

well, you don't say smoothed, smoothly, well I don't know, the smooth. I hate the smooth. There are also smooth people for me, well, specifically I very much like the peaks in social relationships where what I call the smooth is completely absent, where you have the impression that there is an irruption of roughness, when people really, when people, when it's difficult to live but at the same time sometimes it's harrowing, but there is a great pleasure too.

Oscillations Manon De Boer:

Ausst. in Frankfurt U.d.T.: Manon de Boer : the Time that is Left Frankfurter Kunstverein, 2008 This is the first extensive monograph on the work of Dutch artist Manon de Boer published on the occasion of her first survey exhibition at Frankfurter Kunstverein and her solo show at Witte de With Rotterdam De Boer's filmic portraits sculpt a unique notion of time meditating on the intersections of personal memory and cultural history Truth, Dare or Promise Jill Daniels, Cahal McLaughlin, Gail Pearce, 2013-10-03 Truth Dare or Promise Art and Documentary Revisited reflects on the ways that artists and filmmakers address the innovations and limitations of producing and exhibiting their work Ranging from community collaboration to individual interpretation and from gallery installation to cinematic screening exploring the differences and overlaps between definitions and methodologies With an international reach including contributors who are both practitioners and theorists this book maps out developments in art and documentary covering themes that include explorations of personal experience and representations of the past while examining interactive galleries and the cinematic space Archis, 2001 Installation and the Moving Image Catherine Elwes, 2015-05-12 Film and video create an illusory world a reality elsewhere and a material presence that both dramatizes and demystifies the magic trick of moving pictures Beginning in the 1960s artists have explored filmic and televisual phenomena in the controlled environments of galleries and museums drawing on multiple antecedents in cinema television and the visual arts This volume traces the lineage of moving image installation through architecture painting sculpture performance expanded cinema film history and countercultural film and video from the 1960s 1970s and 1980s Sound is given due attention along with the shift from analogue to digital issues of spectatorship and the insights of cognitive science Woven into this genealogy is a discussion of the procedural political theoretical and ideological positions espoused by artists from the mid twentieth century to the present Historical constructs such as Peter Gidal's structural materialism Maya Deren's notion of vertical and horizontal time and identity politics are reconsidered in a contemporary context and intersect with more recent thinking on representation subjectivity and installation art The book is written by a critic curator and practitioner who was a pioneer of British video and feminist art politics in the late 1970s Elwes writes engagingly of her encounters with works by Anthony McCall Gillian Wearing David Hall and Janet Cardiff and her narrative is informed by exchanges with other practitioners While the book addresses the key formal theoretical and historical parameters of moving image installation it ends with a question What's in it for the artist

Oscillations Manon de Boer, 2001 Reality Machines Nederlands Architectuurinstituut, 2003 Provocative experimental conceptual fresh dry minimalist brazen and even crass these were just some of the words used to describe the work of young Dutch designers and artists in the 1990s Their work was such a tremendous hit at home and abroad that there was even talk of hype not a concept that immediately comes to mind when thinking of Holland land of windmills and all things regulated Proving that it isn't just hype Reality Machines investigates the artistic stance of the best contributors to the contemporary Dutch aesthetic Check out work by architects West 8 MVRDV NL Architects One Architecture and Crimson industrial designers Hella Jongerius Arnout Visser Jurgen Bey Marcel Wanders and Richard Hutten fashion designers Alexander van Slobbe Saskia van Drimmelen Pascale Gatzert Aziz Bekkaoui and Niels Klavers graphic designers Jop van Bennekom Daniël van der Velden and photographers Anuschka Blommestein Niels Schumm Vivianne Sassen and many more

Reacting against their comprehensively man made read designed environment these Dutch designers deliberately work at transforming and distorting reality In Reality Machines their work is broken down into six thematic groupings PhotoShop Reality Come Back Effect Back to Basics Datamining No Original and Are You Serious framed by an introductory essay that sketches the current state of play in their individual disciplines and seeks an answer to the question of how young Dutch designers given the new economic and political situation will manifest themselves in the future Dutch Resource Anniek Brattinga, 2005 Eleven participants in the Dutch Werkplaats Typografie's design program recently asked an equal number of more accomplished graphic designers to join forces with them in collaborations destined for France's Chaumont Graphic Arts Festival Dutch Resource reports on that collaboration Each of the 11 different pairs showcases both designers working methods and the innovative experimental aesthetic that unites them The book as a whole offers a clear overview of the uncompromising practice of today's graphic designer a specialist and jack of all trades who is not only master of his or her own work but often works as a writer researcher editor curator critic and photographer as well Livres de France, 2001
