Gifts We Bring to Honor the King David M. Oliver, 1997 Instead of being passive observers of the drama of worship these resources involve the congregation each week By asking people to bring simple items or certain attitudes Oliver involves church members in creating meaningful worship included in each week's material is an introductory statement explaining how the item will be used an order of worship a sermon and a prayer

Songs for a Savior David M. Oliver, 2003-07 This comprehensive resource of five sermons with complete worship services provides a solid thematically integrated worship and preaching program for Advent and Christmas Eve It celebrates the deep songs of faith that result from personal encounters with Jesus Christ The four Advent messages examine biblical personalities revealing in their experiences real struggles as well as profound joy You'll explore how Zechariah wrestled to believe what the angel told him concerning the birth of his son how the prophets searched for God's Word of hope in times of personal and social ferment how Mary was willing to sacrifice her life for God's purpose and how the birth of Jesus heralded by the angels and confirmed by the shepherds combined fear and joy with divine music In the final sermon for Christmas Eve Oliver links those accounts with our contemporary lives by asking what our personal response will be to the birth of the Savior Will we allow a song of faith to arise in our lives in our families churches and community Illustrated with poignant stories and anecdotes the sermons in Songs For A Savior invite us to hear again the truly good news that our song of faith is not so much what we create for God as how we respond to meeting the Savior and receiving God's gift of salvation through Jesus. Songs For A Savior comes from the heart of one who knows the Savior. Oliver offers these worship resources from his years of helping persons discover the Savior. The liturgies develop a theme for each Sunday and the sermons weave biblical truths into the complexities of our modern lives enabling new insights and personal convictions. Congregations experiencing Songs For A Savior will grow in their commitment to love and serve the Savior. William R. Harvey, Pastor Emeritus, Church of the Savior, Canton, Ohio. David M. Oliver holds an M.Div. degree from Duke University Divinity School and a D.Min. degree in Spiritual Formation from Asbury Theological Seminary. Waiting to Go! James Abbingdon, Linda H. Hollies, 2002 Planning for Rites and Rituals Andrew R. Wright, 2025-07-08 The indispensable guide to curating resources for worship in the Episcopal Church. Newly revised and reorganized, Planning for Rites and Rituals is a guide to liturgical planning in the Episcopal Church organized around the seasons of the church year and the cycle of Sunday readings in the revised common lectionary. Structured as a series of three volumes, one for each year in the lectionary cycle, Planning for Rites and Rituals includes guidance for making seasonal choices among the church's authorized worship resources, brief commentary on each Sunday's readings, guidance in approaching the Prayers of the People, and suggestions for observing commemorations from the church's calendar. New introductory material suggests approaches to curating liturgical resources. New editor Andrew Wright has applied his years of experience in planning liturgy at parishes across the Episcopal Church and mentoring clergy to this revision. Including contributions from throughout the church, this volume offers clergy and lay liturgical planners a framework for planning throughout the church year.

Covering all three years of the lectionary cycle, it provides bulletin inserts, litanies, prayers, and scripture readings plus original choral intonations which can be sung by a choir, small ensemble, or as a solo.
