the spotlight This volume publishes Burton's extensive personal diaries in their entirety for the first time His writings encompass many years from 1939 when he was still a teenager to 1983 the year before his death and they reveal him in his most private moments pondering his triumphs and demons his loves and his heartbreaks The diary entries appear in their original sequence with annotations to clarify people places books and events Burton mentions From these hand written pages emerges a multi dimensional man no mere flashy celebrity While Burton touched shoulders with shining lights among them Olivia de Havilland John Gielgud Claire Bloom Laurence Olivier John Huston Dylan Thomas and Edward Albee he also played the real life roles of supportive family man father husband and highly intelligent observer His diaries offer a rare and fresh perspective on his own life and career and on the glamorous decades of the mid twentieth century Pictures at a Revolution Mark Harris, 2008-02-14 The epic human drama behind the making of the five movies nominated for Best Picture in 1967 Guess Who's Coming to Dinner The Graduate In the Heat of the Night Doctor Doolittle and Bonnie and Clyde and through them the larger story of the cultural revolution that transformed Hollywood and America forever It's the mid 1960s and westerns war movies and blockbuster musicals Mary Poppins The Sound of Music dominate the box office The Hollywood studio system with its cartels of talent and its production code is hanging strong or so it would seem Meanwhile Warren Beatty wonders why his career isn't blooming after the success of his debut in Splendor in the Grass Mike Nichols wonders if he still has a career after breaking up with Elaine May and even though Sidney Poitier has just made history by becoming the first black Best Actor winner he's still feeling completely cut off from opportunities other than the same noble black man role And a young actor named Dustin Hoffman struggles to find any work at all By the Oscar ceremonies of the spring of 1968

when In the Heat of the Night wins the 1967 Academy Award for Best Picture a cultural revolution has hit Hollywood with the force of a tsunami The unprecedented violence and nihilism of fellow nominee Bonnie and Clyde has shocked old guard reviewers but helped catapult Warren Beatty and Faye Dunaway into counterculture stardom and made the movie one of the year's biggest box office successes Just as unprecedented has been the run of nominee The Graduate which launched first time director Mike Nichols into a long and brilliant career in filmmaking to say nothing of what it did for Dustin Hoffman Simon and Garfunkel and a generation of young people who knew that whatever their future was it wasn't in plastics Sidney Poitier has reprised the noble black man role brilliantly not once but twice in Guess Who's Coming to Dinner and In the Heat of the Night movies that showed in different ways both how far America had come on the subject of race in 1967 and how far it still had to go What City of Nets did for Hollywood in the 1940s and Easy Riders Raging Bulls for the 1970s Pictures at a Revolution does for Hollywood and the cultural revolution of the 1960s As we follow the progress of these five movies we see an entire industry change and struggle and collapse and grow we see careers made and ruined studios born and destroyed and the landscape of possibility altered beyond all recognition We see some outsized personalities staking the bets of their lives on a few films that became iconic works that defined the generation and other outsized personalities making equally large wagers that didn't pan out at all The product of extraordinary and unprecedented access to the principals of all five films married to twenty years worth of insight covering the film industry and a bewitching storyteller's gift Mark Harris's Pictures at a Revolution is a bravura accomplishment and a work that feels iconic itself Behaving Badly: Richard Harris Cliff Goodwin, 2011-05-31 Richard Harris was never an easy person to get along with He was a difficult schoolboy and was later disowned by his Limerick teachers then he went to work in the family flour and milling business where he organised a strike against his father It was as a gifted and compelling actor that Richard Harris dominated stage and screen for more than four decades He was nominated for an Oscar twice for his earthy portrayal of a rugby player in This Sporting Life and as a dominant and bullish Irish farmer in The Field More recently he delivered gripping screen performances in Gladiator and two Harry Potter films But it was his violent drunken womanising private life that fed the public myth and made Harris one of a new breed of rogue male actors an international celebrity Married and divorced twice with three sons two actors one a film director he claimed the only time he had been miscast was as a husband His lovers included legends such as Merle Oberon Sophia Loren Ava Gardner and Vanessa Redgrave Suicide in the Entertainment Industry David K. Frasier, 2015-09-11 This work covers 840 intentional suicide cases initially reported in Daily Variety the entertainment industry's trade journal but also drawing attention from mainstream news media These cases are taken from the ranks of vaudeville film theatre dance music literature writers with direct connections to film and other allied fields in the entertainment industry from 1905 through 2000 Accidentally self-inflicted deaths are omitted except for a few controversial cases It includes the suicides of well known personalities such as actress Peg Entwistle who is the only person to ever commit suicide by jumping from the top of the Hollywood Sign Marilyn Monroe and Dorothy Dandridge who are believed to have overdosed on drugs and Richard Farnsworth and Brian Keith who shot themselves to end the misery of terminal cancer Also mentioned but in less detail are the suicides of unknown and lesser known members of the entertainment industry Arranged alphabetically each entry covers the person's personal and professional background method of suicide and in some instances includes actual statements taken from the suicide note
