This gives a particular importance to past travellers' descriptions of their use and form. There are sections from the following accounts of visits to Persian gardens in the Encyclopedia and engravings to capture the flavour of Persian gardens as they were. Montesquieu's Persian letters 1721 contained little information on Persian gardens but did much to awaken interest in seraglios and the romance of the East. Washington Irving the father of American literature published a famous account of the Alhambra in 1832. He was a friend of Sir Walter Scott and has the same interest in welding history with imagination. This provides a glimpse of the Alhambra and Generalife when they were beyond question the finest gardens in Europe. eTexts relating to Renaissance Gardens.
