representative selections of genres literary styles and themes By providing information about and leads to works by and about Third World women an important and largely marginalized literature Fister has created a unique reference tool that will help teachers scholars and librarians both public and academic expand their definitions of the literary making the voices of Third World women available in the same format in which many companions to Western literature do An important book for all public and college level libraries Latin American Writers on Gay and Lesbian Themes David William Foster,1994-11-07 Gay and lesbian themes in Latin American literature have been largely ignored This reference fills this gap by providing more than a hundred alphabetically arranged entries for Latin American authors who have treated gay or lesbian material in their works Each entry explores the significance of gay and lesbian themes in a particular author's writings and closes with a bibliography of primary and secondary sources The figures included have a professed gay identity or have written on gay or lesbian themes in either a positive or negative way or have authored works in which a gay sensibility can be identified The volume pays particular attention to the difficulty of ascribing North American critical perspectives to Latin American authors and studies these authors within the larger context of Latin American culture The book includes entries for men and women and for authors from Latin American countries as well as Latino writers from the United States The entries are written by roughly 60 expert contributors from Latin America the U S and Europe Lesbian Voices From Latin America Elena M. Martínez,2017-10-06 In spite of the attention that Latin American women writers have attracted in recent years a book dedicated exclusively to those writers whose work primarily articulates a lesbian perspective was until now missing The purpose of this book first published in 1996 is to bring attention to and examine the articulation of lesbian themes motifs and issues in the works of these writers It aims to study the problems pertaining to the specific literary representations of lesbianism and to examine the dimensions of a lesbian view in the works By undertaking the study of the works of these women writers this book contributes to the recognition and legitimization of a lesbian literary discourse Understanding Pakistan Mathew Joseph C.,2016-09-13 This book is the outcome of a national seminar for research scholars on Pakistan organized by the Centre for Pakistan Studies at the MMAJ Academy of International Studies Jamia Millia Islamia New Delhi The aim of the seminar was to explore how young minds in India view Pakistan the quintessential enemy country The range of topics included issues related to Pakistan's politics economy popular culture education environment sectarian divide minorities policy towards Jammu Kashmir and foreign relations Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka What Did Miss Darrington See? Jessica Amanda Salmonson,1989 Whether writing about supernatural phenomena or applying the techniques of magic realism allegory and surrealism the diverse talents represented in the 25 stories contained here focus on female characters and treat a variety of traditional themes in inventive and provocative ways The Cambridge History of Latin American Literature Roberto Gonzalez Echevarría,Enrique Pupo-Walker,1996-09-19 The Cambridge History of Latin American Literature is by far the most comprehensive work of its kind ever written. Its three volumes cover the whole sweep of Latin American literature including Brazilian from pre-Colombian times to the present and contain chapters on Latin American writing in the USA. Volume 3 is devoted partly to the history of Brazilian literature from the earliest writing through the colonial period and the Portuguese language traditions of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and partly also to an extensive bibliographical section in which annotated reading lists relating to the chapters in all three volumes of The Cambridge History of Latin American Literature are presented. These bibliographies are a unique feature of the History further enhancing its immense value as a reference work.

Bad Trips Keath Fraser, 2011-06-08 The entries in this collection take us to the farthest extremes of travel with tales of danger, disorientation and bemused discomfort. Combines reportage, fiction and poetry representing some of the best known writers of our time.

Danger Zones Claudia Schaefer, 2022-08-16 Homosexuality has appeared as a secondary theme in the fictional works of numerous mainstream writers in contemporary Mexico. Here the author deals with issues of gender identity when they emerge as metaphorical red flags signaling cultural danger zones along the path to harmonious national discourse. By focusing on the representation of homosexuality in a variety of texts produced between 1964 and 1994, the book also delineates complex relationships within Mexican society.

Everynight Life José Esteban Muñoz, 1997 The function of dance in Latin American culture is the focus of the essays collected in Everynight Life. The contributors interpret how Latin American culture expresses itself through dance, approaching the material from the varying perspectives of literary, cultural, dance, performance, queer and feminist studies. Viewing dance as privileged sites of identity formation and cultural resistance in Latin America, Everynight Life translates the motion of bodies into speech and the gestures of dance into a provocative socio-political grammar. This anthology looks at many modes of dance including salsa, merengue, cumbia, rumba, mambo, tango, samba and norteño as models for the interplay of cultural memory and regional conflict. Barbara Browning's essay on capoeira, for instance, demonstrates how dance has been used as a literal form of resistance, while Jos Piedra explores the meanings conveyed by women of color dancing the rumba. Pieces such as Gustavo Pérez Firmat's I Came, I Saw, I Conga'd and Jorge Salessi's Medics, Crooks and Tango Queens illustrate the lively scope of this volume's subject matter.

Contributors Barbara Browning, Celeste Fraser Delgado, Jane C. Desmond, Mayra Santos-Febres, Juan Carlos Quintero, Herencia Josh Kun, Ana M. López, Jos Esteban Muñoz, Jos Piedra, Gustavo Pérez Firmat, Augusto C. Puleo, David Román, Jorge Salessi, Alberto Sandoval.

Emerging Methods in Psychology Seth Surgan, 2017-09-08 The motivation for this volume in the History and Theory of Psychology series is to look across sub disciplines within psychology and highlight instances where researchers transcended the tendency to think about methodology along traditional lines Contributors have located examples of researchers who built upon existing ideas to create methods true to their interests and theoretical convictions Emerging Methods in Psychology shows how a discipline creates new methods and carves out possibilities that not only generate data but also advance knowledge of human psychological functioning It concentrates on showcasing the possibilities that exist when the researcher focuses on the relationship between theory method and data The question of what kind of expertise is required is a key issue This is particularly the case in psychology where the tradition of standardizing methods over the last century has served to stabilize research questions Knowledge creation is deeply affective and ambiguous rather than the secure accumulation of data by a socially legitimized procedure This innovative volume moves beyond psychology as social engineering into new varieties of social knowledge

Violence in Argentine Literature

David William Foster, 1995 An analysis of selected texts that are viewed as cultural responses to military tyranny and especially to the military dictatorship in Argentina between 1976 and 1983 this important work studies the process of institutional redemocratization Basing his discussion on the principle that a literary work constitutes a rewriting of the sociohistorical text Foster examines a range of essays and novels for the ways in which they structure an interpretation of sociopolitical events Of particular concern is the ideological framing of the literary work and the semiotic complications that arise in the rewriting of a complex and often elusive historical past Foster pays special attention to the contributions of feminist writing and discusses two dramatic texts by women There are also references to other dimensions of subalternity especially within the framework of the military's tight ideological array of enemies of the fatherland whose cultural production suffered repression Foster discusses the works of such authors as Enrique Medina Marta Lynch Griselda Gambaro Ricardo Piglia and Alejandra Pizarnik among others By focusing on major literary texts produced during a time of censorship and other forms of repression Foster provides a deeper understanding of Argentine culture Scholars and students of Latin American literature in general and humanists and social scientists specializing in Argentina in particular will welcome this insightful new contribution
