Our Home Front 1939-45:

Our Home Front, 1939-45 Andrew Bolt, 1995 Foreword by Geoffrey Blainey afterword by Joan Kirner The British Home Front 1939-45 Martin Brayley, 2012-07-20 The population of Britain was mobilized to support the war effort on a scale unseen in any other Western democracy or in Nazi Germany They endured long working shifts shortages of food and all other goods and complete government control of their daily lives Most men and women were conscripted or volunteered for additional tasks outside their formal working hours Under the air raids that destroyed the centres of many towns and made about 2 million homeless more than 60 000 civilians were killed and 86 000 seriously injured This fascinating illustrated summary of wartime life and the organizations that served on the Home Front is a striking record of endurance and sacrifice

The German Home Front 1939-45 Brian L Davis, 2012-05-20 The first detailed illustrated description in English of wartime life in Germany and the tentacles of the Nazi state as they affected every man woman and child German families suffered the same hardships as British labour conscription extra civic duties severe shortages of food and necessities disrupted transport homelessness and evacuation separation from loved ones and for many bereavement However there were important differences The dictator for whom many had voted was leading them to ruin unequalled death and devastation ensued from Allied air raids and every aspect of life was caged around with repressive decrees that began to replace the true rule of law well before September 1939 This book outlines and illustrates the living conditions of German civilians in World War II and the Nazi state s basic structure

Murder at Dusk Ian W. Shaw, 2018-06-26 Far away from any World War II battlefield the citizens of Melbourne lived in fear of a serial killer the Brownout Strangler May 1942 Melbourne was torn between fearing Japanese invasion and revelling in the carnival atmosphere brought by the influx of 15 000 cashed up American servicemen But those US forces didn t guarantee safety Not long after their arrival the city would be gripped by panic when the body of a woman was found strangled partially naked and brutally beaten Six days later another woman was found dead and her body told the same horrific story A murderer was stalking the streets As women were warned not to travel alone an intense manhunt ensued Not long after a third woman was murdered American soldier Eddie Leonski was arrested A calculating psychopath he had a twisted fascination with female voices especially when they were singing Acclaimed author Ian W Shaw brings World War II Melbourne to life and takes us into the mind of the Brownout Strangler and a very different kind of terror enthralling makes for a fascinating read Canberra Times on Ian W Shaw s The Rag Tag Fleet

Goodnight Bobbie Marilyn Dodkin, 2006 It is 1941 Australia is at war and there are fears of an attack on the homeland Captain Bobbie Puflett a doctor serving with the 10th Australian General Hospital of the 8th Division in Malaya writes to his parents Bob and Ethel and sister Del When the Allies surrender to the Japanese in February 1942 Bobbie is one of 15 000 men of the 8th Division who disappear It is eighteen months before his family knows that he is a prisoner of war but they continue to write This is one family s story told through letters We learn of everyday life in wartime Sydney and service in the allied forces before the fall of Singapore Most of all the letters bring to life the pain of separation

Wimbledon, Merton & Morden at War, 1939-45 Ruth Mansergh, 2018-10-30 More than 350 bombs fell on Wimbledon during the Second World War killing 150 residents and injuring a further 1 071 Around 12 000 houses were damaged and 810 destroyed Notable people discussed in this fascinating book include Ernest Leonard Harvey who was onboard HMS Suffolk on the night Bismarck was spotted Peter Walley who died when he steered his crashing aircraft away from housing in the area Pat Reid Colditz Castle escapee PoW Ernest Colman s Wimbledon Variation casualties of the Burma Thailand railway and the members of the Mitcham Home Guard who were killed when a German parachute mine hit the Tower Creameries site on Wednesday 16 April 1941 after a relatively quiet couple of weeks This well researched book also includes a list of the lost hospitals of Wimbledon as well as war memorials in the London Borough of Merton findings which have since been added to the Imperial War Museum s website www.iwm.org.uk It also provides an insight into factory worker jobs that have long since bitten the dust Tri ang in South Wimbledon was a national by word for toys until it started making munitions for real And with the outbreak of war Vortexion of The Broadway Wimbledon a manufacturer of public address amplifiers found itself under the direction of the Government for war work Overall this is a poignant testimony to the momentous efforts bravery self sacrifice and determination of the people of Wimbledon during the Second World War who sought to find normality in a reality so far removed from anything they had ever known Leeds at War, 1939-45 Stephen

