with Me ! Osbert Sitwell, 1948      The Modernity of English Art, 1914-30 David Peters Corbett, 1997 The modernity of English art reconceptualises the history of English painting from 1914 to the end of the 1920s Whereas most accounts have tended to see the period as marked by a tension between the native tradition and Modernism this ground breaking book rethinks the 1920s by situating both Modernist and non Modernist painters within a wider cultural history Established figures such as Paul Nash Edward Wadsworth and Wyndham Lewis as well as lesser known artists like Charles Sims John Armstrong and Ethelbert White are discussed and illustrated in a series of innovative readings within this context The modernity of English art offers a new account of painting in England after 1914 and argues for a strongly revisionist view of the significance of the modern during this important but neglected period in English art      Brian Howard Marie-J Lancaster, 2005 Brian Howard was expected to become one of the leading authors of his generation but instead he became a secondary character in the books of others Marie Jaqueline Lancaster's biography makes him at last the protagonist of his own highly entertaining story Packed with dishy reminiscences and extracts from Howard's letters and writings this book details the outrageous parties stunts and confrontations that were second nature to this ne'er do well Chronicling 30 years of waste and dereliction Lancaster captures a prototypical gay literary life perfect for anyone curious about gay history the 1920s modernism or the mystery of failed artistic promise From austere libraries in Oxford to seedy hotels in Amsterdam to darkened cinemas in Tangiers Howard lived and died precociously and most importantly as he pleased Brian Howard Portrait of a Failure is the next best thing to an invitation to one of his famous parties      Collected Poems William H. Davies, 1942
