Etlin,2002-10-15 This work explores the ways in which Nazi Germany used art and media to portray their country as a champion of Kultur and civilization Revealing how multiple domains of cultural activity served to conceptually dehumanize Jews this work shows how the seeds of the Holocaust were sown Otto Freundlich ,

Critical Laboratory Thomas Hirschhorn,2013-07-19 Writings by Thomas Hirschhorn collected for the first time trace the development of the artist's ideas and artistic strategies For the artist Thomas Hirschhorn writing is a crucial tool at every stage of his artistic practice From the first sketch of an idea to appeals to potential collaborators from detailed documentation of projects to post disassembly analysis Hirschhorn's writings mark the trajectories of his work This volume collects Hirschhorn's widely scattered texts presenting many in English for the first time In these writings Hirschhorn discusses the full range of his art from works on paper to the massive Presence and Production projects in public spaces Statements and Letters address broad themes of aesthetic philosophy politics and art historical commitments Projects consider specific artworks or exhibitions Interviews capture the artist in dialogue with Benjamin Buchloh Jacques Rancière and others Throughout certain continuities emerge Hirschhorn's commitment to quotidian materials the centrality of political and economic thinking in his work and his commitment to art in the public sphere Taken together the texts serve to trace the artist's ideas and artistic strategies over the past two decades Critical Laboratory also reproduces in color 33 Ausstellungen im öffentlichen Raum 1998 1989 an out of print catalog of Hirschhorn's earliest works in public space Sculptures of the 20th Century Wilhelm-Lehmbruck-Museum der Stadt Duisburg,South Bank Centre,1989 Bad New Days Hal Foster,2015-09-29 One of the world's leading art theorists dissects a quarter century of artistic practice Bad New Days examines the evolution of art and criticism in Western Europe and North America over the last twenty five years exploring their dynamic relation to the general condition of emergency instilled by neoliberalism and the war on terror Considering the work of artists such as Thomas Hirschhorn Tacita Dean and Isa Genzken and the writing of thinkers like Jacques Rancière Bruno Latour and Giorgio Agamben Hal Foster shows the ways in which art has anticipated this condition at times resisting the collapse of the social contract or gesturing toward its repair at other times burlesquing it Against the claim that art making has become so heterogeneous as to defy historical analysis Foster argues that the critic must still articulate a clear account of the contemporary in all its complexity To that end he offers several paradigms for the art of recent years which he terms abject archival mimetic and precarious

Sculpture 1900-1945 Penelope Curtis,1999 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the significant growth of sculpture as an artistic form in Europe and America from 1900 1945 Using a clearly defined thematic structure it identifies key issues and developments throughout this important period in the history of art Individual chapters cover public sculpture the monument the object image making the built environment the figurative ideal and different materials These themes broadly reflect the changing cultural and political climate of a turbulent period which included two world wars each preceded by widespread rising nationalism The practice of sculpture is considered within the wider artistic context of painting and architecture and the development of international art markets Auguste Rodin whose ground breaking exhibition opened in Paris in 1900 serves as the book's point of departure and as a recurrent point of reference

