Other Cultures:

Judaism's Encounter with Other Cultures Jacob J. Schacter, 1997-05-01 The issue of Judaism's relationship to secular learning and wisdom is one of the most basic concerns of Jewish intellectual history The authors collected in this study discuss both sides of the issue and collectively offer an eloquent and convincing case for the perpetuation of Judaism's dialogue with the outside world Supervision in the Hospitality Industry John R. Walker, Jack E. Miller, 2009-01-09 Order of authors reversed on previous eds The New Cultures of Food Martin K. Hingley, 2016-03-03 Food is an extraordinary expression of culture the assortment of flavours smells colours and appearance match the diversity of the cultures from which they come and provide very visible evidence of the migration of populations and of the growing multiculturalism of many countries Adam Lindgreen and Martin K Hingley draw on research into European Latin American and Near and Far Eastern markets to provide a comprehensive collection of original cutting edge research on the opportunities that the changing landscapes of ethnic religious and cultural populations present for businesses and marketers The New Cultures of Food uses the perspective of food culture to explore the role of food as a social agent and attitudes to new foodstuffs amongst indigenous populations and to indigenous food amongst immigrant communities Opportunities and routes to market for exploiting growing demand for ethnic food are also investigated This is an important book for food and consumer businesses policy makers and researchers seeking to understand changing global markets and the significance of food as an indicator of social and religious attitude diet and ethnic identity Honoring Different Cultures Vanessa Flores, 2018-07-15 This next generation of U S citizens has the opportunity to shape the nation and the world With knowledge of the foundations of citizenship and society readers can make informed decisions and actively participate in their community and wider government This book teaches readers about the civics concept of understanding citizenship through engaging text and colorful photographs In this book readers will learn the value of diversity This nonfiction book is paired with the fiction book We Have Different Cultures ISBN 9781508139386 The instructional guide on the inside front and back covers provides Vocabulary Background knowledge Text dependent questions Whole class activities and Independent activities Thinking Across Cultures Donald M. Topping, Doris C. Crowell, Victor N. Kobayashi, 2013-09-05 This volume compares and contrasts contemporary theories of cognition modes of perception and learning from cross cultural perspectives The participants were asked to consider and assess the question of whether people from different cultures think differently Moreover they were asked to consider whether the same approaches to teaching and development of thinking will work in all cultures as well as they do in Western literate societies Where cultures meet; a cross-cultural comparison of business meeting styles , School Bullying in Different Cultures Peter K. Smith, Keumjoo Kwak, Yuichi Toda, 2016-04-08 School bullying is widely recognized as an international problem but publications have focussed on the Western tradition of research A long tradition of research in Japan and South Korea and more recently in mainland China and Hong Kong has had much less exposure There are important and interesting differences in the nature of school bullying in Eastern and Western countries as the first two parts of this book demonstrate The third part examines possible reasons for these differences methodological issues school systems societal values and linguistic issues The final part looks at the implications for interventions to reduce school bullying and what we can learn from experiences in other countries This is the first volume to bring together these perspectives on school bullying from a range of Eastern as well as Western countries

Learning from Comparing: new directions in comparative education research Robin Alexander, Patricia Broadfoot, David Phillips, 1999-01-01 Learning from Comparing is a major two volume study which reassesses the contribution of comparative educational research and theory to our understanding of contemporary educational problems and to our capacity to solve them At a time when educational research is under attack on the grounds of bias and irrelevance and under pressure to address only those questions which are acceptable politically as good a definition of bias as any this is a serious attempt to bridge the worlds of research policy and practice The editors have put together a collection in terms of both perspective and nationality which ensures contrasting viewpoints on each topic Art Education 11-18 Richard

Hickman, 2004-01-01 The second edition of the fascinating collection of essays on teaching art in secondary schools boasting a new chapter on visual culture as well as extensive material on the changes that have occurred in this area since 2000 What kind of art would we like school and college students to produce What kind of art do we want them to engage with What is the process of this engagement How should we organize the processes By asking fundamental questions such as these Richard Hickman and his team of contributors illustrate the new possibilities for art education in the twenty first century and draw out the implications for classroom practice making Art Education 11 18 the definitive guide to the subject in the postmodern era Islamism and the West Uriya Shavit, 2013-11-26 Offering a unique analysis of Islamist ideology

Islamism and the West attempts to explain how and why mainstream Islamist leaders have for the past century developed and canonized theories which depict the West as engaged in a sophisticated conspiracy to undermine Muslim identity by cultural means while morally collapsing and yearning for the spiritual salvation brought by Muslim migrants This book demonstrates how seemingly triumphalist Islamist writings served in fact to legitimize pragmatic concessions undertaken by Islamists from cooperating with regimes allied with the West to encouraging Muslim migration to Christian lands Following the Arab Spring and with Islamism becoming a dominant force in Middle Eastern politics Islamism and the West is an essential reading for the understanding of a region in transition Providing new insights on familiar concepts including cultural imperialism liberal democracy and civilisational decline this book will be of use to students of Middle Eastern and Islamic Studies Political Science Migration Studies and Cultural Studies Globalized Curriculum Methods for Modern
