

A photograph of a dirt path leading through a forest. The path is light brown and leads towards a bright, hazy opening in the trees. The trees on either side have autumn-colored foliage in shades of orange, yellow, and brown. Some evergreen trees are visible in the background. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and scenic.

Our lives are stories, and the stories we have to give to each other are the most important. No one has a story too small and all are of equal stature. We each tell them in different ways, through different mediums – and if we care about each other, we'll take the time to listen.

Follow Your Bliss and Other Lies about Calling Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, 2024 What does it mean to pursue a calling According to Bonnie J Miller McLemore it may mean ambiguity uncertainty and even suffering but that s what makes it worthwhile Drawing on over thirty years of research and concrete examples from history fiction and her own experience she delves into the inherent complexities around the pursuit of a calling and the lie that meaning in life is as simple as following your bliss Instead the path to meaning is rocky and uncertain and that is exactly what makes it worth following The Future of Theology Miroslav Volf, Carmen Krieg, Thomas Kucharz, 1996 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable Perhaps no other theologian of the second half of this century has shaped theology so profoundly as has Jürgen Moltmann He appeared on the world theological scene with his Theology of Hope 1964 and took most of its capitals by storm His subsequent works have kept him at the forefront of the modern theological enterprise and the power of his vision and the originality of his method have inspired a host of new theologians In terms of fecundity Moltmann's opus remains unmatched among his generation of theologians More than 130 dissertations written so far on his thought most of them in the past decade testify eloquently to its continued attractiveness In honor of Moltmann's 70th birthday twenty six of the world's leading theologians his friends colleagues interlocutors and former students have contributed to this volume on the future of theology Moltmann himself has always sought to be both contemporary and future oriented his theology can be viewed as an exercise not only from the perspective of God's future but also toward a new human future Thus a book on the future of theology takes up an aspect of his theme and his concern Yet this volume also makes a significant contribution to theology in its own right seeking as it does to address the present crisis of theology As Miroslav Volf writes in his introduction On the threshold of the third millennium the presumed queen of sciences has grown old and feeble unable to see that what she thinks is her throne is just an ordinary chair uncertain about what her territories are and confused about how to rule in the realms she thinks are hers seeking advice from a quarrelsome chorus of counselors each of whom thinks himself the king and ending up with a divided even schizophrenic mind The essays in this volume attempt to revitalize theology as it confronts a difficult future Despite the formidable obstacles that threaten the very survival of theology in the next century religious and cultural plurality the marginalization of theology in public discourse increasing abstraction in the practice of theology pressing issues of gender race poverty and ecology the seemingly archaic voice of theology in post Christian societies the contributors to this volume all believe in the future of theology as a vibrant discipline The Future of Theology is organized in three parts Challenges deals with the external or internal problems that theology is facing Perspectives offers proposals on how to meet the challenges Themes concentrates on various issues that need special attention today Together these essays succeed in setting the theological agenda for the future of theology and thereby serve as a fitting tribute to this volume's esteemed honoree Contributors Stanley Hauerwas Elisabeth Moltmann-Wendel John B Cobb Jr James H Cone D Lyle Dabney Ingolf U Dalferth Gustavo Guti rrez Douglas John Hall Ellen T Charry M Douglas Meeks Johann Baptist Metz Konrad Raiser Wolfhart Pannenberg Paul Ricoeur John Howard Yoder Dietrich Ritschl Dorothy S.
