The Forgotten Self Asa E. Lennon,2001-06-06 The Forgotten Self is a product of a lifetime study of meditation eastern philosophy and spiritual seeking The author a martial arts teacher and practitioner found a need among his fellow students for a how to manual on the subject of meditation This instructional paper became a chapter in this three part book The Forgotten Self deals with such topics as meditation world religions metaphysics and spirituality as it relates to todays world It is a guideline for the spiritual life style as well as an instructional manual for unlocking those lost or unknown abilities latent in mankind as a species Insightful and rewarding The Forgotten Self promises to leave the reader with a better understanding of reality the universe and his part in it Divided into three separate sections this book leads the reader through a process of opening possibilities providing answers for them and expanding awareness through practical experiments The first part is The Essence of Reality Here the author discusses such topics as modern society individual and mass reality and forgotten ancient wisdom Asa Lennon believes there are abilities of mankind that have in the whirl of modern society been anciently forgotten He hopes to show the reader that man has reached the point in history where he teeters between existence and extinction between civilization and chaos It is the distancing of man from spirit that is at the heart of this problem By returning to spirit we can reclaim our heritage as keepers of the Earth and her treasures The second part is The Mystic Way the Forgotten Path Here Lennon discusses the solutions to problems that plague mankind individually and en masse This part outlines specific ways to enhance your life society and the universe as products of the conscious awareness of the individual Part three will open the readers awareness through the introduction of various spiritual and metaphysical concepts Entitled Remembering

Yourself it not only provides mind challenging possibilities but actually describes experimental opportunities in the chapter 20 The Human Laboratory Asa Lennon promises the Forgotten Self will embark the reader on a journey of increased awareness spirituality and wonder as the forgotten self once again becomes known Perceptions of Reality Gregory Calise,2003 Although we are all living in the same world we are simultaneously each living in our own seperate universe where each person observes himself as the center of that universe Each person has a unique conditioning and belief structure that create his perspective in which he views reality The world than interfaces witheach person to create a reality that conforms to his beliefs A person s conditioning and beliefs affect his attitudes and emotions which then magnetize certain energies that resonate to his state of being In this way each individual is creating a seperate reality according to his perceptions of truth What we percieve as reality is only the surface of a much deeper and greater truth Beyond the apparent world lies the essence of life and a vast kingdom of hidden knowledge Our conditioning and beliefs bind us to a certain perspective in which we view our reality Perceptions of Reality show us how we can break free of the bondage of our conditioning that holds us in a life of mediocrity When we become free from this bondage we can change our perspective which in turn changes our perceptions From a highter perspective we can see the larger picture of our lives and the world We will see the circumstances that have created our present reality and the relationships of events and experiences that were previously beyond our horizons of perception From this higher perspective we will perceive the world in a new light It will change brfore our eyes and interface with us in a new and more positive way We will be able to take control of our lives change our destiny and shape a new future From this higher state of awareness we will discover the portal to access the abstract mind which is the mental function of genius and the doorway to revelation From the perspective of revelation we will open the doors into the absolute realms beyond material time and space and describes the perceptions of God the soul the world and the paths to higher consciousness Perceptions of Reality will show us how to access the abstract mind and open the doorways into revelation creating a new reality full of abundance harmony and joy Macmillan's Magazine ,1861
