Hopkinton NY is a quiet little town in the northeast part of the state settled by New Englanders and built in the New England style with a village green white wood frame churches and large Victorian houses Life here has generally moved at a leisurely pace yet Hopkinton's people have had their dramas both comedy and tragic and their stories have been remembered In 1903 Carlton Sanford had a book published documenting the settling of the town from a wilderness in 1802 through its first hundred years of development and tracing the descendants of the first settlers Now Dale Burnett has written a folk history of the second hundred years chronicling the events in the lives of Hopkinton's people and the town itself through the 20th century Mr Burnett has researched each separate district of the township and spoken with at least one person from each area to get its history from someone who lived there In addition to the facts one would expect businesses history of the fire department town officers he has taken almost every house along each road in the town and listed the residents through the years along with any tales that may have been told about them Based mainly on interviews with older Hopkinton folk some of whom were alive when Sanford's book came out the stories handed down have been preserved as the old people told them Facts are supported by newspaper articles deeds and other documents Included are tales of Hopkinton's characters its three or four murders and its one kidnapping case with still unanswered questions And following Mr Sanford's example at the end of The Second Hundred Years are genealogies submitted by Hopkinton families many of whom can still trace their ancestry to those early settlers      ADDLED ESSENCE Richard Vaughn,2024-11-14 ADDLED ESSENCE The most plausible excuse for a short story collection as varied and scrambled as this one is that it's a grab bag of oddities that couldn't be disguised within a sensibly themed book But anchored by the longest Addled Essence a belated story of two late teen Korean War veterans lost within themselves on a varied road trip of self discovery as told years later in grandfather hood it compiles a litany of characters situations and philosophy that forms an eccentric saga A few titles from the other thirty eight stories might produce reader vertigo Ida's Journey Anonymous Anonymity Matters Most Private Excess Baggage Celestial Bar and Grill All In and Then Some Brother and Sister Act Human Factors in Daily Life Wake the Dead and An Infinite Instant Birth Burglary Childhood Death Drugs Family Fantasy Fate Fear Humor Love Movies Murder Parody Parents Poker Police Politics Psychoses and Senior hood soar throughout like birds gone mad on alcohol laced nut meats These tales are an acquired taste for those who walk lope or run on the literary wild side      No Man's Land Paul Swift,2002 Set on Tyneside during the World War I this moving play sets up dramatic conflicts of issue and personality Women fight for the right to work and to vote and
