Other Tongue:

(M) Other Tongues Juliane Prade, 2020-05-15 M Other Tongues Literary Reflexions on a Difficult Distinction examines a key problem of literary criticism the differentiation between languages is at the same time necessary and impossible It is indispensable in order to read a text yet literary texts are precisely those that question this distinction articulating the link between languages and cultures as well as the inherent strangeness of even one's own mother tongue M Other Tongues explores texts from the 16th century to the 21st century focusing on different aspects of one main feature of literary texts formally as well as semantically they transcend the rules and conventions of the language they speak Crossing cultural borders is commonly discussed in historical social linguistic and psychoanalytical terms whether it be as post colonialism exilic or diasporic identities creoles or the displaced other within the own M Other Tongues argues that rather than being mere evidence in the theoretical analysis of cultural transitions literary texts are a unique medium to reflect such processes as they challenge and modify the notion of language itself The book discusses texts written mainly in English French and German but also in Spanish and the complex formerly known as Yugoslavian M Other Tongues shows that such distinctions between languages are precise since they can be exemplified with an indefinite number of words and rules and still remain uncertain because they cannot be abstracted from these examples What separates the mother tongue from other tongues is indeed precise uncertainty

Multilingualism and Mother Tongue in Medieval French, Occitan, and Catalan Narratives Catherine E. Léglu, 2010-05-15 The Occitan literary tradition of the later Middle Ages is a marginal and hybrid phenomenon caught between the preeminence of French courtly romance and the emergence of Catalan literary prose In this book Catherine Léglu brings together for the first time in English prose and verse texts that are composed in Occitan French and Catalan sometimes in a mixture of two of these languages This book challenges the centrality of canonical texts and draws attention to the marginal the complex and the hybrid It explores the varied ways in which literary works in the vernacular composed between the twelfth and fifteenth centuries narrate multilingualism and its apparent opponent the mother tongue Léglu argues that the mother tongue remains a fantasy condemned to alienation from linguistic practices that were by definition multilingual As most of the texts studied in this book are works of courtly literature these linguistic encounters are often narrated indirectly through literary motifs of love rape incest disguise and travel

Other Musics Cynthia Cruz, 2019-04-25 Latina poets occupy an important place in today's literary landscape Coming from diverse backgrounds they share an understanding of what it means to exist within the margins of society As artists they possess a dedication to their craft and a commitment to experimentation Their voices sometimes lyrical sometimes autobiographical sometimes politically charged are distinctly female Whereas previous anthologies have merged the works of Latino and Latina poets this collection is the first to showcase Latina poetry on its own terms For years readers have admired the poetry of prominent Latina authors Cherríe Moraga Ana Castillo and Sandra Cisneros Building on their inspirational legacy Other

Musics heralds a new generation of Latina poets whose work blends traditional forms and styles with postmodern innovations. These poets do not fit neatly into one category. They come from all walks of life from remarkably varied class, ethnic, occupational, and educational backgrounds. Their topics and concerns are wide ranging. All of the poets, according to volume editor Cynthia Cruz, are creating a new kind of music, one that embraces the in-between and bicultural world that Latina women must constantly straddle. The fifteen poets featured in this anthology are Desirée Alvarez, Karen Bradway, Xochiquetzal Candelaria, Diana Maria Delgado, Natalie Diaz, Carolina Ebeid, Sandy Florian, Carrie Fountain, Leticia Hernández, Linares Ada Limón, Sheryl Luna, Kristin Naca, Deborah Paredez, Emmy Pérez, and Carmen Giménez Smith. Along with an ample selection of each of their poetry, Other Musics features an artist statement by each poet in which she discusses her work, her writing practice, how she became a writer, and her views on the purpose and mission of poetry in the contemporary world.

Multilingualism in India Debi Prasanna Pattanayak, 1990. Multilingualism in India is a challenging and stimulating study of the nature and structure of multilingualism in the Indian subcontinent. India, with 1652 mother tongues between two hundred and seven hundred languages belonging to four language families, written in ten major script systems and a host of minor ones, represents multilingualism unparalleled in the democratic world. With four thousand castes and communities and equal number of religious faiths and cults, its multilingualism matches its pluriculturalism.

French Thought and Literary

Theory in the UK Irving Goh,2019-10-21 This collection presents a sort of counter history or counter genealogy of the globalization of French thought from the point of view of scholars working in the UK While the dominating discourse would attribute the US as the source of that globalization particularly through the 1966 conference on the Languages of Criticism and the Sciences of Man at Johns Hopkins University this volume of essays serves as a reminder that the UK has also been a principal motor of that globalization The essays take into account how French thought and literary theory have institutionally taken shape in the UK from the 70s to today highlight aspects of French thought that have been of particular pertinence or importance for scholars there and outline how researchers in the UK today are bringing French thought further in terms of teaching and research in this twenty first century In short this volume traces how the country has been behind the reception and development of French thought in Anglophone worlds from the late 70s to the present
