Ruth Rosengarten, 2022-08-23 In this intimate memoir Ruth Rosengarten explores the subject of evocative objects through a series of interconnected essays Evocative objects reflect our attitudes to our own lives and how we seek to display ourselves to ourselves They are therefore closely linked to our memories and how we filter process and reconstruct them Rosengarten explores the themes and associations invoked by her own evocative objects which are frequently shabby things of no material value They are importantly often objects that in their materiality bear traces of actions of something having been Through the associative pathways that these objects have paved she discusses her experiences with the losses she has undergone her family's migrations and what it means to be a childless
