

Our tendency to attribute our behavior to our context or to blame others for it is directly in contrast to how we tend to judge others' actions. When it comes to other people, we are far more likely to attribute the bad meal to their inability to cook rather than to other causes. This is called the fundamental attribution error.

Our Context:

Pauline Letters: Texts @ Contexts Menghun Goh, 2024-02-08 In this volume contributors from various social locations in North America Asia Europe and Australia analyse and interpret Pauline letters Engaging both the biblical text and the lives and contexts from different sociocultural religious methodological perspectives each contributor demonstrates the dynamic interaction between text and context in their understanding and explanation of the text The first part of the volume highlights the hermeneutical focus in interpretation That is how a certain chosen worldview e g Lutheran liturgical worldview affects one s decision in prioritizing a certain textual dimension and level instead of others Part Two elucidates how even a technical analysis of the text e g epistolography is context oriented Part Three shows how such a contemporary contextual interpretation is also an intercontextual and intertextual interpretation that entails intersectional and global local experiences

Western Culture in Gospel Context David J. Kettle, 2011-04-18 Approaching us in sovereign freedom God comes alive to us we come alive to God and all creation comes alive as a sign pointing to God In the gospel of Jesus Christ God gives and discloses himself in this immediate way as our ultimate context and host within the provisional medium of creation This life giving gospel is met by blindness however among those who live today in a collapsing Western culture This is because their imaginative world is shaped by habitual assumptions and practices that lie largely unacknowledged deep within that culture and that preclude openness to the gospel Moreover Western Christians themselves widely share these assumptions betraying the gospel into cultural captivity God calls for the conversion of Western culture to the living gospel Crucially this must include as Lesslie Newbigin recognized a repentance from modern Western assumptions about knowledge Part One explores seeking knowing and serving God as providing a true paradigm for understanding all human enquiry knowledge and action Part Two examines ten resulting hot spots where conversion from prevailing cultural assumptions is vital for authentic mission to Western culture

The Post-Racial Limits of Memorialization Alfred Frankowski, 2015-11-09 The Post Racial Limits of Memorialization Toward a Political Sense of Mourning attempts to show how post racial discourse in general and post racial memory specifically operates as a context through which the memorialization of anti black violence and the production of new forms of this violence are connected Alfred Frankowski argues that aside from being symbolically meaningful the post racial context requires that memorialization of anti black violence in the past produces memory as a type of forgetting By challenging many of tenants of the critical turn in political philosophy and aesthetics he argues against a politics of reconciliation and for a political sense of mourning that amplifies the universality of violence embedded in our contemporary sensibility He argues for a sense of mourning that requires that we deepen our understanding of how remembrance and resistance to oppression remain linked and necessitates a fluid and active reconfiguration relative to the context in which this oppression exists

Indigenous Engineering for an Enduring Culture Cat Kutay, Elysebeth Leigh, Juliana Kaya Prpic, Lyndon Ormond-Parker, 2022-09-28 For many millennia Indigenous Australians have been engineering the landscape using sophisticated technological and philosophical knowledge systems in a deliberate response to changing social and environmental circumstances These knowledge systems integrate profound understanding of country and bring together knowledge of the topography and geology of the landscape its natural cycles and ecological systems its hydrological systems and natural resources including fauna and flora This enables people to manage resources sustainably and reliably and testifies to a developed contextualised knowledge system and to a society with agency and the capability to maintain and refine accumulated knowledge and material processes This book is a recognition and acknowledgement of the ingenuity of Indigenous engineering which is grounded in philosophical principles values and practices that emphasise sustainability reciprocity respect and diversity and often presents a much needed challenge to a Western engineering worldview Each chapter is written by a team of authors combining Indigenous knowledge skills and academic expertise providing examples of collaboration at the intersection of Western and Indigenous engineering principles sharing old and new knowledges and skills These varied approaches demonstrate ways to integrate Indigenous knowledges into the curricula for Australian engineering degrees in line with the Australian Council of Engineering Deans Position Statement on Embedding Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspectives into the engineering curriculum first published in 2017