Wade, 2017-09-30 Leeds at War 1939 1945 is a comprehensive account of the city s experience of the war covering in expert detail life on the Home Front set against the background of the wider theaters of war The narrative of that global conflict is given with a focus on the trials and ordeals that faced the people of Leeds as they cheered their men and women fighters off to war were bombed and saw their children evacuated to rural areas Rare insights into the life of war torn Leeds are included along with untold stories from the footnotes of that history from the air raid shelters to the internment issues The book incorporates the unique human record of that struggle from memoirs and memories so that the reader sees the war bottom up from the ordinary people although the military experiences of Leeds citizens are not ignored More controversial topics are also touched upon such as anti Semitism labor troubles and crime to give a full and fascinating picture of a great city facing profound trials of endurance courage and that true Yorkshire grit that has been the hallmark of the city s rise to prominence in Britain

Kent at War 1939-45 Tanya Wynn, 2019-06-30 This comprehensive account of the southern English county during WWII covers everything from the Dunkirk evacuations to the Battle of Britain and more Located along the English Channel the southeastern county of Kent played a significant role in the Second World War This volume covers Kent s many contributions both civilian and military throughout the conflict The chronicle details how the Dover Patrol kept Allied shipping safe in the English Channel as well as the preparation and aftermath of the Dunkirk evacuations of May 1940 with all of the vessels leaving from and returning to Kent ports and harbors Kent s numerous airfields were of vital importance

during the Battle of Britain between July and October 1940 The Richborough camp set up in 1939 at the old First World War Kitchener barracks provided safe haven to thousands of German and Austrian Jewish refugees This book includes never before published letters written to one of the camps residents during his stay there Historian Tanya Wynn also discusses the county's military hospitals and POW camps its Victorian Cross and George Medal winners and the restricted areas that adorned the coast as the people of Kent battened down the hatches knowing that they were the very first line of defense in case of a German invasion

On the Homefront Jennifer Anne Gregory, 1996 For Western Australians World War II began as a phoney war remote from their shores but by 1942 the homefront faced the real threat of invasion with the Japanese at the doorstep

Reconstructing the Past Sian Nicholas, Tom O'Malley, Kevin Williams, 2013-09-13 Bringing together a team of history and media researchers from across Britain and Europe this volume provides readers with a themed discussion of the range and variety of the media's engagement with history and a close study of the relationship between media history and national identity

The West at War 1939-45 Nick Maddocks, 2005-04-21 The West at War due to accompany a major 6 part series for ITV1 West of England produced by Testimony Films and to be broadcast across May/June 2005 commemorates the 60th anniversary of the end of World War II and features the stories of servicemen and women from Bristol and the South West

Warwick at War 1939-45 Graham Sutherland, 2020-03-20 When the Second World War broke out Warwick already had public air raid shelters planned gas masks were being distributed and there was even a power struggle when Warwickshire County Council took control of the Air Raid Wardens from the police Although Warwick was not a prime target for the Luftwaffe nearby Coventry was and minor blackout regulations were rigorously enforced St Mary's Church was believed to have been used as a marker for the Luftwaffe and when Coventry was attacked in November 1940 the flames could be seen from Warwick Afterwards refugees soon began arriving from the stricken city Visiting American and Canadian troops were welcomed in their thousands although other temporarily stationed service personnel were not always so popular as their arrival coincided with a shortage of other local young men in the town and bigamy cases were not unknown Meanwhile rationing brought its own problems the stealing of both petrol and ration coupons was not unheard of while the shortage of petrol resulted in a rise in offences involving the use of bicycles usually by service personnel By late 1944 it was apparent the Allies had won the war and the Home Guard was stood down Indeed the celebrations for VE Day had been prepared long before victory was declared

