Calendar of the Correspondence of Thomas Jefferson Thomas Jefferson, 1894. The Works of Thomas Jefferson, Vol. X (in 12 Volumes): Correspondence and Papers 1803-1807 Thomas Jefferson, 2010-05-01. Few men stand with as towering a stature in the annals of American legend as THOMAS JEFFERSON 1743-1826. Author of the Declaration of Independence and third president of the United States he ranks as one of the most significant of the United States Founding Fathers his political philosophies continuing to impact the nation to this day. In the late 19th century American biographer PAUL LEICESTER FORD 1865-1902 assembled this collection of Jefferson's most important most influential and most revealing writings. This replica of the 12 volume Federal Edition of 1904 is considered a masterpiece of historical scholarship praised for its attention to detail as well as its objective dispassion toward its subject. Here in Volume X discover Jefferson's itinerary and chronology 1803-1807 letters from 1803-1807 to such persons as William Duane John Dickinson De Witt Clinton Mrs John Adams Albert Gallatin Thomas Paine Levi Lincoln and others papers including Drafts of an Amendment to the Constitution Rules of Etiquette and others Bulletin of the Bureau of Rolls and Library of the Department of State United States. Bureau of Rolls and Library, 1894 Textual Studies and the Enlarged Eighteenth Century Kevin L. Cope, Robert C. Leitz III, 2012-05-18 Scholars, librarians, students and database vendors have all applauded the increase in access to rare old, venerated and obscure texts that has resulted from the rise of electronic resources. Almost everyone associated with any branch of cultural history has heard the claims about unlimited research opportunity and the rediscovery of overlooked sources. But are these claims true? Have high-tech systems and methods enhanced or inhibited scholarship? Nowhere is this question more pressing than in the area of eighteenth-century studies, where so much of the subject matter relates to the first wave of informational abundance to that great period of profuse printing during which presses produced a mass market full of diverse readers. Textual Studies and the Enlarged Eighteenth Century probes the assumptions about the advanced tools that may be replicating this period of profusion among contemporary scholars. How much access to period information do current cost and present institutional support really allow? Who is accessing what and who is not? Which authors and which topics get lost in the processor-driven shuffle? How do electronic tools bias scholarship? What are the disadvantages of databases? These and many more questions receive a brisk and robust review in this first critique of new-wave research. A variety of acclaimed scholars from an interdisciplinary array of specialties look at topics ranging from legacy bibliographical projects to standards for online editions to para-textual materials to the appropriateness of importing electronic research techniques into the study of a low-tech period and on to the transatlantic exchange of information in both the early modern and the present periods. Scholars in all fields will benefit from this vigorous analysis of the assumptions underlying the tools and the methods of twenty-first-century humanities scholarship. The Papers of Thomas Jefferson, Retirement Series, Volume 4 Thomas Jefferson, 2004 The Retirement Series documents Jefferson's written legacy between his return to private life on 4 March 1809 and his death on 4 July 1826. During this period Jefferson founded the University of Virginia and sold his extraordinary library to the nation, but his greatest legacy from these years is the astonishing depth and breadth of his correspondence with statesmen, inventors, scientists, philosophers and ordinary citizens on topics spanning virtually every field of human endeavor. From publisher description The Papers of Thomas Jefferson: Retirement Series, Volume 15 Thomas Jefferson, 2019-02-19 The 618 documents in this volume span 1 September 1819 to 31 May 1820. Jefferson suffers from a colic recovery from which requires extensive rest and medication. He spends much time dealing with the immediate effects of the 20,000 addition to his debts resulting from his endorsement of notes for the bankrupt Wilson Cary Nicholas. Jefferson begins to correspond with his carpenter, the enslaved John Hemmings, as Hemmings undertakes maintenance and construction work at Poplar Forest. Jefferson and his allies in the state legislature obtain authorization for a 60 000 loan for the fledgling University of Virginia the need for which becomes painfully clear when university workmen complain that they have not been paid during seven months of construction work In the spring of 1820 following congressional discussion leading to the Missouri Compromise Jefferson writes that the debate like a fire bell in the night awakened and filled me with terror and that with regard to slavery Americans have the wolf by the ear and we can neither hold him nor safely let him go
