Gender in Applied Communication

Contexts Patrice M. Buzzanell, Helen Sterk, Lynn H. Turner, 2004 Gender in Applied Communication Contexts explores the intersection and integration of feminist theory as applied to four important areas: organizational communication, health communication, family communication, and instructional communication. This collection of readings links theoretical insights and contributions to pragmatic ways of improving the lives of women and men in a variety of professional and personal situations. Gender in Applied Communication Contexts is recommended for upper division and graduate level courses in gender and communication, feminist theory, organizational communication, health communication, instructional communication, and applied communication. This anthology is also recommended as a research resource for scholars in Women's Studies, Family Studies, and Business and Management.

Rethinking Sexual Identity in Education Susan Birden, 2005 Rethinking Sexual Identity in Education responds to the wide spread abuse of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and questioning persons (LGBTQ) in diverse educational environments by utilizing published narratives of LGBTQ educational experiences. Conceptualizing a praxis for LGBTQ allies to use in teaching and learning about sexual identity in ways that can transform educational practices and policies, this work bridges gaps between theory and practice, liberal and postmodern thought, invention and intervention.