Manchester at War 1939-45 Graham Pythian, 2014-02-03 This new book is a remarkable and moving account of life on the home front in Manchester during the Second World War Based on transcripts of recorded interviews with senior civilians and former members of the Armed Services this book provides a first hand narrative of what it was like to live under the shadow of war The everyday hardships and heroism are recalled the Blitz rationing the Home Guard evacuees war work and the American presence prior to D Day Despite all the tragedy and difficulties the Mancunian spirit shines through with the frequent dash of unquenchable humour Richly illustrated and filled with true accounts of local heroism and of the unbreakable spirit of the people of Manchester during these tumultuous years this book looks at how the city fared during the Second World War played her part in victory and how the day to day life of her people was affected Swansea's Frontline Kids 1939-45 Jim Owen,2014-08-15 The story of the Second World War in Swansea as witnessed by the city's children BRITISH WAR FILMS, 1939 - 45 S. P. Mackenzie,2001-01-01 The cinema was the most popular form of entertainment during the Second World War Film was a critically important medium for influencing opinion Films such as In Which We Serve and One of Our Aircraft is Missing shaped the British people's perceptions of the conflict British War Films 1939 45 is an account of the feature films produced during the war rather than government documentaries and official propaganda making the book an important index of British morale and values at a time of desperate national crisis Stranger in the House Julie Summers,2009-07-06 It is as if I have been waiting for someone to ask me these questions for almost the whole of my life From 1945 more than four million British servicemen were demobbed and sent home after the most destructive war in history Damaged by fighting imprisonment or simply separation from their loved ones these men returned to a Britain that had changed in their absence In Stranger in the House Julie Summers tells the women's story interviewing over a hundred women who were on the receiving end of demobilisation the mothers wives sisters who had to deal with an injured emotionally damaged relative those who assumed their fiancés had died only to find them reappearing after they had married another woman who had illegitimate children following a wartime affair as well as those whose steadfast optimism was rewarded with a delightful reunion Many of the tales are moving some are desperately sad others are full of humour but all provide a fascinating account of how war altered ordinary women's lives forever

Troubled Waters Patrick Troy,2008-06-01 Australian cities have traditionally relied for their water on a predict and provide philosophy that gives primacy to big engineering solutions In more recent years privatised water authorities seeking to maximise consumption and profits have reinforced the emphasis on increasing supply Now the cities must cope with the stresses these policies have imposed on the eco systems from which they harvest water into which they discharge wastes and on which they are located Residents are having to pay more for their water while the cities themselves are becoming less sustainable Must we build more dams and desalination plants or should we be managing the demand for urban water more prudently This book explores the demand for urban water and how it has changed in response to shifting social mores over the past century It explains how demand for centralised provision of water might be reshaped to enable the cities to better cope with expected changes in supply as our climate changes And it discusses the implications of property rights in water for proposals to privatise water services British War Films, 1939-1945 S. P. MacKenzie,2001-02-01 The cinema was the most popular form of entertainment during the Second World War Film was a critically important medium for influencing opinion Films such as In Which We Serve and One of Our Aircraft is Missing shaped the British people's perceptions of the conflict British War Films 1939 1945 is an account of the feature films produced during the war rather than government documentaries and official propaganda making the book an important index of British morale and values at a time of desperate national crisis Isle of Man at War, 1939-45 Matthew Richardson, 2018-10-30 This WWII history presents the remarkable story of the Manx people and their homeland in the Irish Sea throughout the epic conflict Few people are now aware of the extraordinary role the Isle of Man played in assisting the allied war effort Yet for six years a place best known as a holiday playground became a heavily armed fortress Hundreds of airmen soldiers and sailors were trained in readiness for combat Thousands of enemy aliens were imprisoned behind the barbed wire of its camps alongside those of British birth who were deemed to be a threat to security Top secret radar was developed and the Island's merchant fleet played a vital role at Dunkirk and D Day On battlefields around the world gallant Manxmen fought bravely whilst at home there was a surprising tolerance for those with pacifist beliefs Likewise though there was increased government control in almost all areas of life these were times of great advancement for Manx democracy The story is told in the words of those who were there some of whom speak for the first time about their experiences Their accounts bring a freshness and immediacy to this remarkably vivid narrative Racial Science and British Society, 1930-62 G. Schaffer, 2008-09-02 From 1930-62 the idea of race was studied across a range of academic disciplines This book explores expert thinkings on race in the period and explains the relationship between scientific racial research social policy and attitudes regarding immigration ultimately offering new insight into the evolving understanding of the idea of race
