Jewish Noir Kenneth Wishnia, 2015-11-01 Jewish Noir is a unique collection of new stories by Jewish and non-Jewish literary and genre writers including numerous award-winning authors such as Marge Piercy, Harlan Ellison, S. J. Rozan, Nancy Richler, Moe Prager, Reed Farrel Coleman, Wendy Hornsby, Charles Ardai, and Kenneth Wishnia. The stories explore such issues as the Holocaust and its long-term effects on subsequent generations, anti-Semitism in the mid and late twentieth-century United States, and the dark side of the Diaspora: the decline of revolutionary fervor, the passing of generations, the Golden Ghetto, etc. The stories in this collection also include many teachable moments about the history of prejudice and the contradictions of ethnic identity and assimilation into American society. Stories include "A Simkhe," a celebration first published in Yiddish in the Forverts in 1912 by one of the great unsung writers of that era, Yente Serdatsky. This story depicts the disillusionment that sets in among a group of Russian Jewish immigrant radicals after several years in the United States. This is the story's first appearance in English. "Trajectories," Marge Piercy's story of the divergent paths taken by two young men from the slums of Cleveland and Detroit in a rapidly changing post-World War II society. "Some You Lose," Nancy Richler's empathetic exploration of the emotional and psychological challenges of trying to sum up a man's life in a eulogy. "Her Daughter's Bat Mitzvah," Rabbi Adam Fisher's darkly comic, profanity-filled monologue in the tradition of Sholem Aleichem, the writer best known as the source material for Fiddler on the Roof, minus the profanity that is Flowers of Shanghai. S. J. Rozan's compelling tale of hope and despair set in the European refugee community of Japanese-occupied Shanghai during World War II. "Yahrzeit Candle," Stephen Jay Schwartz's take on the subtle horrors of the inevitable passing of time.

Lectionary-Based Gospel Dramas for Lent and the Easter Triduum Sheila O'Connell-Roussell, Therese Vorndran Nichols, 1999. What better way to bring the Gospel alive for teens than through drama? Using reproducible scripts, the dramas in Lectionary-Based Gospel Dramas for Lent and the Easter Triduum break open the Gospels for Lent, Holy Week, and Easter, moving the hearts and minds of youth and adults alike. By engaging in these dramas, participants act as catechist, lector, Gospel players, improv artists, small group leaders, and audience, a unique learning environment that allows young people to be catechists for themselves and for one another. The dramas are powerful yet easy to stage. The leader's role is purposefully minimal, allowing teens to take the leading roles in the production. These dramas have been used successfully in school classrooms, parish religious education programs, youth groups, RCIA catechesis, homiletic reflections at Mass, and retreats. This book contains everything you need to produce ten dramas, including 10 reproducible scripts and 10 full-page icons by Vicki Shuck, which are an essential component for visual learners. Imagine the excitement and learning your teens will experience as they live the Gospel through drama.
