Living Literacies Kate Pahl, Jennifer Rowsell, 2020-09-22 An approach to literacy that understands it as lived and experienced in the everyday across varied spaces and populations This book approaches literacy as lived and experienced in the everyday A living literacies approach draws not only on such official schooled activities as reading writing speaking and listening but also on such routine tacit activities as scrolling through Instagram watching news footage and listening to music It goes beyond well worn framings of literacy as an object of study to reimagine literacy as constantly in motion vital and dynamic filled with affective intensities A lived literacies approach implies a turn to activism to hopeful practice and to creativity The authors examine literacies through a series of active verbs seeing disrupting hoping knowing creating and making Case studies ranging from an exploration of photography as a way to shift perspectives to a project in which adults teach young people how to fish show lived literacies in both theory and practice With these chapters Pahl and Rowsell along with contributors Collier Pool Rasool and Trzecak make it possible to see literacy in everyday activities woven into the modes of seeing and knowing By disruption and activism literacy can encompass a wide array of practices exchanging information at a school gate or making a collage Grounding theory in the sites and spaces of their research working with artists photographers poets and makers the authors issue a call to action for literacy education
