and why it deepens our understanding of life A Book of Women Poets from Antiquity to Now Aliki Barnstone, Willis Barnstone, 1992-04-28 A monument to the literary genius of women throughout the ages A Book of Women Poets from Antiquity to Now is an invaluable collection Here in one volume are the works of three hundred poets from six different continents and four millennia This revised edition includes a newly expanded section of American poets from the colonial era to the present A splendid collection of verse by women TIME throughout the ages and around the world now revised and Inspiring Literacy Sam Leaton Sebesta, Kenneth L. Donelson, 1993-01-01 expanded with 38 American poets Separate Vision Deborah Pope, 1999-03-01 The emergence of large numbers of women writers expressing a deliberately female consciousness has marked one of the significant directions of literature in this century A central idea embraced by these writers has been the particular isolation or marginality flet by women In A Separate Vision Deborah Pope focuses on four representative poets Louise Bogan Maxine Kumin Denise Levertov and Adrienne Rich to explore the ways in which women writers treatment of isolation extends our perception of women s experience and our understanding of the alienated human sensibility In the work of these poets Pope identifies four distinct phases of isolation split self and validation These phases represent a progression from negation to affirmation from a sense of powerlessness and severe restriction to one of literal and psychological freedom She shows how the dynamics of this progression have operated in each poet s development with each starting from the negative stance of victimization and moving in varying degrees toward validation But Pope also finds that in each woman's work one phase of isolation is predominant. She sees the tension and confessionalism in the poetry of Bogan the earliest of the four as most representative of victimization Kumin's poems on her alienation from familial and social experiences exemplify personalization The split self is manifested most clearly in Levertov whose work shows a woman torn between her social female self and her inner artistic self Rich the most committed feminist of this group si also the strongest exemplar of validation Her recent poems are charged with personality and power and the isolation in her writing is the isolation of those in the forefront of exploration and change This progress toward a positive sense of women s isolation is a significant movement in contemporary poetry With what Pope describes as their vigorous revisioning of our patterns of human experience women poets are today showing us new ways of understanding and realizing human dignity and worth

Anne Sexton Diane Middlebrook,1992-10-27 Anne Sexton began writing poetry at the age of twenty nine to keep from killing herself She held on to language for dear life and somehow in spite of alcoholism and the mental illness that ultimately led her to suicide managed to create a body of work that won a Pulitzer Prize and that still sings to thousands of readers This exemplary biography which was nominated for the National Book Award provoked controversy for its revelations of infidelity and incest and its use of tapes from Sexton s psychiatric sessions It reconciles the many Anne Sextons the 1950s housewife the abused child who became an abusive mother the seductress the suicide who carried kill me pills in her handbag the way other women carry lipstick and the poet who transmuted confession into lasting art Unsettling America Maria Mazziotti
