The History of Geophysics in Southern Africa Johan H de Beer,2016-01-25 Geophysics is a comparatively young science which only evolved as a distinct discipline during the 19th century However its phenomena like earthquakes tsunamis volcanic eruptions and lightning had been objects of fear curiosity and speculation since ancient times

In this book Johan de Beer and his research team reveal that geophysical activity in South Africa can be traced back to as early as 1488 This is a truly astonishing revelation which deserves to be firmly entrenched as part of the country's proud history The book also discusses the history and formation of South African geophysical institutions that made a huge and seldom acknowledged contribution to the technological development of southern Africa Everyday Media Culture in Africa Wendy Willems, Winston Mano, 2016-11-10 African audiences and users are rapidly gaining in importance and increasingly targeted by global media companies social media platforms and mobile phone operators This is the first edited volume that addresses the everyday lived experiences of Africans in their interaction with different kinds of media old and new state and private elite and popular global and national material and virtual So far the bulk of academic research on media and communication in Africa has studied media through the lens of media state relations thereby adopting liberal democracy as the normative ideal and examining the potential contribution of African media to development and democratization Focusing instead on everyday media culture in a range of African countries this volume contributes to the broader project of provincializing and decolonizing audience and internet studies Translations on Sub-Saharan Africa United States. Joint Publications Research Service, 1977 1888-1900, The scramble for Africa Wilfrid Scawen Blunt, 1921 My Diaries: 1888-1900, The scramble for Africa Wilfrid Scawen Blunt, 1921 Contemporary Issues and U.S. National Security Interests in Africa South of the Sahara, 1985 Africa, Cultural Studies and Difference Keyan Tomaselli, Handel Wright, 2013-12-16 Cultural Studies has evolved and continues to evolve primarily along regional lines However uncomfortable this might be the genie of British cultural studies cannot be returned to the bottle of history Thus national versions of cultural studies have arisen in a few African countries This book engages two critical and seemingly contradictory tasks i to contribute to the development of cultural studies from the perspectives of African experiences and indigenous frames of reference and ii to examine these in terms of transnational trajectories of the field in ways that do not reduce them to one or other context Much cultural studies remains concerned with Texts often disconnected from their contexts For the authors published here the contexts include African philosophies cosmologies and ontologies It includes the writings of both residential natives and those who have re located to the diaspora a spread that opens conversations with international approaches that both include and exclude African experiences and work This anthology juxtaposes many different kinds of cultural studies done in different parts of the world as a means of creating a global dialogue around the signifier of Africa This book was published as a special issue of Cultural Studies Global Africa Adekeye Adebajo, 2024-02-12 This book of 100 essays written over the last three post apartheid decades provides profiles of pan African figures mostly from Africa and its diaspora in the Americas Europe and the Caribbean It covers the most important figures of Global Africa and some important non African personalities encompassing diverse historical and political figures technocrats activists writers public intellectuals musical and film artists and sporting figures These include Cecil Rhodes Kwame Nkrumah Nelson Mandela Thabo Mbeki Mobutu Sese Seko Idi Amin

Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa Nyerere and Africa Godfrey Mwakikagile, 2007 This is the fourth edition of Nyerere and Africa End of an Era It is also the largest and includes new material not found in previous editions The work is a comprehensive study of the political career of President Julius Nyerere spanning half a century The author takes a critical look at Nyerere's policies and influence in the domestic and international arenas for an objective evaluation of the life and times of one of the most influential leaders in the twentieth century The major role he played in the liberation of southern Africa is just one of the subjects addressed by the author He also provides insights into Nyerere's personality from some of the people who knew him best Included in the book are interviews with some of the people who knew Nyerere since his childhood Some of them were his teachers And they outlived him Others were his schoolmates and colleagues in government and when he was a teacher And some of them were his students Also included are interviews with some of his family members This is an essential study of post colonial Africa It is also a study in political leadership and Cold War politics in the African context among many other subjects addressed in the book which should serve as a reference text for scholars and laymen alike interested in Africa and the Third World in general A Hand-list of the Genera and Species of Birds British Museum (Natural History). Department of Zoology, Richard Bowdler Sharpe, 1900 The pages of the Hand list have been laid down with specially printed headings Opposite each name and arranged in parallel columns is the number of the cabinet and the number of the drawer in which the species is placed also a reference to the volume and page in the Catalogue of the Birds in the British Museum A general index to these special volumes was required and my Chief Attendant Mr Thomas Wells undertook the laborious task of amalgamating the indexes to the five volumes of the Hand list editors preface to the index The Palgrave Handbook of Africa and the Changing Global Order Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Toyin Falola, 2021-11-22 This handbook fills a large gap in the current knowledge about the critical role of Africa in the changing global order By connecting the past present and future in a continuum that shows the paradox of existence for over one billion people the book underlines the centrality of the African continent to global knowledge production the global economy global security and global creativity Bringing together perspectives from top Africa scholars it actively dispels myths of the continent as just a passive recipient of external influences presenting instead an image of an active global agent that astutely projects soft power Unlike previous handbooks this book offers an eclectic mix of historical contemporary and interdisciplinary approaches that allow for a more holistic view of the many aspects of Africa's relations with the world