The Horrid Looking Glass: Reflections on Monstrosity ,2020-09-25 From the fictional world of vampires zombies and invaders from other worlds to the very real world of revolutionary France and in between the nature of the monster encompasses the very quality that makes them so believable that which we perceive as other While there is a commonality in this otherness the monster lurking in the shadows concealed in darkness or conjured with a few lines from a horror novel suggests the monster as one onto which we are free to project the most distorted and un human features In each chapter of this volume you will discover that the way in which we project what is monstrous is not a singular other but is in fact a part of our own self identity The greatest horror of the monster is not that it stands apart but that once we pull it from the shadow of our own projected imagination we discover that that the monster we fear is also bound to our own mirror image To look at the monster to name that which must never be named is to look upon a reflection and embrace a part of our nature we do not wish to see Nazi-Era Provenance of Museum Collections Jacques Schuhmacher, 2024-05-23 When we look at the artworks on display in museums there is always a real possibility that some of these objects once belonged to victims of the Nazis a possibility that has remained unacknowledged for far too long Countless artworks were seized or forcibly sold with many ending up in museum collections around the world even in countries which actively fought to defeat Nazi Germany Nazi Era Provenance of Museum Collections equips readers with the knowledge and strategies essential for confronting the shadow of the Nazi past in museum collections Jacques Schuhmacher provides the vital historical orientation required to understand the Nazis complex campaign of systematic dispossession and extermination and highlights the current environment in which museum based Nazi era provenance research takes place This book introduces readers to the research methods and resources that can be used to reveal the moving stories behind the objects highlighting the absorbing work of provenance researchers as it plays out in practice Provenance research not only seeks to recover erased names and experiences and to reinsert them into a historical record but also to ensure that the Nazis actions and worldview do not remain unchallenged in the galleries and storerooms of our museums today Praise for Nazi Era Provenance of Museum Collections Jacques Schuhmacher has written a hugely powerful instructive and important book tracing the historic responsibility of the museum world in addressing the legacy of Nazi era loot Fluently combining extensive historical scholarship with his expert understanding of investigative tools this study uses compelling examples of restitution cases to show how provenance research should be done and crucially why it must be done Dr Tristram Hunt Director of the V A A timely work drawing upon first hand experience in Nazi era provenance research providing a unique insight into the difficulties thrown up by the period This book is sure to become a point of reference for those working in the field His Honour Judge Baumgartner Deputy Chair UK Spoliation Advisory Panel It is crucially important that we continue researching the history of ownership of our museum collections Only then can historic wrongs begin to be rectified By providing both a broad overview and individual case studies Schuhmacher offers invaluable guidance on the complexities of Nazi era provenance research Gabriele Finaldi Director of the National Gallery A timely and user friendly addition to the Provenance literature Schuhmacher provides a how to manual complete with website addresses and a much needed clarification of immediate post war restitution efforts A must have for all museum and art world professionals Lynn H Nicholas author of The Rape of Europa The Fate of Europe s Treasures in the Third Reich and the Second World War Allowing readers to understand the complex world of Nazi era provenance research this book is both a guide and a moving work of research in its own right Jacques Schuhmacher is uniquely placed to write this book and to further the goal of material restitution Professor Dan Stone Director of the Holocaust Research Institute Royal Holloway University of London This is the place to start for anyone wanting to know about provenance research into looted Nazi era works of art or wanting to do the research themselves Lord Inglewood Chairman of the UK Advisory Group on Spoliation Matters *Contemporary Sculpture. Ethnic Modernism Werner Sollors, 2008 Werner Sollors's monograph looks into how African American European immigrant and other minority writers gave the United States its increasingly multicultural self awareness focusing on their use of the strategies opened up by modernism Monuments and Site-Specific Sculpture in Urban and Rural Space Inbal Ben-Asher Gitler, 2017-05-11 Monuments and Site Specific Sculpture in Urban and Rural Space presents a collection of essays discussing works of art whose formal qualities content and spatial interactions expand our idea of creation and commemoration By addressing projects that range from war memorials to commemorations of individuals as well as works that engage real and virtual environments this book brings to light new aspects concerning twentieth and twenty first century monuments and site specific sculpture The book addresses the work of among others G nter Demnig Michael Heizer Thomas Hirschhorn Dani Karavan Costantino Nivola Melissa Shiff and John Craig Freeman Robert Smithson and Michael Ullman A lucid thought provoking discussion of creative processes and the discourse between site specific sculpture and its publics is provided in this collection As such it is vital and indispensable for historians art historians and artists as well as for every reader interested in the interrelations of art urban and rural spaces community and the makings of memory

Sculptures of the Rijkmuseum Kröller-Müller Rijksmuseum Kröller-Müller, 1966 Peter Brandes Ettore Rocca, 2019-11-29 Peter Brandes is one of the most significant Danish visual artists alive today He is represented in the collections of leading museums worldwide including the Louvre and is featured in the most important Danish museums Peter Brandes monumental sculptures and jars can be seen throughout Denmark and he has decorated a number of Danish churches along with churches in Norway and the United States In Jerusalem Brandes Isaac Vase approximately five meters tall stands at the Holocaust museum Yad Vashem Peter Brandes oeuvre is gigantic It spans more than fifty years and includes such varied forms of artistic expression as painting sculpture drawing graphic art ceramics and not least photography and stained glass for which he has developed new techniques Dialogue with tradition particularly the Jewish Greek and Christian traditions runs throughout his work marking Brandes as one of Denmark's foremost practitioners of cultural migration Peter Brandes Meridian of Art is the first monograph on the art of Peter Brandes The book pursues a series of central themes that cut across Brandes artistic production connecting and traversing these with lines that the book's author Ettore Rocca calls the meridian of art The expression meridian is borrowed from the German poet Paul Celan the author with whom Brandes has felt the greatest kinship throughout his career For Celan a meridian designates the indestructible invisible line in a poetic conversation Correspondingly in the cultural migration that weaves throughout Brandes art Rocca finds a meridian

that at once appears impossible and indestructible
