Other Javas Away From The Kraton:

Other Javas Away from the Kraton ,1983      Traditions of Gamelan Music in Java R. Anderson Sutton,1991-04-26 This book is a wide ranging study of the varieties of gamelan music in contemporary Java seen from a regional perspective While the focus of most studies of Javanese music has been limited to the court derived music of Surakarta and Yogyakarta Sutton goes beyond them to consider also gamelan music of Banyumas Semarang and east Java as separate regional traditions with distinctive repertoires styles and techniques of performance and conceptions about music Sutton s description of these traditions illustrated with numerous musical examples in Javanese cipher notation is based on extensive field experience in these areas and is informed by the criteria that Javanese musicians judge to be most important in distinguishing them

Islamizing Intimacies Nancy J. Smith-Hefner,2021-05-31 One of the great transformations presently sweeping the Muslim world involves not just political and economic change but the reshaping of young Muslims styles of romance courtship and marriage Nancy J Smith Hefner takes up the personal lives and sexual attitudes of educated Muslim Javanese youth in the city of Yogyakarta to explore the dramatic social and ethical changes taking place in Indonesian society Drawing on more than 250 interviews over a fifteen year period her vivid well crafted ethnography is full of insights into the real life struggles of young Muslims and framed by a deep understanding of Indonesia s wider debates on gender and youth culture The changes among Muslim youth reflect an ongoing if at times unsteady attempt to balance varied ideals ethical concerns and aspirations On the one hand growing numbers of young people show a deep and pervasive desire for a more active role in their Islamic faith On the other even as they seek a more self conscious and scripture based profession of faith many educated youth aspire to personal relationships similar to those seen among youth elsewhere a greater measure of informality openness and intimacy than was typical for their parents and grandparents generations Young women in particular seek freedom for self expression employment and social fulfillment outside of the home Smith Hefner pays particular attention to their shifting roles and perspectives because it is young women who have been most dramatically affected by the upheavals transforming this Muslim majority country Although deeply personal the changing aspirations of young Muslims have immense implications for social and public life throughout Indonesia The fruit of a longitudinal study begun shortly after the fall of the authoritarian New Order government and the return to democracy in 1998 1999 the book reflects Smith Hefner s nearly forty years of anthropological engagement with the island of Java and her continuing exploration into what it means to be both modern and Muslim The culture of the new Muslim youth the author shows through all its nuances and variations reflects the inexorable abandonment of traditions and practices deemed incompatible with authentic Islam and an ongoing and profound Islamization of intimacies      Becoming An Anthropological Approach to Understandings of the Person in Java Konstantinos Retsikas,2012-08-15 Becoming An Anthropological Approach to Understandings of the Person in Java is an ethnographic monograph that examines the ways in which the peoples of a peri urban locality in East Java Indonesia conceive of the person by looking at how their everyday practices relate to understandings of ethnicity kinship Islam and gender The volume is also a thought experiment that aims to make a theoretical contribution to the discipline of anthropology by proposing the concept of the diaphoron person and re deploying the method of total ethnography

Riots, Pogroms, Jihad John T. Sidel, 2018-07-05 In October 2002 a bomb blast in a Balinese nightclub killed more than two hundred people many of them young Australian tourists This event and subsequent attacks on foreign targets in Bali and Jakarta in 2003 2004 and 2005 brought Indonesia into the global media spotlight as a site of Islamist terrorist violence Yet the complexities of political and religious struggles in Indonesia the most populous Muslim country in the world remain little known and poorly understood in the West In Riots Pogroms Jihad John T Sidel situates these terrorist bombings and other jihadist activities in Indonesia against the backdrop of earlier episodes of religious violence in the country including religious riots in provincial towns and cities in 1995 1997 the May 1998 riots in Jakarta and interreligious pogroms in 1999 2001 Sidel s close account of these episodes of religious violence in Indonesia draws on a wide range of documentary ethnographic and journalistic materials Sidel chronicles these episodes of violence and explains the overall pattern of change in religious violence over a ten year period in terms of the broader discursive political and sociological contexts in which they unfolded Successive shifts in the incidence of violence its forms locations targets perpetrators mobilizational processes and outcomes correspond Sidel suggests to related shifts in the very structures of religious authority and identity in Indonesia during this period He interprets the most recent jihadist violence as a reflection of the post 1998 decline of Islam as a banner for unifying and mobilizing Muslims in Indonesian politics and society Sidel concludes this book by reflecting on the broader implications of the pattern observed in Indonesia both for understanding Islamic terrorism in particular and for analyzing religious violence in all its varieties

The Political Economy of Mountain Java Robert W. Hefner, 2023-09-01 A rich and sensitive portrait of a changing peasantry this study is also a general inquiry into the nature of status class and community in the developing world Robert Hefner presents an analysis designed to bridge the gap between village studies and social history He describes the forces that have shaped upland politics and society from pre colonial times to the Green Revolution today A rich and sensitive portrait of a changing peasantry this study is also a general inquiry into the nature of status class and community in the developing world Robert Hefner presents an analysis designed to bridge the gap between village studies and

Prominence in Austronesian Bethwyn Evans, Åshild Næss, Jozina Vander Klok, 2024-01-29 The cognitive concept of prominence is increasingly seen as key to understanding the organisation of grammar This volume explores the encoding of prominence in languages from across the Austronesian family The contributions show how prominence is relevant to understanding asymmetries at different levels of grammatical structure from discourse and information structure to argument expression and socio pragmatics Moreover common themes across contributions point to crosslinguistic tendencies that underpin the conventionalisation of communicative patterns for coordinating interlocutors attention and to points of departure for further crosslinguistic exploration of how grammatical asymmetries can be explained in terms of prominence

Gangsters and Revolutionaries Robert Cribb, 2008-10 Gangsters and Revolutionaries is the first in depth study of one of the people's armies which emerged from the chaos at the close of World War II in Indonesia to join the struggle for Indonesian independence in 1945 It traces the story of the People's Militia of Greater Jakarta from its origins as a loose network of petty criminals and labor bosses in the slums of urban Jakarta and the feudal estates of the surrounding countryside to its destruction at the hands of the Indonesian army in the late 1940s This book examines the social basis of the Indonesian revolution especially the ways in which the revolutionary forces made use of existing social structures in mobilizing a popular following It also highlights the painful process by which the new Indonesian state discarded and suppressed groups which had been instrumental in its own rise to power Archival records contemporary newspapers and interviews with survivors have been used to shed new light on the early history of the Indonesian army showing a tangled politics in which regular and irregular units general staff officers and the Ministry of Defense vied for influence and struggled to formulate a strategy for guerrilla war Gangsters and Revolutionaries introduces a host of unexpected but fascinating characters from the cat eating General Mustopo and the implacable Haji Darip to the gangster unit which saw service with the Dutch as Her Majesty's Irregular Troops Robert Cribb is Senior Fellow in Indonesian History at the Australian National University His research focuses on Indonesian national identity mass violence environmental politics and historical geography He is the author of the Historical Atlas of Indonesia 2000

Historical Atlas of Indonesia R. B. Cribb, 2000 This pioneering volume traces the history of the region which became Indonesia from early times to the present day in over three hundred specially drawn full colour maps with detailed accompanying text In doing so the Atlas brings fresh life to the fascinating and tangled history of this immense archipelago Beginning with the geographical and ecological forces which have shaped the physical form of the archipelago the Historical Atlas of Indonesia goes on to chart early human migration and the changing distribution of ethnic groups It traces the kaleidoscopic pattern of states in early Indonesia and their gradual incorporation into the Netherlands Indies and eventually into the Republic of Indonesia

Performance in Java and Bali B. Arps, 2005-06-27 The studies in this book examine traditional performance genres in the Indonesian islands of Java and Bali They cover puppet and human theatre dance sung narrative narrative temple reliefs and vocal and instrumental music span a period of more than a thousand years and range over four cultural complexes Sundanese in western Java Javanese in central and eastern Java Chinese in eastern Java and Balinese in Bali

Frontiers of Fear Peter Boomgaard, 2008-10-01 For centuries reports of man eating tigers in Indonesia Malaysia and Singapore have circulated shrouded in myth and anecdote This fascinating book documents the big cat human relationship in this area during its 350 year colonial period re creating a world in which people feared tigers but often came into contact with them because these fierce predators prefer habitats created by human interference Peter Boomgaard shows how people and tigers adapted to each other's behavior each transmitting this learning from one generation to the next He discusses the origins of stories and rituals about tigers and explains how cultural biases of Europeans and class differences among indigenous populations affected attitudes toward the tigers He provides figures on their populations in different eras and analyzes the factors contributing to their present status as an endangered species Interweaving stories about Malay kings colonial rulers tiger charmers and bounty hunters with facts about tigers and their way of life the book is an engrossing combination of environmental and micro history

State Terrorism and Political Identity in Indonesia Ariel Heryanto, 2006-04-07
 Approximately one million innocent Indonesians were killed by their fellow nationals neighbours and kin at the height of an anti communist campaign in the mid 1960s This book investigates the profound political consequences of these mass killings in Indonesia upon public life highlighting the historical specificities of the violence and comparable incidents of identity politics in more recent times Mixing theory with empirically based analysis the book examines how the spectre of communism and the trauma experienced in the latter half of the 1960s remain critical in understanding the dynamics of terror coercion and consent today Heryanto challenges the general belief that the periodic anti communist witch hunts of recent Indonesian history are largely a political tool used by a powerful military elite and authoritarian government Despite the profound importance of the 1965-6 events it remains one of most difficult and sensitive topics for public discussion in Indonesia today State Terrorism and Political Identity in Indonesia is one of the first books to fully discuss the mass killings shedding new light on a largely unspoken and unknown part of Indonesia's history

Communication against Capital Rianne Subijanto, 2025-02-15 Communication against Capital explores the revolutionary communication strategies of the pergerakan merah the anticolonial red movement in 1920s Indonesia Rianne Subijanto tells the story of ordinary lower class women and children and people of diverse races and ethnicities who waged their battles against Dutch colonialism within multiple arenas of communication including political associations assemblies printed matter schools and shipping lines Existing communication technologies were repurposed into mechanisms of struggle and used as weapons in anticolonial and anticapitalist resistance In this process communist ideas merged with ideals drawn from the Enlightenment to shape the emancipatory spirit of Indonesians This red enlightenment motivated the production of revolutionary communication strategies of mobilization Subijanto s innovative work shows that the novel techniques of the pergerakan merah served to shift anticolonial mobilization in Indonesia from warfare to modern forms of communication

Modality Across Syntactic Categories Ana Arregui, María Luisa Rivero, Andrés Salanova, 2017-02-09 This volume explores the linguistic expression of modality in natural language from a cross linguistic perspective Modal expressions provide the basic tools that allow us to dissociate what we say from what is actually going on allowing us to talk about what might happen or might have happened as well as what is required desirable or permitted Chapters in the book demonstrate that modality involves many more syntactic categories and levels of syntactic structure than traditionally assumed The volume distinguishes between three types of modality low modality which concerns modal interpretations associated with the verbal and nominal cartographies in syntax middle modality or modal interpretation associated with the syntactic cartography internal to the clause and high modality relating to the left periphery It combines cross linguistic discussions of the more widely studied sources of modality with analyses of novel or unexpected sources and shows how the meanings associated with the three types of modality are realized across a wide range of languages
